County Commission Meeting Extended by Executive Sessions

By Ron Allen

The Tuesday, September 30th, Putnam County Commission meeting was unusual in that it featured two executive sessions. The first session of 52 minutes was devoted to the conduct of Board interviews. During the second session of 30 minutes, the commission met to discuss the possible purchase, sale or lease of property. The two sessions were separated by about 55 minutes which consisted of regular business and public comment.

Following the first executive session, the commission appointed James Dodrill to the Central WV Regional Airport Authority; Kristen Kelley to the Parks and Recreation Board; Andrea Schirtzinger, Tiffany Skaggs, and Ted Diaz to the Animal Shelter Board; Kathy Goldizen to the Putnam County PSD Board; and Commissioner Doug Pearson to the Parks and Recreation Board.

During public comment Gary Young presented the commission a copy of a letter which the Common Sense and Widening Teays Valley Road Committee submitted to the DOH, requesting an additional stakeholders meeting. Young stated that the YMCA and Superintendent of Schools have issued letters of opposition to the proposed widening plan. Young also requested that the commission issue a letter of support for a new stakeholders meeting with the DOH. Ellen Mills Pauley also addressed the commission concerning the Teays Valley Road widening. Pauley said that the Environmental Impact Statements which determine project design are often incorrect but are not challenged, resulting in a misuse of taxpayer dollars. She also stated that she was opposed to the roundabouts that DOH has proposed.

In an unrelated issue, attorney Gay Elmore cautioned the commission against consideration of a request by the Putnam County Gun Club to institute condemnation and forced sale of proceedings of property which the Gun Club has damaged by errant bullets. Elmore is seeking a settlement from the Gun Club's insurer for property damage.

In other business, the commission approved a funding request of one thousand dollars from Kathy Talley for the Putnam Master Gardners' Hootenanny.

The commission approved changes to the county's towing policy. County Attorney Larry Frye stated that the policy changes reflect input from law enforcement, current providers, OES, EMS, and the Fire Service Board. The stipulation that a towing service provider having operated in Putnam County for one year remains unchanged.

The commission also approved a rezoning request from Mark and attend an author event. She goes to many; I go to few. One of my favorite authors was to be there on my birthday. Meagan Church... I was so excited.

This excellent creative author is telling the stories of women of my time. Her books are exceptional. She is amazing. I read her books over and over. There are no words to describe these novels.

I have written about this author several times in this column. To say she is unique is an understatement.

I reread Meagan's books and each time. I come away with new thoughts. Her images are thought provoking.

This new book, The Mad Wife, is set in the 1950's. It is about a wife and mother who suffers from what they used to call, "nerves." She suffered. It seemed few cared. Meagan tells this woman's story in a way that few writers could. I was astonished at how realistic this work of fiction was. A page turner.

Each year, I read hundreds of books. To say that I have a new favorite author is not a surprise to most. My daughter and I are avid readers and this brilliant young woman has touched us.

Meagan touches my heart with her stories. Don't miss the experience of learning more about these women... don't miss the chance to read about "our time"... we read because the way we were is the way we are...always.

Judy, are husband and wife, and performances feature outrageous plots and slapstick humor.

A new event at this year's Battle Days was a miniature recreation of the Battle of Point Pleasant hosted by Gamers of Ashland, Kentucky.

Jeffery Cavender taught visitors about the battle through demonstrations of miniature wargaming. Game pieces – each representing 20 men – were arranged on a large wargame layout which depicted the Tu-Endie-Wei area in autumn. Anyone could pick up the dice and play a turn or two.

Other Battle Days events included a 5K run, a lantern tour, a parade down Main Street, a colonial-style ball, a church service, and memorial service.

