Four Putnam Veterans Receive 'Quilts of Valor'

By Betsy Allen

Four Putnam veterans were recently honored by the Order of the Eastern Star, Hurricane Chapter 116. Dee Kemper, who is affiliated with the Order, is in a quilting ministry at her church, Maranatha Fellowship. The church is also one of five churches in West Virginia which make quilts for Quilts of Valor. Kemper requested that quilts be presented to four members of the Eastern Star who are veterans. Quilts of Valor state coordinator Maribeth Shreve presented the four men with homemade quilts, each sewn with a patriotic theme. These were some of the quilts that were on display on the steps of the State Capital in Charleston earlier this year.

The four veterans who were honored were Jon Comer, Curtis Grant, Al Howard, and Grover Huff. All are from Hurricane, with the exception of Huff, who resides in Scott Depot.

Jon Comer served with the Marines in Cuba in 1971-2, guarding Guantanamo Base. While he signed up to fight in Vietnam, he got sent to Cuba instead, where he repaired radios, phones, mine detectors, and cryptographers. Although he received the National Defense Ribbon and Good Conduct medal, he says that he always felt left out because the men who went to Vietnam came back with ribbons and medals. "This is the nicest thing anyone has ever done," he said in response to being given a Quilt of Valor.

"I was very humbled and honored to receive the quilt," said Al Howard. He was in the Air Force from 1964-68, where he served as a jet engine mechanic, working on B52's and KC135's.

"I appreciate the quilt so much," said Grover

Yuletide in Park Transitions to Full Week of Festivities

Word of Light Community Church hosted a live nativity at the park on Friday and Saturday nights. (Photo by Betsy Allen)

By Betsy Allen

The Valley Park went all out for Christmas this year and held a week's worth of festivities as part of the annual Yuletide in the Park celebration. The multiday event kicked off on Saturday, November 27, with a Small Business Saturday vendor event in the conference center, and a Grinch-themed cupcake decorating party hosted by Valley Cakes. The festivities continued on Monday evening with a wreath making class, and crafts for both adults and children on Tuesday, courtesy of the So-Kai Kidz Clubhouse. On Wednesday, December 1, visitors to the park could enjoy a gingerbread house making party, and the following day there was a cookie decorating class.

These smaller events were leading up to the big shindig held on Friday and Saturday, December 3 and 4.

The Hurricane Civic Chorus kicked off the festivities on Friday evening. A massive Christmas tree, donated by Berry Fork Enterprises of Heaters, West Virginia, was placed in the midst of the green between the Conference Center and the Commons, and the lights were lit for the first time in a special tree lighting ceremony. Lining the walkways around the enormous tree are smaller trees, which were sponsored and decorated by various businesses in Putnam County.

Shortly after the tree was lit, Santa Claus arrived for photographs and visits with the children. Volunteers with the Putnam County Library recited the "Night Before Christmas." Outside on the grounds, the Word of Light Community Church of Culloden held a live nativity scene, with performances every ten minutes.

The Centennial History of Hurricane

Meet Some of Hurricane's Oldest Families

In 1988, The Centennial History of Hurricane, WV, was published to commemorate the town's 100th anniversary. Since the Centennial History is now out of print, the Breeze is reprinting articles from the book as space allows. This week's selection will be the 22nd installment of the Centennial History.

THE STOVER FAMILY (1924-1945)
Submitted by Gail White

In November, 1924, A.C. and Lena Stover moved from Charleston, WV, to the "Old Shepherd Place," a three and one half acre tract of land situated west of the City limits between Route 60 and the C&O railroad, into a house rumored to have been built during the Civil War. They brought 3 of their 5 children: Mabel, Geka, and Gail. Two older children, Elma and students to learn about great poetry through memorization, recitation, and competition. More than 4.1 million students across the country have participated in Poetry Out Loud since the program's launch in 2005, including thousands of West Virginia high school students.

The program begins as students participate in classroom or school-wide competitions. One winner from each school may advance to the statewide competition. This year's state final will be held at the Culture Center, State Capitol Complex, Charleston on March 11-12, 2022.

State champions from across the United States advance to the national finals. The national final awards $50,000 in student prizes and school stipends.

West Virginia's 2021 state champion, Ben Long of Notre Dame High School, was one of nine students to advance through regional competitions and compete for the title of national champion.

