

County Commission Candidates Fork Out $50,000-Plus

By Ron Allen

Barring a dramatic shift in political winds between now and November, every Putnam County Republican who wins candidacy in Tuesday's Primary will be elected to office in the General Election on November 8th.

The last Democrat elected to a county office was Gary Tillis who was elected as County Commissioner in 2006. Since 2006, Republican candidates have won every election for county office with an increasing margin of victory.

In November, county voters will fill the offices of Circuit Clerk, County Clerk, and County Commissioner. No Democratic Party candidate chose to file for Circuit Clerk or County Clerk during the January filing period. Democrat Jim Withrow filed for County Commissioner. The last Democrat to run for the Commission was Rosalee Juba-Plumley in 2018. She was defeated by a 2 to 1 margin.

Incumbent County Clerk Brian Wood is unopposed in the Primary. The offices of Circuit Clerk and County Commissioner each have four Republicans seeking candidacy. Seeking candidacy for Circuit Clerk are Stephanie Smith, Michael Thompson, Donald Underwood and Mike Reynolds. The race is wide open in that current Circuit Clerk J.J. Mullins is not seeking reelection.

The Republican candidates for County Commissioner are Ron Foster, Ed Absten, Steve Deweese, and Todd Dillon. Foster was elected to the Commission in 2016 and is seeking a second six-year term. Deweese served as Putnam County Sheriff from 2013 to 2021. Absten and Dillon are first-time office seekers.

The cost of running for Circuit Clerk pales in comparison to that of the race for County Commissioner. The combined total expenses of the four Circuit Court candidates on their Pre-Primary filing reports was $15,021. The four County Commission candidates listed a combined total of $51,922 of Pre-Primary expenses. The Pre-Primary filings are listed on the Putnam County Clerk's website at <http://putnamcoclerk.com/election/>.

Foster was top in reported expenses with $20,176.90, followed by Deweese at $14,203.66, Absten at $8,85.14, and Dillon at $8,556.22.

The actual cost per vote will not be determined until the votes are counted and Post-Primary financial reports are

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

Some people come into our lives... they make a difference... they stay a while... others come and leave... our lives are made up of experiences with others...

When I was fifteen, I started dating Mike... I met the Burke family... six of them... the next brother was Marshall... Marshall Burke... I was going to be a junior in high school. Marshall would be a ninth grader... Mike’s little brother... one of the six... I remember that smile...

Marshall was born in 1949; Marshall died in June, 2021... gone too soon... a life well lived. I know I have written about Marshall and the family often in this column... this one is dedicated to that boy... that teenager... that man...

When I was a senior at Hurricane High, Marshall was a sophomore. We saw each other daily... we talked about Mike... the family... he took the school by storm... popular... well liked... president of this and that... an athlete like his older brother... both smart...

When we went places, the Burkes and I, Marshall sat in the backseat with us... we chatted... we laughed, crowded with another sibling... he and Mike had a relationship that was unusual... always caring about the other... I don’t remember arguments... they weren’t like that... Marshall met a girl... he was smitten... he brought her to meet us... Little beautiful Betty Thompson... that was it... she was a junior, and he was a senior (if I remember correctly)... they were together from then on... just like his brother and I... for a time...

Marshall, Betty, Mike, and I double dated... we went out to eat... to football games... to movies... Betty became a good friend to me. I cherished her as I did Marshall... I still do... I pray for her and her family faithfully... and for Mike... losing his brother...

Marshall was the best man at our wedding; Betty was my maid of honor... we were blended as a family... M and B; M and B... four of us... together...

I can still picture Marshall and Betty holding Nathan, the first grandchild, first grandson... that picture was sweet... the same with Kathy, first granddaughter... they enjoyed their niece and nephew just as we did their kids, later years...

Marshall and his family visited us often... and we them... they got us into snow skiing... yes... I was forty... we did it and loved it...we were hooked... fun with them and without... they met us at Canaan Valley at Christmas... so much family fun... and game time after the skiing...

A nice boy... a nice man... the last time I saw Marshall was at the funeral of Uncle Roger Burke... he was the same Marshall... considerate... asking about my family... always doing that... thinking of others... Marshall had that same smile I remembered from high school.

The most important thing about Marshall Burke was not that he was an esteemed doctor... a Bible teacher... he was a husband, father, and grandfather, and he cherished those roles... a life well lived. He was a son... a brother... a brother-in-law, a nephew, a cousin... a friend...

He and Betty were married over 50 years... the last anniversary celebrated in the hospital with family... he cherished his four children; he adored his twelve grandkids... he was the best family man...

Marshall spent time outdoors... he loved Cranberry River with Mike and other family members. (Mike first started going there in 1969... and continued the Burke family fishing trip... our two kids backpacked with him as young as five or six...) I have seen pictures of Marshall in May of last year. his last trip there... remember Marshall... don’t remember the man of 70 plus... I remember the boy with that smile... the boy in the yearbook... the boy others liked so much.

A life well lived... a man who adored his wife beyond belief... a man who raised his children in a home of love... and oh my... his grandchildren... Betty wrote that he taught them about life and Christ... he instilled in them his own beliefs... strong... Christian beliefs...