Considered by many historians to be the first battle of the American Revolution, the Battle of Point Pleasant was fought on October 10, 1774, at the confluence of the Kanawha and Ohio Rivers. The combatants were Virginia militiamen under Colonel Andrew Lewis and Shawnee and Mingo warriors under Chief Cornstalk. The battle ended when the Shawnee forces withdrew across the Ohio River.

include state, county and federal dollars, West Virginia now spends almost $16,000 per student every single year. Meanwhile, the 55 county superintendents alone collect more than $7.5 million in salaries annually — that does not include assistant superintendents.

We can't ignore the national rankings. WalletHub in 2025 ranked West Virginia 45th overall; World Population Review for 2025 ranked West Virginia 46th; U.S. News & World Report, 2025 ranked West Virginia 47th for Pre-K - 12 education and the Annie E. Casey Foundation ranked West Virginia 48th out of 50 for education outcomes in 2024. These numbers are not caused by parents choosing homeschooling, private schools or HOPE Scholarships. They are the direct result of a public school system that has lost its focus, its accountability and its credibility. The truth is the public school system has been run into the ground by bureaucrats, unions and so-called leaders who put their own interests above the children's. Mr. Hardesty doesn't say it, but he helped oversee this decline. The Legislature has finally given parents what they demanded for decades: the ability to choose.

I am proud to have been a leading voice in expanding homeschooling and school choice across West Virginia. Parents deserve to decide what works best for their children, whether that is homeschooling, private school, micro-schools, charter schools or the HOPE Scholarship. At the end of the day, education belongs to parents, not the state. The school boards can no longer bully families into staying in a system that does not serve them.

Parents are refusing to be ignored, refusing to let their children be left behind and refusing a system that will not change. It is why they are leaving and why I will continue to stand with them.

School choice is not the problem. It is the solution. And as a member of the Legislature, I urge my colleagues to keep standing firm, keep defending parental rights and keep demanding accountability in our schools. The future of West Virginia's children depends on it.

Delegate Kathie Hess Crouse, R-Putnam, has served in the West Virginia House of Delegates since November 2021. She serves as Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Educational Choice.

Op-Ed by Kathie Hess Crouse

School Choice is a Solution Here to Stay

West Virginia Board of Education President Paul Hardesty took aim last week at parents who choose something other than the traditional public school system. He has blamed the HOPE Scholarship, homeschooling and other school choice options for declining enrollment. What he fails to admit is the truth: parents are leaving the system because the system failed them and their children.

Mr. Hardesty had many fallacies in his impassioned yet misplaced speech. I must correct one of the most glaring: under HOPE Scholarship Exemption M, which receives state money, those who choose the IIP (Homeschooling option) have never been required to provide a high school diploma. Meanwhile, traditional homeschoolers under Exemption C who take no state money are required to provide a diploma to teach their own children. Why should parents who receive nothing from the state prove their education to teach their own kids, when those receiving public dollars are not held to that standard? A diploma is certainly not the sole qualifier for future success.

Homeschooling families under Exemption C receive no state funds. They teach their children at their own expense and by their own sacrifice. The HOPE Scholarship (Exemption M) is not a "10-year program." It has been in place for only three years — 2023 was the first year families received payouts. Other options, such as microschoools (Exemption N) and charter schools, are legal and legitimate. Charter schools are still public schools.

Parents simply now have choices. They are not fleeing the system because they suddenly don't believe in education. They are leaving because public schools have stopped putting children first. Parents are sick and tired of bad teachers being protected while good teachers leave; administrators ignoring bullying, from students and staff; curriculum pushing ideology instead of math, reading and science; children being left behind academically, socially and emotionally; IEPs and 504s not being followed; and not being allowed within the school or informed of students' health choices. The list could go on.

COVID accelerated this movement. For the first time, parents saw with their own eyes just how little their children were learning and how capable they were of teaching at home.