The Poetry Out Loud program provides teachers with an online repository of free, standards-based curriculum materials for the classroom. These include an online poetry anthology containing more than 1,100 classic and contemporary poems, a teacher's guide, lesson plans, posters, and video and audio on the art of poetry recitation. Teachers can access these resources at PoetryOutLoud.org, and physical copies of the teacher's guide are available from the WVDACH. Guidelines for conducting a competition (including virtual options) are also available on the Poetry Out Loud website.

To learn more about Poetry Out Loud, receive the program materials, or register for the state competition, visit <https://wvculture.org/agencies/arts/poetry-out-loud/> or contact Jim Wolfe, program coordinator, at james.d.wolfe@wv.gov or 304-558-0240.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

Living in Florida... Family...I love it...I can be sitting on my patio when I am waiting on the little grandsons to arrive. You will find me sitting there when I am waiting on some of the Indy group to arrive also. I am not comfortable driving to the airport yet...it is not that far...not even as far as the airports were in WV...I am just not ready...

When I moved to Indiana, it took me awhile to get used to driving those 10 plus lanes of traffic and tackling the roundabouts...don't get me started on those things...I finally became so used to the traffic and the roads that I was fine driving wherever...

I will adjust and drive more here...if my son is working and if my daughter in law is busy with the boys' activities, the family Ubers to the condo...they don't mind at all...they also might Uber to the airport sometimes...the flights often conflict...whether they are being picked up by family or by strangers, I am sitting on the patio waiting...just as I did in Green Acres in Teays Valley...I sat on the big porch waiting for the cars to pull up...oh, I miss that house...that big porch with my white wicker (which is gone now)...that lovely yard, and the big bedrooms for the family...awww...the beautiful furniture...which like other material possessions is gone now...it doesn't matter...

My son and daughter in law are patient...they often ride with me to make sure I can find new places...then off I go. This was the same way the family did with me in Indiana...I can feel the aging process daily now...but I keep going despite the years and the pain.

I remember moving to South Carolina where I knew not one person. I drove all over the state and back and forth to WV and Indiana without a thought...I drove in NYC...in Texas... wherever I traveled in this country...I will get my driving courage in a new place...I don't want to say it, but some of these Florida drivers...

Family...seeing them get out of the vehicle with those smiles...hugs...and glorious reunions...I love it...I love my family more than anyone could ever imagine...and they love coming to see me...

The little fellows run to the door...the adults walk, but I am just as excited to see them...did I say I love my family?

My children, their spouses, and their children are courteous and kind...generous...few kids buy condos (or houses) for their parents...and other nice gifts like my IPAD from the other branch...they are so good to me; I am a blessed woman...I know I write this and say it over and over...but I am...

As we enjoy this season of holidays...getting to the new year...play a game with your family...read a book with them...take a walk...talk to them...remember...talk about the past...

There is nothing in this life as important as family (and God of course)...no talent...no riches...material possessions...family is what matters and the memories we leave with them...the sweet days we spend together...I am thankful for the privilege of growing up in small town America where my Mother and Grandmother instilled in me the importance of life...because the way we were is the way we are...a member of the family of God...a member of the Burke family...the Taylor family...all of us together loving each other and caring for each other the way we do...

Available Pets at the Putnam Animal Shelter

These are a few of the many pets up for adoption at the Putnam County Animal Shelter. By the time that this issue of the Hurricane Breeze is published, these animals may have already been adopted and found their forever homes. However, there are many pets at the shelter that still need homes.

For more information, call the Putnam County Animal Shelter at 304-586-0249.

This is Whiskers (Id #46280). Whiskers is a two-year-old male domestic short haired cat who came to the shelter as a stray. Come meet him!

Meet Draco (Id #46281), a eleven-month-old neutered male Pit bull terrier mix looking for a new home. Come visit this guy!

Howard, had finished school and were employed in Kanawha County. A.C. traveled, selling coal for the Stover Smokeless Coal Company, leaving Lena and her children to tend to the "farm." Mabel graduated from Hurricane High School and then accepted a position as a bookkeeper for Coyle and Richardson Department Store in Charleston.

Geka graduated from the same school in 1933, studied at Marshall College and completed her B.S. degree at Morris Harvey College. She was employed as a teacher in Kanawha County.

Gail finished high school in 1936, went to Marshall College, earning M.A. degree in Elementary Education, and then taught in Putnam County for 32 years, retiring in 1981.

