A black and white photograph of a dance troupe performing on stage. Six dancers, all women, are captured in a synchronized pose. They are wearing matching outfits consisting of short-sleeved, patterned blouses and long, dark, flowing skirts. Their arms are extended horizontally to the sides, and their legs are slightly bent, suggesting a dynamic movement. The background is a dark curtain adorned with numerous small, light-colored stars. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of the audience's heads are visible, indicating the performance is being watched from a seated position. The lighting is focused on the dancers, creating a contrast with the dark background and foreground.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

When vaccines became available, we took them. When we were told to wear seatbelts, we started wearing them. When we were informed that meds would help blood pressure and cholesterol, we listened. If we were told that a vaccine would prevent Cancer or Heart Disease, I imagine folks would run to the doctors to get the vaccines. Why then are people having to be bribed or rewarded to take the Covid vaccine? This makes no sense to me. Covid was the third leading cause of deaths last year. After Cancer and Heart Disease. What is happening that people are not taking this vaccine? Even if they are young, don't they realize they are harming the elderly? Does that matter to them? Does it matter that even if they don't become seriously ill with the disease, their loved ones could? I am at a loss for the reasons. Every person in my family, except the two small boys, are being vaccinated.

I appreciate the fact that the medical profession has come up with this vaccine. I prayed diligently for a vaccine, as did my friends... diligently over and over and over again. Then we got it... people started scoffing... this does not make sense. A miracle has happened; we have a chance to eradicate this disease as we did others.

Bribes... rewards... lotteries... are you kidding me? This does not make sense. If they are willing to get it to win something, why not just to save lives... I am astonished... and so very sad... If my mother was living, and I were young... I would vaccinate to protect her... Let us hope and pray we don't have a fiasco in August when school begins... now that masks are almost gone... everyone is not choosing to be vaccinated... I wear my mask... the little boys wear theirs... we put them on when we go into a store... I was isolated a year...

however, I have felt no excitement at going in a store shopping... I got used to ordering online... it never bothered me... As to eating inside a restaurant, not ready for that yet...

I am not worried... I am being pragmatic... a disease comes... a vaccine comes... we vaccinate... we help others and ourselves. I know that nothing I say will matter to anyone who has already made up his/her mind... nothing I write is important to others... nothing I believe will change what others do...

However, I don't understand this... I do not believe that those vaccinating should be rewarded just because they will not do what is right... the only analogy I can come up with is when students do not do their work and are passed on... Those who worked hard, deserve to pass; those who don't work do not... kind of like this vaccine problem... Those who vaccinate should receive a reward of self congratulations, not material possessions... Those who do not should not be permitted to fly, to eat in restaurants, to shop in stores... just saying... not that it matters.

I can see the readers of this column shaking their heads... thinking what is with her? She must be political... I do NOT believe that this disease, or the vaccine for this disease, should be political at all. I am not being political; I am being sincere... In the past 17 months, I have lost 15 family and friends... some to Covid, some to other illnesses or accidents... I am tired of this. If one little injection will help others, I am willing to do it as many times as I have to. If the readers don't agree, stop reading.

I am writing this hoping that one person might stop and think... get the vaccine... save a life... because the way we were will always be the way some of us are... caring about others... prayers...

learned the barber trade in Huntington, West Virginia, and in 1906 Ed moved to Hurricane.

John Gilflen lived at Oak Ridge, Putnam County, and married Rhoda Erwin. They had two children: Una and John Gilflen. John and Rhoda Gilflen are buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery. Una Gilflen was born March 11, 1890, and died May 11, 1954. John and Rhoda moved to Hurricane and Una worked in a hotel, where Ed met and married her.

Ed Rappold had a barber shop on Main Street, a two story frame building, and lived upstairs for several years. Ed bought the Oxley house on Mam Street and had his barber shop on the porch of the house one summer. He had a brick building built where the two story building was and in the fall he moved to the brick building. He had a barber shop in the back and Faye Miller had a restaurant in front of the building.

Ed and Una had four children: Venus, Woodrow (Pete), Alwilda and Donald Rappold. Woodrow, Alwilda, and Donald graduated from Hurricane High School.

Venus was born April 28, 1910, the year that Halley’s Comet appeared. The star before Halley’s Comet was called Venus and my Dad called me Venus. I went to school on Second Street in a two story frame building. My teacher was Will Rogers. On the corner of Harrison Street and Main Street was a white house where I went to school to Nannie Rife.

