DHHR Reports Dramatic Drop in Putnam Covid Cases

By Ron Allen

On June 1st, the DHHR reported 20 new Covid-19 cases in Putnam County between May 25 and May 31. New cases in the previous 7-day period was 63. The 20 cases is the lowest 7-day total reported since July 6, 2020, when 13 new cases were reported.

The number of active cases in the county also tumbled, going from 323 on May 25 to 241 on May 31. Putnam's active Covid cases were last below 241 on October 8, 2020, when the DHHR reported 230 cases. Putnam's active Covid cases reached a high of 849 on December 14, 2020.

Putnam's color on the DHHR Covid-Alert Map went from orange (high concern) to gold (moderate concern) to yellow (mild concern) to green (little concern) during the last seven days of May. Putnam's green designation on Tuesday, June 1, was determined by the percentage of tests registering positive for the virus. When first placed in use, map color was determined by infection rate (the number of new cases per 100,000 population). Putnam's color on June 1, based upon infection rate, would have been yellow.

Tuesday's DHHR map had 34 counties showing green. Of the 34, only 13 registered a lower infection rate than Putnam. One week earlier, on May 24, the DHHR map had counties displaying a better color than Putnam.

which One factor could explain Putnam's improvement in statewide rank from 47th to 14th in the space of seven days is the county's vaccination Putnam's vaccinated rate is 38%. Statewide, only counties have a higher percentage of vaccinated residents.

While Putnam's 38% is above the state average, medical experts believe that there will be a resurgence of new cases in the fall unless more than 60% are fully vaccinated.

Vaccine appointments can be made with the Putnam County Health Department by going online to bit.ly/3y8PJqm or call by calling 304-757-

Eastern Star Chapter 116 Helps Reopen Genesis Center Courtyard

By Betsy Allen

Members of Eastern Star Chapter helped spruce up the courtyard at the Genesis Putnam Center, which is located behind Teays CAMC. Due to coronavirus pandemic, the residents of the nursing home were not allowed in the courtyard for over a year. Over time, COVID restrictions have lessened, and the courtyard was reopened

Sandy Payne, who is both a bus driver for Genesis Putnam Center as well as a member of the Hurricane Eastern Star, proposed the idea of a beautification project for the courtyard. The facility administrator, Michael Herald, approved her idea, and on Saturday, May 22, volunteers with the Eastern Star began the first phase of the project.

routine Sometimes agenda items at Putnam Commission meetings prove to be not so routine. Such was the case at the March 27 County Commission meeting during and after the conduct of a public hearing requested by PAR Industrial Company. PAR requested the hearing after being notified in April that failure to repair a dilapidated fence located on Scary Creek Road could result in fines.

Breeze pond on June 1st.

PAR attorney argued that Lafon Putnam's Dilapidated and Abandoned Property ordinance should apply because there was no reason to believe that Foster the property was intended for human habitation and the property lacked any structure.

Tina Peck of the DAEA Board countered that the fence was a structure and that it was dilapidated. Lafon then asked if the property would be considered a stretch of woods in the absence of Tim the fence. Peck replied that removal of the fence would bring PAR into compliance ordinance.

Commissioner Ron responded the suggestion that the property was just woods. Foster stated that PAR's deed to the Scary Creek property made reference to its having been used by FMC chemical company as a dump site. Lafon Foster's objected to conclusion because

Entries Sought for 2021 West Virginia Juried Exhibition

Arts, Culture and History (WVDACH) is announcing a call for entries for its 22nd biennial West Virginia Juried Exhibition. The show will be on display at the Culture Center in Charleston. Since 1979, the exhibition has celebrated the exceptional talents and creativity of Mountain State artists.

Submissions for the exhibit in the form of digital images on CD or USB flash drive will be accepted through Monday, Aug. 2. Artists may submit two pieces for the exhibition with a limit of three digital images per entry. Entry forms and properly identified images must be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of $20 per piece. Make check payable to West Virginia Department of Arts, Culture and History. Digital images can be mailed to WVDACH, West Virginia Juried Exhibition (WVJE) 2021, The Culture Center, 1900 Kanawha Blvd., E., Charleston, W.Va. 25305-0300, or hand-delivered to the Culture Center at the State Capitol Complex. An option to email images will be available this year by first contacting Cailin Howe, exhibits coordinator, to ensure your images are submitted properly. Image file sizes must be small enough to be received through email, an entry form must be included, and entry fee will still need to be mailed Eligible entries include works created in the past two years in the areas of painting, sculpture, printmaking, drawing, photography, digital art, mixed media and crafts.

Florida has so much to offer... if I overlook the squirrels on my patio and those dratted little lizards... horrible... I enjoy sitting out there with the palm trees shading me... a breeze blowing... and if I want, I can walk around the corner of the condo to the huge heated pool. I must tell my daughter a million times a month... we are WV Strong... our roots are there... of course, we moved from there when she was not even two years old and didn't return until she was in junior high. She left to move to Indiana for college and never returned (to live there). Our journeys began in WV... almost Heaven... hers in the hospital in Charleston (her brother also) and mine in Hurricane... I am eager to get "home" for awhile... I was last there in May 2019... it has been too long. Flora Lee tells me there is a new hotel in Hurricane (thank you Mayor Edwards). Even though friends would welcome their home to me, I might try the hotel, especially if my son goes with me to see his best friend. We will see... not sure I am brave enough to fly, especially if the mask order is not in effect... I have flown so many times, it has become mundane... but during a Pandemic not so much. As my journey continues, I will look at the map of Florida and find a place for a couple of days... then I will plan my trip to WV... and oh yes, my daughter and I want NYC again soon... all of that will happen because the way we were is still the way we are... ready to journey near and far in this journey we call LIFE. # Memorial Day–

Last Monday in May

Submitted by Nathan Wills, Nitro Historical Committee Vice President

At the end of the Civil War there began a tradition. It was called Decoration Day. People would visit their cemetery and place a flower of remembrance of fallen soldiers over the years. When World War I came, it changed to encompass all soldiers who had passed in time of war. The name changed and people started referring to it as Memorial Day in the 1880's.