The family attended and was active in the Hurricane Methodist Church, but at that time there was so much cooperation between the Methodist and Baptist Churches, church was often dismissed at one church so that everyone could attend special events at the other, so the Stovers were often in the Baptist Church also.

During the late 20's, Lena was one of the original organizers of the Stitch and Chatter Club, a club which endured for many, many years and cemented many great friendships. They met twice each month to do just as the title suggests- to stitch and to chatter.

Other members were Anna Woodworth, Lula Withrow, Jean Wilkerson, Edith Easter Roberts, Wilmoth Rumbaugh, Annie Erwin, Elizabeth Roberman, Artie Sovine, Grace Burdette, Mary Kirtley, Marie Easter, Emmazetta Hodge, Laura Riddle, and Flora Fannin.

Lena always raised a large garden and had several producing fruit trees. From this effort her larder was always full, even during the period known as the Great Depression. She bought cases of salmon at 10 cents a can and dried beans and sugar in 50 or 100 lb. bags, so the family never went hungry. She also managed to send two children to college during this period.

Some of the events remembered were the hay rides, corn roasts, ice cream socials, quilting bees, wiener roasts, high school dramas, operettas, and just good, good friends getting together.

One very frightening time remembered was when the KKK paraded through the Methodist Church, apparently for a good cause, but certainly not understood by the youngsters present, who thought they were seeing GHOSTS.

Another fright came when Geka and Gail, after church one Sunday morning, were asked to go to Allen Funeral Home to identify a body that had been found on the railroad track, and rumored to be their brother, Howard, a rumor, thankfully that proved to be untrue.

The Stovers have been blessed greatly during their years in Hurricane and since. They all remained in fairly close proximity and have all stayed close to the values which were caught them both in their home and in the community of Hurricane.

A digital copy of the Centennial History can be obtained from the Hurricane City Hall for a small donation. For more information, call the City of Hurricane at (304) 562-5896.

Huff, who served in the US Army. "Indeed, it is an honor to be considered for this. I served my country because I was called, but I would do it again. I really appreciate what the Eastern Star and Quilts of Valor did - it touched my heart and I couldn't talk."

"It's a wonderful thing that they recognized us. It was a big surprise," said Curtis Grant, who also served in the US Army. "Many Vietnam veterans were not recognized when they got home. We felt out of place when we got home, and missed the soldiers we served with.

Some of those guys we never saw again."

During the presentation, the veterans were wrapped in the quilts, a Quilts of Valor tradition which symbolizes an embrace of love and gratitude. The quilts are meant to be a healing and comforting gesture, a way of showing appreciation and support to veterans. Quilters from all over the nation spend hours designing and sewing these heartfelt blankets. Over 266,000 quilts have been presented to veterans since the foundation of Quilts of Valor in 2003. Anyone can request a quilt to honor a veteran.

WVSU Extension Service to Discuss Wild Birds at 'Ag Talk Tuesday' December 14

West Virginia State University (WVSU) Extension Service's monthly Ag Talk Tuesday series continues Tuesday, December 14, at 6 p.m. ET with a live discussion of wild birds in West Virginia.

WVSU Extension Service will be joined by Katie Fallon, executive director and co-founder of the Avian Conservation Center of Appalachia (ACCA). Fallon will discuss what to do if you find an injured wild bird, as well as some typical injuries and causes. She will also provide an overview of the ACCA and ways to help wild birds in general.

The free Ag Talk Tuesday series began last year and takes place the second Tuesday of each month via Zoom. Participants register to join the live event and can submit questions ahead of time through the WVSU Extension Service Facebook and Twitter platforms or via email.

To participate in the Zoom sessions, register at wvstateu.edu/ANR.

While live questions will be answered during each session, participants are also encouraged to submit questions, as well as ideas for future topics, ahead of time to anr@wvstateu.edu.

The ACCA is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to conserving the region's wild birds through research, education and rehabilitation. Each year it admits more than 500 injured wild birds and gives environmental education programs featuring 13 non-releasable raptors. Learn more about the organization at <https://www.accawv.org/>.

You never know how much someone needed that smile you gave them.

You never know how much your kindness turned someone's entire life around.

You never know how much someone needed that long hug or deep talk.

So don't wait to be kind. Don't wait for someone else to be kind first.

Don't wait for better circumstances or for someone to change.

Just be kind, because you never know how much someone needs it.

Why don't leopards play hide and seek?

Because they are always spotted.