Venus married John Blake from Culloden on December 22, 1927. They have six children: Jannine Broyles, Geneva Blake, John E. Blake, Betty Bias, Doris Blake, and Donna Blake. We went into the store business February 1947 and on December 22, 1977, celebrated our fiftieth wedding anniversary and retired from the store business.

Woodrow (Pete) was born October 29,

Each Gold Star Mother shared a treasured memory of something which their son said or did. The group presented Valley View officials with the Honor and Remember Flag. The flag is a visible public reminder to all Americans of the lives given to preserve freedom; and a national symbol of appreciation recognizing the sacrifice of generations of fallen hero families.

Participating members were Barbara Ulbrich, Belinda Jividen, Terry Cunningham, Shirley White, Brenda Thomas and Emma Johnson.

Post #187 performed the 21-Gun Salute and played Taps in honor of those who have fallen in service to America. The tribute at Valley View was the second of the day for Post members.

In the course of a typical year, the Post will be a part of about eighty funerals and participate in another sixty events. Post Chaplain David Bush has participated in more than one thousand events since retiring in 2006. “You never retire Alwilda attended Marshall College and taught school at Sycamore. She married Ree Groghan and he retired from Union Carbide. They have three children: Danny Groghan, Marilyn Covert, and Janice Priddy.

Donald served in the Army and finished barber school in Wheeling. He married Billie White from Culloden and worked with our Dad until Dad’s death. Donald was born February 13, 1922, and died September 24, 1965. Donald and Billie have two children: Steve Rappold and Deborah D. Stricklin.

Steve graduated from barber school in Huntington in 1966, taking over the Rappold Barber Shop after Donald’s death. Steve married Loraine Slater and they have two children: Roderick and Stephanie.

Ed, Una, Woodrow, and Donald are buried in Valley View Cemetery, Hurricane.

McDade, who is not retired, stated that he worries that the time may come when there is an insufficient number of Legion members to honor those who have devoted themselves to honoring others. Post #187 has approximately twelve members who attempt to participate in every event.

Satisfy Summer Cookout Cravings

(Family Features) Something about summer brings out cravings for grilled perfection. Whether it's the unmistakable flavor of a slow smoked side of ribs or a flame-kissed tenderloin, you can't go wrong when you pull out the grill.
Barbecue enthusiasts, who only let the best meats grace their grills and smokers, know marbling is one of the best indicators of quality meat. Marbling is the tiny flecks of fat in the meat itself. These melt throughout the grilling process to infuse every bite with tenderness and flavor.
When you're planning your menu for your next summer cookout, look for an option like Chairman's Reserve Pork, which has strict standards to ensure marbling is part of every cut. Each cut is hand-selected and hand-trimmed to guarantee tender, juicy and flavorful results.
Pork is the hero of this Grilled Pork Tenderloin and Vegetables recipe, giving you a delicious way to cure those summertime cravings. Find more grilling tips and recipes at chairmansreservemeats.com/recipes.

Grilled Pork Tenderloin and Vegetables
Recipe courtesy of pitmaster Tuffy Stone
Prep time: 2 hours
Cook time: 35 minutes
Servings: 4

Coriander Rub:
1 tablespoon kosher salt
1 tablespoon freshly ground black pepper
2 teaspoons freshly ground coriander seed
1 teaspoon granulated garlic

1 Chairman's Reserve Pork Tenderloin (2 pounds)
4 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil, divided
3 tablespoons Coriander Rub, divided
12 small carrots with tops, washed and dried
8 spring onions, washed and dried
12-18 thin asparagus spears, washed and dried
1 lemon, halved
2 cups watercress, arugula or spring salad greens mix, washed
1 tablespoon chives, thinly sliced
1 tablespoon tarragon leaves, torn or chopped
1 tablespoon Italian parsley, torn or chopped

To make coriander rub: In airtight container, mix salt, black pepper, coriander seed and garlic together. Store until ready to use.
To make tenderloin and vegetables: Brush tenderloin with 1 tablespoon olive oil. Evenly season both sides of pork with 1 tablespoon coriander rub and refrigerate 2 hours. Coat carrots, spring onions and asparagus with 2 tablespoons olive oil and season with 1 tablespoon coriander rub; refrigerate.
Remove tenderloin and vegetables from refrigerator and bring to room temperature.
Heat grill to 400 F using direct grilling setup. Place lemon halves, cut sides down, over hot coals and cook approximately 5 minutes, or until lemon halves are charred. Remove to cool.
Place seasoned pork tenderloin over hot coals and grill 3-5 minutes. Using tongs, rotate meat every 3-5 minutes and cook until meat thermometer placed in thickest part of tenderloin reads 140 F (about 15 minutes). Remove tenderloin from heat and let rest 10 minutes.
Place seasoned carrots, onion and asparagus on hot grill. Cook 3-4 minutes then turn and cook another 3-4 minutes. Transfer to plate.
Toss salad greens in remaining olive oil, juice of 1 charred lemon half and 2 teaspoons coriander rub.
Slice tenderloin into 1/4-inch medallions. Place grilled vegetables and medallions on platter; garnish with herbs and juice of remaining lemon half. Serve with spring greens salad.