1971: Memorial Day, the last Monday in May, became an official holiday. Wearing a red poppy on Memorial Day - in 1915, John McCrae was inspired by the Battle of Ypres to write the first three verses of "In Flanders Fields" that gives a voice to the fallen. Later a volunteer war worker named Monica Michael made an answer to the poem to give the living soldiers their voice, which are the last three verses of the poem. We shall keep to faith the poppy remains the symbol of remembrance to this day.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie, In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe: To you from failing hands we throw The torch; be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders fields.

A Fruity Sprinkle Surprise

(Culinary.net) To kids, birthday parties are a big deal and only happen once a year. From the decorations to their friends and all the sweet, delicious treats to devour, it can be an overwhelming amount of excitement and awe.

They receive gifts, get to have fun with their friends and family, and get to snack on treats they typically don't have on a regular basis. This is part of what makes birthdays so fun.

It can be a lot of pressure for parents, though. You want everything to be perfect and fall in line with expectations, especially when it comes to the food and treats served to everyone that day.

At the next party you're hosting, try this delightful Fruity Sprinkles Smoothie that fits the theme for nearly any colorful birthday bash.

It's made with frozen blueberries, frozen strawberries and frozen mango for a healthier alternative to sugar-filled birthday cake. Topped with fluffy, fun whipped cream and mini sprinkles, it still provides a sweet, festive treat. Plus, this smoothie can be made in a matter of minutes using only one kitchen appliance for easy clean up.

To make it, blend frozen blueberries, frozen strawberries, frozen mango, milk and yogurt until well combined.

Pour the mixture into four smoothie glasses and garnish each with whipped cream and sprinkles to add some extra color.

It's that easy to make and even better to enjoy while watching your kid make wonderful memories with friends and family.

Joshua Commands the Sun to Stand Still

Joshua 10:1-15

The book of Joshua is both history and scripture. As history, it is a record of the things which happened in the period following the death of Moses. As scripture, it is written for our admonition such that His will might be manifested in us (see I Cor. 10:11).

The text before us includes a record of a day unlike any other, a day in which God caused the sun to stand still. If asked why did God make this happen, many would state that the miracle allowed Israel to defeat the enemy. Very few would declare that God did it for our admonition. Both answers are correct. Believers know God by that which He does. God does that which He does for our understanding.

Consider the events leading up to the day in which the sun stood still. Adoni-zedek, the king of Jerusalem, and four other Armorite kings had gathered their armies against the city of Gibeon with the intent of destroying it because the Gibeonites had made peace with Israel (v. 4). The reason that the Gibeonites chose to make peace is found in Chapter 9.

The Gibeonites knew that the Lord God of Israel had commanded the children of Israel to take possession of the land and to destroy all its inhabitants. The Gibeonites had cause to believe that God would empower Israel to do as He had commanded. They had heard of that which God had done to Egypt. They had witnessed that which God had done to the two Armorite kings who ruled over the cities of Heshbon and Bashan on the east of the Jordan. They knew the likewise fate of the kings of Jericho and Ai on the western side of the Jordan.

The peace deal to which the Gibeonites agreed stipulated that they would become Israel's servants in exchange for a pledge before the Lord God that Israel would not slay them.

Returning to verse 4: Gibeon was now under siege by the five kings because the Gibeonites believed that God would do what God had said He would do.

Joshua responded to Gibeon's call for help (v. 7). Joshua could have reasoned that Israel was under no obligation to bring aid because the Gibeonites had falsely claimed that they were of a distant land. Joshua responded because Israel's pledge before God took precedence over Gibeon's deceit. Joshua's desire was to do that which was right before God.

God knows the hearts of men and He knew Joshua's thoughts. In verse 8, God assured Joshua that he was doing the right thing. Joshua attacked. Verses 10 and 11 describe that which God did. The Lord routed the five kings and inflicted casualties upon their retreating armies. Verse 11 states that the Lord slew more Amorites with hailstones than Israel did with the sword.

The scripture states that Joshua, standing in the sight of Israel, commanded the sun and the moon to stand still. Verse 13 states that the sun and the moon obeyed. Joshua commanded it and it happened. What? No man possesses the power to direct the sun and the moon. How did Joshua do it? Joshua did not make it happen. God did. Verse 14 states, "And there was no day like that before or after it, that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man." God caused what Joshua commanded to happen. The Lord God hearkened to the voice of a man.

Believers know that God does not answer to man. When Jesus dwelt among us in the flesh, He said: "If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; it should obey you" (Lk. 17:6). God answers to faith. Joshua possessed enough faith to make the sun and the moon pause in their journey across the skies. Faith makes things happen. Faith caused the walls of Jericho to fall (see Heb. 11:30).

Where did Joshua's faith come from? God gave it to him. In verse 8, God said: "Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee." Joshua heard and believed God. Faith comes by hearing that which God says (Rom. 10:17). God gave Joshua the faith to do that which he did. When Joshua left Gilgal to go up to Gibeon, his objective was to save the Gibeonites. After God spoke to him, Joshua had a new objective. He was to slay every Armorite. Joshua achieved the new objective because the sun and the moon obeyed his command. Joshua did that which he did in the sight of Israel. The power of faith is power from God. God gives His power to all who would do His will as Joshua did. God would have all men know that He empowers them who seek His will. Let us use the faith which we have been given.