Jimmy forgot his lines in the Sunday School play. Luckily his mother was in front row to prompt him. She formed the words silently with her lips, but it did not help. Jimmy's memory was blank. Finally, she whispered the cue, "I am the light of the world."

Jimmy beamed and with great feeling and a loud, clear voice announced, "My mom is the light of the world."

Kay's granddaughters assured her they would include their little boy cousin in their play. She found him sitting alone on the front porch and said, "I thought you were playing with the girls."

He answered, "I am. We are playing house and I am the doggie and the doggie isn't allowed in the house."

Jack told his wife she should embrace her

What did the bald man say when he won a comb? "Thanks, I'll never part with it."

If you drop me, I'll crack but if you smile at me, I will smile back. What am I? A mirror.

A lady rode a taxi to town and on the way, told the taxi driver the best ways to get there. When she arrived, she got out and started to pay the driver, "There will be no charge, lady," he said. "You did most of the driving."

Delightful Dishes to Dazzle Holiday Guests

(Family Features) Entertaining guests during the holidays isn't just about a main course that calls all to the table. What often makes a festive gathering more fruitful is a spread of delicious appetizers, delightful drinks and divine desserts that keep loved ones coming back to the kitchen for more.

For appetizing dishes from the first guest at the house to the last out the door, you can heighten the flavor and appearance of favorite recipes with one simple ingredient: apples. Ranging from tart to sugary sweet, finding the right balance for your palate is key. Scent can also influence taste, especially when you have a balanced sweetness with an uplifting, fresh aroma.

Turn to an option like Envy Apples this holiday season for satisfying texture and taste with a consistently balanced, refreshing sweetness coupled with a crisp, elegant crunch. They make for an easy snack when eaten fresh out of hand but are also perfect for holding over pre-dinner appetites in small plates like this Bell-Issimo Brie Melt.

The versatile flavor of apples isn't just limited to foods, however. For the adults in the room, Pumpkin Spice Apple Cider with a splash of bourbon is a seasonally appropriate way to quench thirst and break the ice. Simply omit the bourbon for a kid-friendly version so the whole party can savor a sip.

Find more sweet holiday recipes at EnvyApple.com.

Pumpkin Spice Apple Cider

- 1 Envy Apple, diced
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 teaspoon pumpkin spice
- 2 ounces bourbon
- 4 ounces pumpkin spice apple cider
- demerara sugar
- Envy Apple slices, for garnish
- rosemary, for garnish
- cinnamon stick, for garnish

In pan over medium heat, saute diced apples in butter and pumpkin spice 5-10 minutes.

In glass, combine bourbon and pumpkin spice apple cider; top with sauteed apples.

Add demerara sugar then garnish with apple slices, rosemary and cinnamon stick.

Bell-Issimo Brie Melt

- 1 round brie (6-8 ounces)
- 2 Envy Apples
- 1/4 cup walnuts
- 1/4 cup dried cranberries
- firm crackers

Unwrap brie and place on microwave-safe dish. Cut off top of brie round and microwave 60 seconds until middle is soft.

Slice apples into thick wedges.

Top brie with half the apples, crushed walnuts and dried cranberries.

Serve with firm crackers and remaining apple wedges.

Yuletide in Park Transitions to Full Week of Festivities

Saturday morning started off with Breakfast with Santa, and then an Ugly Sweater competition with prizes for Ugly, Uglier, and Ugliest Sweater. The first annual Christmas PJ Pageant, organized by WV Cupcake Festival Pageants, was held afterwards. Participants were required to wear Christmas-themed pajamas or nightgowns. The pageant featured divisions for Teeny, Baby Miss, Toddler Miss, Tiny Miss, Mr. Yuletide, Little Miss, Junior Miss, Teen, Miss, and Ms., as well as prizes for Most Photogenic, Best Performance, Best Attire, and People's Choice. There was also a family division as well. The organizers of the Yuletide Pageant plan to make this a recurring event at Valley Park, with plans to join West Virginia Fairs and Festivals in 2022.

Winners of the Yuletide Pageant included Mia Scalia, Teenie Miss Yuletide; Baby Miss Lila LeMaster; Toddler Miss Danielle Miller; Tiny Miss Violet LeMaster; Mr. Yuletide Nolan Wilcoxon; Little Miss Brianna Barger; Junior Miss Vivienne Montgomery; Teen Miss Shelby Plants; Miss Apphia Welker; and Ms. Jasmine McClure.