There are two types of tired. One that requires sleep and the other requires rest.

Whatever you're doing do it with the confidence of a four-year-old wearing a Batman shirt.

A liar's worst enemy is someone with a good memory.

If you don't pick a day to relax, your body will pick it for you.

You may fool the pastor but you can't fool the Master.

There is no excuse for not teaching your kids to say please and thank you. Manners are free.

A mobile phone may bring you closer to people far away, but it will also take you away with those sitting beside of you.

Don't feel bad if people remember you only when they need you. Feel privileged that you are like a candle that comes to their mind when there is darkness.

When you're afraid but you push ahead regardless of the fear, it's called courage.

You are far too smart to be the only thing standing in your way.

If you raise your children, you can spoil your grandkids; but if you spoil your children, you'll have to raise your grandkids.

Being old doesn't seem so old now that I am old.

Your beliefs don't make you a better person; your behavior does.

I don't run from my problems. I sit on the couch, play on my phone and ignore them like all other adults.

WVDOT announces US 35 Completion Date

Gov. Jim Justice and the West Virginia Department of Transportation are happy to announce that the last stretch of US 35 to be upgraded to four lanes is on track to open to traffic in August.

Pending unforeseen delays, the last 15-mile stretch of US 35 between Beech Hill and the Buffalo Bridge is set to open to traffic with a ribbon-cutting ceremony by the end of August 2021.

Gov. Justice approved the final contract for paving on the Roads to Prosperity project in April 2019. This is the last section of the $255 million project from Interstate 64 to the West Virginia/Ohio state line to be upgraded from two to four lanes.

The project included eight bridges and a new interchange where US 35 meets WV 869.

The project is a Public-private partnership (3P) between the Division of Highways and Bizzack Construction Company of Lexington, Kentucky.

Gideon Destroys Baal’s Altar

Judges 6:25-32

“And it came to pass the same night . . .” (v. 25). That night was the night following the day in which the angel of Lord appeared to Gideon and told him that he (Gideon) would save Israel from the hand of the Midianites (v. 14). It was the night following the angel’s telling Gideon “Surely I will be with thee” (v. 16).

On that, the same night, the Lord instructed Gideon to tear down the altar of Baal which belonged to his father and to cut down the grove beside it, and to erect an altar to the Lord and to offer a burnt offering upon it.

Verse 27 states that Gideon did as he was instructed but that he did so by night because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city. Verse 27 does not state that Gideon tore down the altar and cut down the grove on the same night that the Lord instructed him to do it. The text, also, does not state that Gideon waited until the following night to do as the Lord instructed. Gideon’s fear may have been cause to wait until the following night or it may have been cause to act immediately.

Gideon put his fear of his father’s household aside and with the assistance of ten men servants did as the Lord instructed. Early in the morning following Gideon’s act, the men of the city discovered that the altar of Baal was cast down and the grove adjacent to it was cut down (v. 28). The scene which greeted the men of the city was an altar of unhewn stone (see Ex. 20:25) and a burnt bullock offering upon it.

The text does not state when Joash, Gideon’s father, viewed this same scene but it is reasonable to assume that Joash’s knowledge of Gideon’s act was known to him before it was known to the men of the city. It is also reasonable to assume that Joash asked Gideon why that he had torn down the altar, cut the grove, and built an altar to the Lord and offered a burnt offering upon it. The sight of the destroyed altar to Baal and the cut-down grove should not have required an explanation. The children of Israel had been given instruction by God to tear down pagan altars and cut down their groves but had failed to do so upon entering into the land. Joash should have realized that Gideon had done that which God had instructed Israel to do.