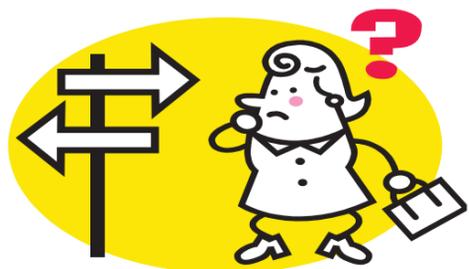

Some enrollment decline is from population loss. But choice is also a factor, and that's a good thing. In 2017-2018, West Virginia had a population of 1.8 million, with 270,600 public school students. That was 14.9% of our population. By 2024 - 2025, our population dropped to 1.77 million, and public school enrollment fell to 241,013 students, or 13.6% of the population. That's only a difference of 1.3%. Where did those students go? To enjoy better options. Today we have approximately 24,500 homeschoolers under Exemption C, about 14,200 HOPE Scholarship students under Exemption M (roughly 33% IIP and 62% private), close to 150 Exemption N microschoools, approximately 13,000 Exemption K&B private schoolers and about 3,400 students in charter schools.

But the Board of Education refuses to talk about how even with fewer students, the public school system keeps all county funding and most federal funding tied to enrollment. That means schools are receiving more money per student now to educate fewer children and in many cases, they still cannot get the job done. In 2018 that was $2.023 billion in state funding, or $7,476 per student. In 2025 it is $2.36 billion in state funding, or $9,792 per student. When you

Bacon Cheeseburger Popcorn

Recipe courtesy of The Popcorn Board

Prep time: 10 minutes

Cook time: 15 minutes

Servings: 3

- 1 teaspoon mustard powder
- 3/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon onion powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 6 slices bacon, diced
- 4 ounces ground beef
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 1/3 cup popcorn kernels (unpopped)
- 3 tablespoons cheese powder
- 1 tablespoon dill pickle powder
- 1 green onion, thinly sliced

In small bowl, whisk mustard powder, garlic powder, onion powder, salt and pepper. Set aside.

In large skillet over medium-low heat, cook bacon and ground beef 8-10 minutes, or until fat renders and mixture is golden brown and crispy. Transfer to plate lined with paper towels to drain. Reserve 2 tablespoons bacon fat.

In large, heavy-bottomed saucepan over high heat, combine vegetable oil and reserved bacon fat. Add popcorn kernels; stir to coat then spread in even layer. Cover with lid. Shaking saucepan, cook 2-4 minutes, or until popcorn starts to pop, then shake less frequently, at about 2-second intervals, until popping sounds have almost stopped. Remove from heat. Safely open lid.

Transfer half the popcorn to large bowl and toss with cheese powder. Toss popcorn in saucepan with dill pickle powder; transfer to large bowl of cheese popcorn. Add bacon mixture and reserved seasoning; toss to combine.

Garnish with green onion.

Tips: For beefy flavor, sprinkle popped popcorn with 1/4 teaspoon beef bouillon powder or steak spice, if desired.

For extra-cheesy popcorn, sprinkle popped popcorn with 1/2 cup shredded mild or sharp cheddar cheese.

Dear Self, keep going

Why do they call it

If we're not supposed to “Do you smell smoke? It’s the neighbor’s garage – it’s on fire! Quick, call the fire department! They will save it before the flames spread to the house!” How wonderful to have help to call on when there’s an emergency – when your life depends on it. We all have help whenever we call on our Heavenly Father. He promises us in Isaiah 41:13, “For I, the Lord your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, ‘Do not fear, I will help you.’” The better we come to know Him, the closer He will be in times of distress. Won’t you visit God in His Sanctuary this week?

God Sees Our Hearts

Acts 4:32-5:11

The text before us opens with a picture of unity among all believers. The exact time which these recorded events took place is not revealed in scripture but it would appear to be less than one year following the manifestation of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost.

It was a time in which the apostles gave powerful witness of the resurrection. Their powerful witness would have included the account recorded in John 20 of Thomas’s refusal to believe until Thomas saw and spoke to Jesus, eight days after the other apostles saw and knew. The time was characterized by great grace being upon all (the entire multitude of believers [v. 33]).