After the Yuletide Pageant was over, there was a pet parade across the grounds between the Conference Center and the Commons. People were encouraged to dress both themselves and their pets in holiday attire for the event. Participants included Sarah Chafin of Scott Depot with Chippy the mastiff; Kara and Isabella Boehm of Scott Depot with Max, a Labrador mix; and Nichole Katterman of Hurricane with Edmond and Pongo, a pair of yorkies.

Other events held on Saturday included holiday clogging by the Lincoln County Cloggers, a cookie competition, gingerbread house judging, crafts for children, and the live nativity later that evening. Visitors could also enjoy the Christmas light displays placed around the park.

An annual event since the mid-1990's, Yuletide in the Park has always started with a kick-off celebration held over the first weekend in December and then a month-long light display. While the celebration has hosted many events since its inception, the 2021 Yuletide in the Park might just be the largest festival the park has ever hosted.

WVSU Fall Commencement Putnam County Marriages set for Saturday, Dec. 11

West Virginia State University (WVSU) will host its fall commencement ceremony on Saturday, December 11, beginning at 10 a.m. in the D. Stephen and Diane H. Walker Convocation Center.

The ceremony will recognize summer and fall 2021 graduates. In addition, members of the WVSU class of 2020 who had virtual commencement ceremonies because of the COVID-19 pandemic have been invited to participate in person.

The commencement speaker is Charleston Mayor Amy Shuler Goodwin. She was elected Nov. 7, 2018, as the first female mayor of Charleston. Since taking office, Goodwin has prioritized fiscal accountability, transparent and efficient processes, fairness, people-focused solutions, and forward-thinking policies and programming.

Prior to being elected mayor of Charleston, Goodwin served as the deputy secretary of commerce and commissioner of tourism for the state of West Virginia. She also served as communications director for several governors, a congressman, a presidential candidate and former Charleston mayor, the late G. Kemp Melton.

In addition to Goodwin, the commencement ceremony will feature remarks from WVSU Board of Governors Chair Charles E. Jones, Jr., WVSU Interim President Erika S. Cage, and WVSU Student Government Association President Angel Allison.

The event will be livestreamed on WVSU's livestream channel <https://www.youtube.com/c/WVSULiveStream>.

The following marriages were recorded by the Putnam County Clerk during the month of November:

- Zachary Lynn Jones to Kayla Jean Woodall
- Jeremy Scott Hazlewood to Amber Nicole Gore

THE HIGHEST HEIGHTS

Climbing a mountain takes skill, physical fitness, and determination. Harsh weather, lack of oxygen, and exhaustion may face the climber who dares to face the silent majesty of extreme heights. Like a mountain climb, a journey in faith has its struggles; God's ways are not always easy to comprehend. Obstacles thrown in our path may make us falter and fail, but He gives us new strength with every new difficulty. Seek His strength and refuge at your house of worship this week.

A King Comes Forth

Isaiah 9:6-7, John 12:12-16

The words of Isaiah 9:6 and 9:7 need to be read with care. Some would claim that the things of which the prophet wrote more than 2,700 years ago have never happened and they would be partially correct. The first part of verse 6 is separated from the second part of verse 6 by more than 2,000 years. The literal reign of Jesus Christ from the throne of David has not happened. Isaiah 9:6 employs both verbs of the present tense and the future tense. The promised child and son is of one time and His reign of another. A literal reading of Isaiah 9:6 and 9:7 requires the promised one to rule from the throne of David in a time different from his birth.

The names: Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, and The Prince of Peace, are names by which the child shall be known when the government is upon His shoulder. The throne of David ceased to exist less than 150 years after Isaiah recorded these words. The throne of David did not physically exist when the promised child was born. The Herods who sat upon the throne in Jerusalem at the time of Jesus' birth were puppets of Rome, not sons of David. The promise of verse 7 will be literally realized during the one thousand years following the Lord's return.

New Testament believers know our Lord and Savior to be the promised child because we enjoy a personal relationship with Him. When He ascended to sit at the right-hand of the Father, He sent the Comforter (the Holy Spirit) to bring into remembrance all things which He said and to teach us all things (John 14:26). It is through and by the Holy Spirit that we know Jesus as Wonderful, as Counselor, as one with God the Father, and as the Prince of Peace. Believers realize now (present tense) that which will be known to all when Christ Jesus reigns from the throne of David.