Gideon’s fear of the men of the city was justified. They sought to take his life (v. 30). There is nothing in the text before us which would suggest that Gideon’s fear of his father’s household was justified. Joash stood firm against the men of the city (v. 31). Joash challenged the existence of Baal and any power that Baal might possess. Joash said if Baal be a god, he knows who has done this, and is able to avenge himself on him who did it. Joash challenged Baal to plead his own cause by bringing death upon the one who had done this thing.

Joash had been a worshipper of Baal. His words to the men of the city, however, suggest that this was no longer the case. The scripture before us does not reveal the reason for his about-face. Joash’s turnaround may have been prompted by learning that Gideon had been called by the Lord to deliver Israel from the Midianites or triggered by the realization that he and Israel had turned from God.

Joash’s turnaround is preserved in scripture for God’s purposes. Joash’s departure from Baal worship happened because one man, Gideon, did that which the Lord told him to do. The angel of the Lord told Gideon that he would smite the Midianites as one man (v. 16). The destruction of Baal’s altar was a necessary first step by one man in ridding Israel of Midianite oppression.

God is a jealous God. He does marvelous and wonderful things. Before He brought Israel into the land, while still at Sinai, the Lord said, “But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves” (Ex. 34:13). He will not allow false gods as Baal to be credited with that which He does. Not one soul would credit Gideon’s victory, recorded in Judges 7:20-23, to a false god. All credit for the defeat of the Midianites is given to the Lord God.

Gideon’s act, that of one man, is not lost upon New Testament believers. It is by the obedience of one man, Jesus Christ, that many are made righteous (Rom. 5:19). As Israel was delivered by the obedience of one, all believers are delivered and made free from sin by Him who sinned not.

Let us declare Christ Jesus to all who will hear and believe.

CULLODEN PUBLIC SERVICE DISTRICT
CASE NO. 19-0378-PSD-CN

By Recommended Decision dated July 2, 2019 (Final July 22, 2019), the Commission granted the Culloden Public Service District (District) a certificate of convenience and necessity to make improvements in its system, including the demolition of an abandoned wastewater treatment plant, the replacement and relocation of the Sovine Lift Station, and construction of approximately 7,500 feet of gravity sewers and 400 feet of force main (Project).

The Commission approved new rates and charges for the District in Case No. 20-0570-PSD-19A by a recommended Decision dated February 12, 2021 (Final March 4, 2021), and as amended by a Commission Order dated April 23, 2021. The approved Step-2 rates were effective upon certification of substantial completion of the Project.

On May 6, 2021, the District filed a petition to modify its tariff to allow its Step-2 rates to become effective at the end of May 2021 to provide for commencement of the Project debt service. The 2020A Bond Issue related to the Project requires debt service payments to be deposited beginning July 1, 2021. The District initially anticipated substantial completion of the Project in June 2021, however, the Project was prolonged by ninety days. The District stated that it needed to have its Project rates in effect for its billings sent to customers at the end of May in order to have sufficient funds to pay the initial debt service.

By Order dated May 28, 2021, the Commission granted the District's request to modify its tariff to allow its Step-2 rates to take effect for all bills rendered on and after May 28, 2021.

Dalton Monk Graduates

Dalton Monk from Hurricane graduated from Georgia College in May 2021 with a Creative Writing degree.

Georgia College, the state's designated public liberal arts university, combines the educational experience expected at esteemed private liberal arts colleges with the affordability of public higher education.

Lucas Cooper Graduates From Ohio Wesleyan

Lucas Cooper of Hurricane graduated this spring from Ohio Wesleyan University.

Cooper earned a Bachelor of Arts degree Magna Cum Laude and was a Finance Economics major.

Ohio Wesleyan held a combined 176th and 177th commencement ceremony May 29, celebrating its Classes of 2020 and 2021 and the students who persevered during a pandemic with "creativity, ingenuity, and profound commitment."

The ticketed event was held outdoors in Ohio Wesleyan's historic Selby Stadium, with President Rock Jones, Ph.D., addressing the graduates and their families and friends.

"You are the classes that were abruptly sent home," Jones told the graduates. "You found yourself studying in spaces not designed for academic work. You attended classrooms defined by small squares on your laptop screen, or even smaller squares on your phone. You engaged in research and completed internships in virtual environments. You wore masks, practiced social distance, monitored your health, (and) took COVID tests.

"And yet, from my view, that is not the real story," Jones said. "The real story is the creativity, ingenuity, and profound commitment you brought to the work before you. You never stopped. You persisted. And today, we can say not only that you are as well prepared as those who went before you; we can say that with the lessons learned in this pandemic, you are well prepared for what lies ahead."