Verse 34 states that those who possessed lands or houses sold them and presented the money received to the apostles for distribution. What prompted this action? This same question could be asked of a charitable contribution. Charitable gifts are the result becoming aware of a need and acting to address that need. One gives because there is a need and one possesses the ability or resources to address that need. Social scientists of today have identified charitable giving as part of the human character. Is the giving cited in verse 34 different from charitable giving?

Charitable giving is one’s response to an external need. Charitable giving is not what the scripture before us reveals. The great grace of God moved those who had property to sell it and present the proceeds to the apostles for distribution.

The individuals who sold their property and presented it to the apostles were part of the multitude which is described as being of one heart and of one soul. They were individuals who considered their possessions to belong to all (v. 32). While a believer may be moved, as all men are moved to act by an external need, believers are motivated by the internal force of grace (see v. 33).

It is by grace that one is the recipient of God’s love. The certainty that one’s sin debt is satisfied, once and forever, by Christ upon the cross moves believers to love one another even as He has loved us. The certainty of salvation in believers produces works of love — works that testify of God.

The apostles distributed to each according to their need (v. 35). The need in this instance was the external, physical need that is common to all men. When we look upon the actions of the apostles, we note that they addressed both spiritual (internal) and physical (external) needs of others. They witnessed of the resurrection with great power (v. 33) and they provided for the daily needs of fellow believers.

Two instances of individuals’ selling their possessions and presenting the proceeds to the apostles are cited in the text before us [Barnabas (4:36) and Ananias and Sapphira (5:1)]. Barnabas’ act of selling his land and Ananias and Sapphira’s selling of their land produced far different outcomes. Barnabas is forever recognized in scripture for his role in reaching out to others with the gospel as he accompanied Paul on his first missionary journey (Acts 13 and 14). The account of Ananias and Sapphira ends with their untimely deaths (5:5 and 5:10).

In selling his possession, Barnabas held nothing back. Barnabas’ giving was reflective of God’s gift. God held nothing back. He gave His only begotten Son such that all who would believe upon Him might have life everlasting. Barnabas could give only that which was his to give, and he fully gave it. He demonstrated through his gift that he truly loved others as he loved himself. His gift testified of the sufficiency of God’s gift of salvation.

Not the case with Ananias and Sapphira. They held back a portion of that which they sold. They withheld giving all because they believed that God might not provide their future needs. Their action testified of unbelief that men are saved by grace and grace alone (Eph. 2:8). Their testimony of unbelief resulted in premature demise. Their action demonstrated that love of self is not of God.

Barnabas was motivated to present a gift and he did. The love of Christ which was in him (Barnabas) was manifested in his giving all that he could give. If, by chance, had Barnabas possessed twice as much land, would he have sold it all? Certainly. Christ’s love could not be constrained in him.

Like Barnabas, Ananias and Sapphira were motivated to present a gift. They willingly presented a portion of that which they received. The motivation of Ananias and Sapphira was far different than that found in Barnabas. Where was the love of Christ in their gift? It was muted at best and totally absent at worst. In verse 4, Peter makes it known that Ananias was under no obligation to sell his land and once that he did sell it, that he was under no obligation to present the money to the apostles.

If not motivated by love, why did Ananias and Sapphira give? It is likely that the act of giving was publicly acknowledged and that Ananias and Sapphira sought recognition. The scripture does not explicitly state that this was the case. In the text before us, Peter reveals that the two listened to Satan and were moved to lie to God. They chose to believe Satan’s claim that their lie was hidden and it hurt no one.

Peter asked Ananias the question: Why has Satan filled thine heart to lie? Ananias did not have to do what he chose to do. He did what he did knowingly. He knew he was lying to God when he presented only a portion of the money to the apostles. Peter confronted Ananias with the evil that was in his heart. Ananias replied in the only manner which a guilty man can reply to God. He fell dead. Sapphira was equally guilty of the lie and likewise fell dead.

The testimony of the heart is not hidden from God. May we, like Barnabas, fully share the love which God has made known to us.