While the rule of our Lord and Savior from the throne of David in Jerusalem is yet future, the proclamation of Jesus as the promised king is two thousand years past. All four gospels record His triumphal entry into Jerusalem. John 12:13 is a record of the words which the people proclaimed, "Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord."

The word "Hosanna" means save now. It is a call to the Lord God to deliver Israel from her enemies. It is the same call of praise that is recorded in Psalm 118:25-26. In Psalm 118, the call for the Lord to save Israel is preceded by the acclamation, "The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner." New Testament believers know that we are "saved now" by believing upon the stone which the builders rejected. We know our Lord and Savior to be the one of whom Isaiah spoke saying, "He is despised and rejected of men" (Isa. 53:3). Our King is Jesus who was despised and rejected. Our King is the one of whom the prophets spoke.

Those who hailed Jesus with Hosannas believed that He would save them now from Roman oppression. Jesus revealed the manner in which He should reign through His actions. Jesus was not a king who would deliver the people from Roman rule. He came riding upon the back of a young donkey (v. 14). He showed Himself to be the one of whom Zechariah spoke saying, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass" (Zech. 9:9). Jesus did not come to deliver the Jews from Roman rule. He came to bring salvation to all who would believe.

The salvation which Jesus brought is that which Peter described as that which "the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come" (I Pet. 1:10). Jesus is the promised grace.

Peter and the other disciples did not understand these things at the first (v. 16). Peter and John and the other disciples witnessed the people cast branches of palm trees before the Lord. They heard the multitude sing out the praises of Psalm 118. They saw Jesus ride into Jerusalem in the manner which Zechariah prophesied. They had been with Jesus for three years. They had witnessed His miracles. They had heard His public sermons and teachings. Jesus had given the private explanations of parables which He had declared publicly. Despite all this, they did not understand at the first. They did not understand until they beheld the resurrected Christ and saw Him ascend to heaven to sit at the right-hand of God the Father. They did not understand until the Comforter caused them to remember all things that the prophets had written of the grace that was to come.

The Holy Spirit has delivered to New Testament believers that which the prophets sought. It is though the foolishness of preaching that God chose to save all that believe (I Cor. 1:21). Let us go, teach and baptize in the name of Him whom we know.

JAMES A. MCCOY

James A. McCoy, Sr., of Hurricane, passed away on November 28, 2021 with his family by his side.

Mr. McCoy was born on February 10, 1932, and raised in Wharton, W.Va. and a graduate of Van High School and attended Morris Harvey College and the University of Dayton and C.L.U.

Mr. McCoy was a Christian, a devoted, loving Husband, Father, Uncle and Grandfather and will be missed and remembered.

He was a Coal Miner with Eastern Associated Coal and Gas Co. but spent his career as an agent and Manager for Peoples Life Insurance Company until his retirement. He was a camp counselor at Eastern Coal Camp Thomas E. Lightfoot, and a veteran of the United States Army, during the Korean Conflict Era.

Mr. McCoy is predeceased by his parents, Harry Arthur McCoy and Nancy Ellen McCoy formerly of Wharton, W.Va. and his brothers and sisters, John "Jack" McCoy, Nancy Louise McCoy, Helen McCoy, Janice Erle McCoy Cole, Billie McCoy Hall, Harry "Mac" Arthur McCoy, Betty McCoy Wert, Nancy McCoy Lally and Theodore R. McCoy.

He is survived by his wife of 70 years, Velma Atkins McCoy; daughters, Nancy McCoy Kalen of Richmond, Va., Julie McCoy Stowers of Dunbar; son, James A. McCoy, Jr. of Hamlin. He is also survived by his brothers, William McCoy of Indianapolis, Ind., Robert L. McCoy of Kettering, Ohio and Sherman "Randy" McCoy of Centerville, Ohio; grandsons, Nick Kalen of Blacksburg, Va., Matt Kalen of San Diego, California and granddaughter, Emma Stowers of Dunbar.

A graveside service was held Sunday, December 5, at Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans, with Pastor Aaron Mills officiating.

ELEANOR MILLER

Eleanor Miller, 87, of Scott Depot, formerly of South Charleston, daughter of the late Hobert and Arnette Skidmore, passed away peacefully in her sleep on Wednesday, December 1, 2021. She was born in 1934 in Braxton County and was the youngest of five children. She later moved with her family to Calhoun Co. and graduated from Calhoun County High School. Eleanor attended Glenville State College and pursued a degree in education. When she was 40 years old, she attended Charleston School of Beauty Culture and later started a 35-year teaching career in cosmetology and finally retiring from Mountaineer Beauty College. Her students meant the world to her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack Miller; brother, Jim Skidmore; sisters, Helen Webb, Eloise Miller.