I know from experience how much Marshall loved Betty... from day one it seemed... there was no one else... they were inseparable... fifty years plus... I remember their beautiful wedding in 1970... the most gorgeous bride... handsome groom... off to begin their lives together...

I have seen Marshall with his children... I saw the times he taught them by experience, and I have seen the times he played with them...

Marshall was a good son... he, Mike, Betty, and I loved going to the Burke home for Canasta games, great food from Grandma Burke... and laughter with Grandpa Burke... those were fantastic date nights... and they continued after we were married and moved away... none of us remained in our home town of Hurricane... I wish...

A life well lived... Marshall Burke lived his life making it count... never wasted... his experiences are beyond what most have ever considered from living in the Middle East to settling in a small town in Pennsylvania... where Betty and some of the family live... Marshall lived a successful life, but I know that he counted his family as his greatest success...

Our lives are better for having known this boy... this man... our lives are better for being cared for by Marshall... our love and prayers go out to Betty and the family as they approach June, the anniversary of his death... but I know they are not remembering only those few days in the hospital... they are remembering his life... my friend, Linda, says it so perfectly... “I don’t stress on the illness and bad days; I remember the fifty plus years of goodness.” Betty does the same... her family does also... they honor their father by their lives... because the way we were is always the way we are... remembering the boy... we loved so much... Marshall, my brother-in-law of my heart... you are missed and thought about every day... you lived a life beyond measure... well done... faithful servant.

Mom is a blessing that no one can replace.

No love is greater than Mom’s love.

Always love your mother because you will never get another.

A mother is not a person to lean on, but a person to make leaning unnecessary.

You will never look back on life and think, “I spent too much time with my mother.”

I’ll be over you when the grass grows over me
mom, Eva Young Fisher,
my first Mother’s Day
without you and for the rest of my life.

Mothers deserve appreciation 365 days a year.

Sometimes a Mother
grieves for a child that is still alive.

The strength of a mother is second to none.

Just when a mother thinks her work is done, she becomes a grandmother.

The influence of a mother in the lives of her children is beyond calculation.

The heart of a mother is the masterpiece of nature.

Mothers are God’s angel sent from Heaven
to earth.

Mother is a verb. It’s something you do. Not just who you are.

When your mother
asks “Do you wanna piece of advice?” It’s a mere formality. It doesn’t matter if you answer yes or no. You’re going to get it anyway.

Every mother is like a flower: each one is beautiful and unique.

Mothers don’t give up on their kids for taking the wrong roads. They just keep praying there’s a place to turn around before it’s too late.

Happy Mother’s Day
to The Hurricane Breeze Fillers readers. If your mother is alive, spend time with her! You never know how lonely it is without her until she is no longer living.

A mother can forget
her pain, but never the pain of her children.

Life doesn’t come with a manual; it comes with a Mother.

Even when a mother’s soul is tired, she finds strength for her family.

Once your mom passes away nothing is the same.

A mother is the only person that forgets to pray for herself because she’s too busy praying for her children.

A mother’s dream is to see her kids supporting each other and being best friends long after she is gone.

Never forget Mother’s hands who raised you.

Life without a mother is like a class without a teacher or a city without electricity. Mother is a gift no one can replace.

Sons may grow into men and outgrow their toys, but in the hearts of mothers they are still their little boys.

A mother is a gift from God up above of caring and sharing and comfort and love. She blesses each day with her thoughtfulness too, and helps to make dreams
and wishes come true.

A mothers love is the fuel that enables a normal human being to do the impossible.

Someone asked me
what unconditional love is - I looked at my mother.

Remember this! Your Mother has feelings, too,
and no one can hurt her like her own child.

I wish Heaven had a
phone so I could hear
your voice again, Mom!

When a mother dies, a child’s mourning never completely ends.

Nobody has your back
like your mama. Love her while she’s still alive.

You never know how valuable your mom’s
advice is until you can’t get it.

So many things I want to talk to you about, but you’re in heaven.

Never underestimate
the power of a mother’s prayer.

Nothing keeps a mother awake at night
more than not knowing
how her adult child is,
or if they’re okay, or hurting.

My mind still talks
to you, my heart still looks for you, but my soul knows you’re at peace.
I miss you every single day, Mom!

People who still have their mother have no idea how blessed they are.

The best inheritance
you can leave your children is to teach them how to love Jesus.

A mother is always a mother. No matter how many times you break
her heart, she never stops worrying about her children and never stops praying for them.

Mothers don’t fear
death. Their greatest fear is leaving their children in this world, knowing
no one will love them like they do.

Only mothers can think of the future because they give birth to it in their children.

Mom’s hug is the best medicine.

The art of mothering is to teach the art of living to children.

Mothers love is peace.
It may not be acquired. It may not be deserved.

The mother’s heart is the child school-room.

God cannot be everywhere; therefore
He made mothers.

A mother’s arms are more comforting than anyone else’s.

I love my mother as trees love water and sunshine. She helps me grow, prosper, and reach great height.