KIDS TALK ABOUT GOD

BY CAREY KINSOLVING AND FRIENDS

What Is The Difference Between Being Baptized In Water And Being Baptized In The Holy Spirit?

“The water does not do anything except get you wet,” says Matt, 8. “When you get baptized in the Holy Spirit, you get cleansed by God, and he will come into our hearts. Getting baptized means you’re telling the whole world that God has come into your heart.”

On the baptism of the Holy Spirit, Bible scholar JC Ryle wrote: “It consists of the implanting of grace into the inward man. It is the same thing with the new birth. It is a baptism, not of the body, but of the heart. It is well to be baptized into the visible Church; but it is far better to be baptized into that Church which is made up of true believers.”

“The difference is when you get baptized in water, it is a symbol of being purified by God,” says Caleb, 8. “When you get baptized by the Holy Spirit, God has brought you into his kingdom.”

As one who received baptism by immersion as a professing Christian who was trying to work his way to heaven, I can affirm that being baptized by the Holy Spirit into the body of Christ is far better. At my first water baptism, I mistakenly thought that salvation was Christ plus my dedication. I thought that salvation was a joint venture. Christ would do part, and I would do part.

As I stood in the church, wet from water baptism but confused from the mixed message, a girl sensed my bewilderment. She invited me to another meeting where a pastor showed me from the Bible that salvation is a free gift that can only be received by faith alone in Christ alone (Ephesians 2:8-9).

In Old Testament times, the Holy Spirit came upon a few believers for special tasks. The prophet Joel foresaw a time when God would pour out his Spirit on all believers (Joel 2:28-29). Jesus predicted that his disciples would receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit “not many days from now” (Acts 1:5).

When the disciples received the Spirit’s baptism, they began to praise God in foreign languages they had not learned. Jews from foreign countries who had gathered at Jerusalem for the Pentecost feast understood the disciples in their own languages.

In his sermon, the Apostle Peter said this was the fulfillment of what the prophet Joel predicted. The time had come when God would pour out his Holy Spirit upon all believers. About 3,000 Jews trusted Christ as their savior that day and were baptized in water (Acts 2).

The baptism of the Holy Spirit is an historic event that ushered in a new age. It occurred for the Jews on the day of Pentecost, but came later for Gentiles (non-Jews). The Apostle Peter took the gospel to the house of a Gentile named Cornelius. Like the Jews at Pentecost, the Holy Spirit came upon them. They spoke in foreign languages and were baptized in water (Acts 10-11:18).

Think about this: The baptism of the Holy Spirit is not an experience to be sought, but a truth to be believed. Even though every Christian has been baptized by the Holy Spirit into union with Christ, not all are enjoying the fellowship with Christ that comes from being filled with the Spirit.

Memorize this truth: “And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit” (Ephesians 5:18).

Ask this question: Have you been filled or controlled by God’s Spirit today?

She was born to the late Modina Smith and Guy Laffoon Nisbet II on March 27, 1959. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her son Phillip Scott Nisbet.

From an early age, Debbie carried a love for learning that shaped her life's work and inspired everyone around her. She graduated from Vinson High School, went on to earn her Bachelor's degree from Marshall University, a Master's from West Virginia College of Graduate Studies, and later a second Master's from West Virginia University. While at Marshall, she was a proud member of Sigma Sigma Sorority, where she built friendships that lasted her lifetime.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Dr. Craig Spicer; sons: Jared (Banks) Spicer of Charlotte, NC, and Chase Spicer of Cornelius, NC; and her granddaughters, Talbot and Sutton Spicer of Charlotte, NC, who lovingly called her "Nan." She is also survived by Cindy (Ryan) Cassell of Pritchard, WV; Christie (Dannie) Crum of Buffalo, WV; Crissy (Larry) Wall of West Frankfort, IL; Sean Spicer of West Frankfort, IL; as well as many cherished aunts, cousins, great-nieces, nephews, and dear friends who became like family.