Surviving daughter, Jackie Hill (Paul) of Scott Depot; grandchildren, Robert Hill (Missi) of St. Albans, Jerry Steed (Kina) of Dunbar, Jeremy Hill (Amanda) of Dunbar, Chena Hill (Nathan) of Sissonville; great-grandchildren, Kyla, Lee, Makenna, Kristian, Jerron, Haydyn, Kalee, River, Reign; and sister, Phyllis Roach of South Charleston.

Service was Monday, December 6, 2021, at Good Shepherd Mortuary, South Charleston, with Pastor Scott Beha officiating. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Park, South Charleston.

DAVID R. POORE

David Ray Poore entered into the Eternal Kingdom on November 28, 2021.

He was born October 15, 1938 to Arthur Ray and Frances Irene Poore in Raleigh, West Virginia. Growing up in the Raleigh Coal Camp, he attended Woodrow Wilson High School, where he met the love of his life, Martha Jane Poore (Weaver) who predeceased him in death. After graduating high school, Dave went on to have successful careers in the construction industry and as a salesman for various companies including Lucas Tire, GE, and Appalachia Tire.

After retirement, Dave started a tee-shirt printing business with his oldest son Mark called "Certain-Teez." When not printing tee-shirts, Dave was traveling with and supporting his younger son, Bryan and his West Virginia State University Men's Basketball team. Known affectionately as "Pops" to the players, Dave rarely missed a practice, or a game.

Dave and Martha were married for 51 years before her death on August 18, 2011, and the family rejoices for their reunion now. Left to cherish his memory are Mark and Pam Poore (Satellite Beach, FL); Bryan and Jennifer Poore (South Charleston) and Susie and Paul Konstanty (Hurricane). Grandchildren Brittany, Brandon, Bryan David, Trevor, Chloe, Anna, and Great-Grandson Cooper will forever miss their beloved Paw-Paw/Granddad.

A celebration of Dave's life will be 1:00pm on Sunday, December 12, 2021 at the Walker Convocation Center upon the campus of West Virginia State University. The family will receive visitors from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m., with a service to follow.

Gov. Justice Encourages Vaccine and Booster Doses

During his Thursday, December 2 briefing, Gov. Justice one again reminded West Virginians of the importance of being vaccinated and receiving a booster dose of the COVID-19 vaccine prior to the holiday season.

Specifically, he urged individuals age 50 and older to make sure they are fully vaccinated with a booster dose before holiday shopping with large crowds or attending events with loved ones.

"We have a small percent of people 50 and older who are fully vaccinated but have not taken their booster shots. That is just plain not smart," said Gov. Justice. "Run to the fire and get your booster shots. We have to do better."

Putnam County Weekly Roundup

Putnam County Convention and Visitors Bureau

HOLIDAY FARMER'S MARKET

The Putnam Farmer's Market is hosting their holiday pop-up during their off-season this Saturday, December 4 from 9a until 4p at Area 34 (971 WV-34, Hurricane, WV 25526 - Beside the Holiday Inn Express, Teays Valley). Their lineup includes tons of vendors with special guests, pictures with the Snow Queen from 10a-12p, a hot cocoa bar, a fun, holiday photo booth with tons of props and more! Find their full details over on their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/putnamfarmersmarket>

YULETIDE AT THE PARK

Catch the annual tree lighting and Yuletide fun at Valley Park! Friday, December 3 is the tree lighting ceremony with a live nativity, story-time from the Putnam Library, and more. Join in on Saturday, December 4 for their Yuletide in the Park Festival with a full schedule of holiday fun including Breakfast with Santa, crafts vendors and more.

For this event, and more, follow our events page at <https://www.visitputnamwv.com/event-directory>

PUTNAM PASSPORT

Be sure to pick up the Putnam Passport for a great tool to help you shop small and enjoy all of the holiday events this season in Putnam County! Fill up all five stockings in the passport and bring to Area 34 by Wednesday, December 22 to redeem for a free gift: a set of #PutnamWV coasters, a Putnam County Bear Wood Company custom magnet, or a WV artisan decal! Passports are located at Area 34 and local businesses throughout the county.