SHARON MILLER
Sharon Miller, 85, of Winfield, passed away Sunday, October 5, 2025.

Teresa graduated from Winfield High School in 1977 and attended Charleston College in Institute. She worked in her father's grocery store, Winfield Supermarket, for many years and also at Tudors Biscuit World until her retirement.

Education was not just Debbie's career; it was her calling. She began teaching Exceptional Education at Cheat Lake Elementary, where she was quickly recognized as Monongalia County's Special Education Educator of the Year. Over the years, she served students and families across Putnam County as an Educational Diagnostician, Assistant Principal at Poca Middle School, and as Principal of both Hometown Elementary and Hurricane Town Elementary.

Debbie's warmth and generosity created a sense of belonging for everyone who knew her. Her home was always open, her table always full. She loved the beach, long days at the lake, Jimmy Buffett music, beautiful flowers and cheering on Marshall Football, but most of all, she loved being surrounded by her family.

She was born July 9, 1940 in Eleanor, the daughter of Otho and Geraldine Sayre Higginbotham. In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, Harry.

She enjoyed her faith, family and her loving dog, Nan. She had a loving heart and will be missed by many.

Her vision and leadership left a lasting mark. She was instrumental in bringing Franklin Covey's The Leader in Me program to schools across Putnam County, helping Hurricane Town Elementary achieve the rare designation of a "Lighthouse School." For her tireless commitment to children, she was honored as Putnam County's Administrator of the Year. Even after retirement, Debbie continued her work in education by training teachers in The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People and tutoring students at local schools.

Funeral service for Debbie was Saturday, October 4, 2025, at Chapman Funeral Home with burial to follow in Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens in Huntington.

Sharon retired from Orders Construction and was formerly employed at Shippers Car Lines. She was a member of Bancroft Church of Christ. She loved to go camping. Sharon was a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother and sister that will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Teresa is survived by her daughter, Medina Nicole Richmond (Austin Toler) of Nitro; her grandchildren: Caden Michael Wayne Richmond and Lillian Nicole Richmond-Toler. She is also survived by her son, Bryant Nisbet of Charleston; brother, Guy Lafoon Nisbet III of South Charleston; niece, Jessica R. Scalf; nephews: Nathan and Jonathan Nisbet; aunt, Emma Francis Nisbet Firetti of South Charleston; and cousins: Valerie Kieffer Smirlock, Christina Firetti Kerr, Joanna Firetti Hall, and Joey Firetti.

A Message from the Mayor...

Happy Fall!

Our Hurricane Harvest Festival last month was awesome! We had dozens of art and craft vendors, free games for kids, a pumpkin pie eating contest and live bluegrass music. We definitely kicked off the fall season right! Below are a few photos in case you missed it. All our event photos are available on the City of Hurricane Facebook page.

Upcoming Events

Now that the Hurricane Harvest Festival has past, we are looking forward to all things Halloween in the City of Hurricane! First up will be our Pumpkin Carving Extravaganza on Saturday, October 25th from 3-6pm at the Putnam County Bank Sports Complex at Hurricane Bridge Park! We'll have 500 free pumpkins to give away plus carving tools. (Or, you can bring your own carving tools!) Prizes will be awarded for the judges' favorite pumpkin in each of 4 age categories (including adults!). The fun doesn't stop there, though. Join us even if you don't want to carve a pumpkin because we'll also have free hot chocolate, live entertainment and even an inflatable costume race! You don't have to sign up for any of this fun in advance -- just show up ready to carve a pumpkin or bring your fully inflatable costume to race. You are also welcome to just come sit and enjoy watching all this Halloween fun at our awesome (still-new) Putnam County Bank Sports Complex. I am looking forward to a fun afternoon with our community! Bring a lawn chair or a blanket and join us!

Following all the pumpkin fun, we will kick off our brand-new Haunted Hurricane Bridge Park event series! We're expanding on all the haunted house fun from last year's Main Street Trick or Treat and moving it to Hurricane Bridge Park. The line for this haunted trail-style event will begin near the concession stand at the Putnam County Bank Sports Complex. If you dare to join us, you will be led on a haunted walk through the woods and will end up on a haunted hayride that will circle you back up to the parking lot once the frightful journey is complete. A couple of tips: there will be uneven ground, and you may get dirty! There will also be some tight spaces and flashing lights. Another piece of advice for all the parents and grandparents: while you know your kids best, we're recommending ages 10 and up for this event because it'll definitely be full of jump scares and fearful moments. All this {FREE} scary fun will happen on October 25th from 6-9pm and on October 30th and 31st from 6-9pm.

Traditional citywide trick or treat will be on Friday, October 31st from 6-8pm. We will not have any sort of trunk or treat or event on Main Street this year, but Valley Park will have a free and safe trick or treating experience at their Fright Market event on Thursday, October 23rd from 6-8pm.

Christmas Blessings

As you may already know, the City of Hurricane organizes the Christmas Blessings Program each year to help Putnam County families who are in need of gifts for their children. We are currently in the application process for this program, so if you need a little Christmas help for your children (ages infant through high school), please visit our website and click on the Christmas Blessings button. The application deadline is November 4th so don't wait too long! There's an easy online application you can fill out and upload the required documentation. Or you can contact the Hurricane Municipal Building at 304-562-5896 with any questions or for details about how to pick up a paper application. Simultaneously, we are also currently seeking sponsors for each child. Sponsors may opt to receive sizes and wish list items to shop for their sponsored child personally -- or make a financial donation so that others may shop. All the details on how to sponsor a child (or children!) are also on the Christmas Blessings page of our website.

The direct link is: hurricanewv.com/christmas-blessings-program/ or you can easily find all of the information by going to our home page at hurricanewv.com.

Stay Connected

The City has a great presence on Facebook and Instagram, so please be sure to follow us for all the latest and most up-to-date information and announcements! If you aren't on social media, our website can be found at www.hurricanewv.com.

Finally, I always want to say THANK YOU to our awesome City Council. They are: Recorder Linda Gibson, Michael Black, CD Caldwell, Marshall Ginn, Gerry Spears and Ryan Wheeler – along with City Staff, Hurricane Police Department, Hurricane Fire & Rescue and all of you for the support and assistance in making Hurricane a great place to live, work and play. If you ever have questions or suggestions, feel free to call me on my cell at 304-419-0022 or email me at sedwards@hurricanewv.com.

PUTNAM COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION RECONCILIATION OF THE STATEMENT OF REVENUES, EXPENDITURES, AND CHANGES IN FUND BALANCES OF GOVERNMENTAL FUNDS TO THE STATEMENT OF ACTIVITIES

Net change in fund balances - total governmental funds	$ 2,196,178

Amounts reported for governmental activities in the statement of activities are different due to: Governmental funds report capital outlays as expenditures. However, in the statement of net position, the cost of those assets is allocated over their estimated useful lives and reported as depreciation expense. The effect on net position is the amount by which capital outlays exceed depreciation in the current period.

Depreciation expense	(7,249,655)
Capital outlays	7,753,371

Governmental funds report capital outlays as expenditures. However, in the statement of net position, the cost of SBITA assets is allocated over their estimated useful lives and reported as amortization expense. Accumulated depreciation of assets disposed	330,879

Compensated absences are reported as liabilities in the statement of net position, but are only reported in government funds to the extent they have matured. This is the amount by which compensated absences (increased)/decreased.

Accrued Compensated Absences	(676,411)

Interest on long-term debt in the statement of activities differs from the amount reported in the governmental funds because interest is recognized as an expenditure in the funds when it is due, and thus requires the use of current financial resources. In the statement of activities, however, interest expense is recognized as the interest accrues, regardless of when it is due.

Governmental funds report district pension contributions as expenditures. However, in the Statement of Activities, the cost of pension benefits earned net of employee contributions is reported as pension expense
District pension contributions	(3,352)