It may be possible to gild pure goal, but who can make his mother
more beautiful?

There is no role in life that is more essential
than that of motherhood.

Mom is the most valuable person we love.

Home is where your mom is.

A mother understands what the child does not say.

Moms make life
beautiful.

Sometimes the strength of motherhood is greater than the natural laws.

Mothers hold her children’s hands for a short while, but their hearts forever.

A mother is she who can take the place of all others but whose place no one else can take.

Life began with waking up and loving my mother’s face.

When a child is born
the mother also is born again.

Sooner or later we will all quote our mothers.

Every successful child is a product of an enthusiastic mother.

Joy is the hold fire that keeps our purpose warm
and our intelligence
aglow. - Helen Keller

The sky looks different when you have someone you love up there.

Work hard, be kind,
and amazing things will happen.

Bible Verse

Listen to your father,
who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.
Buy the truth and do not sell it—wisdom,
instruction and insight
as well.
The father of a righteous child has great joy; a man who fathers a wise son rejoices in him.
May your father and mother rejoice; may she who gave you birth be joyful!
— Proverbs 23:22-25

A Message from the Mayor...

I don't know about you, but I am really enjoying springtime in Hurricane! Maybe it is the nicer temperatures and the blooming flowers, maybe it's the spring sports that are in full swing or maybe it is simply that things are feeling much more normal than they have for the last two years. Whatever the reason, I'm thankful for the opportunity to live, work and play in such an awesome City! I hope you will agree with me that Hurricane is home to some of the best people on the planet, the best shops, the best restaurants, the best schools – I could go on and on!

Below are a few of the awesome events and activities happening now, happening soon and happening in a couple months. If you see me out and about at our events, at one of the parks or even just walking down Main Street, be sure you stop and tell me what YOUR favorite thing is about spring and summer in Hurricane.

HAPPENING NOW: New Pickleball Courts

Have you ever tried the game of pickleball? It was officially announced as the fastest-growing sport in America for the second year in a row, according to The Sports & Fitness Industry Association (SFIA) 2022 Sports, Fitness, and Leisure Activities Topline Participation Report that was released in February. It combines elements of tennis, badminton and ping pong into one fun game that definitely gets you moving! Because we never want our community to be left out of any fun, the City of Hurricane staff has worked hard over the last few months installing brand new courts for this very popular game at Hurricane Bridge Park! The great thing about pickleball is that it keeps people active no matter their age. We love to see folks enjoying our parks, and we love having the opportunity to give them things that they enjoy doing right here at home. The courts are simply available on a first-come, first-served basis and they are very popular! If you're out there playing and people are waiting, please be courteous and give them a chance when you finish a set. This is a great way to meet new people and make new friends. I've met many new people there already who have given me some great tips for how to play! Soon you will see benches, shade structures and lighting added to the area, so it will be much more comfortable. As with everything in our parks, we will continue to make enhancements as time and funds allow.

HAPPENING SOON: Main Street Spring Festival – May 7th

Our Main Street Spring Festival is coming up this Saturday! We have a carnival theme, and we have a ton of awesome things planned. You definitely don't want to miss this family-friendly event. In case you aren't familiar, or you've never attended our Main Street Spring Festival in the past, we will close the street from A-Z Storage down to the fire department for a safe, street fair atmosphere. There will be a strolling magician, face painting, balloon twisting and photo opportunities plus lots of old-fashioned carnival games to play, vendors to visit, free cotton candy, free popcorn and – best of all – free admission! This all takes place from 1:00 – 5:00 pm on Saturday, May 7th. Stop by for a few minutes or come at 1:00 and stay the whole time! There will be plenty to keep you busy. While you're downtown, it would be great if you also took the opportunity to shop and eat at our local businesses. Our business owners LOVE seeing new faces pop in! Also, in case you're curious about traveling that day, detours at the points of street closure will take you to Second Street or Dudding Avenue to get around the area.

HAPPENING IN A COUPLE MONTHS: Independence Day in Hurricane – July 4th

Speaking of awesome events, it won't be long until our annual Independence Day Celebration rolls around. It will be on Monday, July 4th. This is easily our largest - and most attended - event of the year! We kick things off with a parade at 2:00 pm which will run from Hurricane Bridge Park (just past Hurricane Middle School) down Main Street to First Baptist Church. After that it'll be time to head over to Hurricane City Park for 5 hours of FREE fun and live entertainment! We will even have a shuttle bus running back and forth all evening from Hurricane High School to the park if you don't want to worry about trying to find a parking spot. The event is from 3:00 – 8:00 and admission is FREE thanks to our awesome sponsors. Speaking of free, there will also be free inflatables, free sand art, free petting zoo, free balloon twisting, free ice cream, free sno cones, free cotton candy, free watermelon and hot dog giveaways. Live entertainment will include our annual Farley's Hot Dog Eating Contest (which will be bigger and better than ever before), Magician Mark Wood on stage at 5:00 and Nashville recording artist Eric Burgett from 6:00 – 8:00. Our City Park festivities wrap up at 8:00 - and then it'll be time to go find your perfect fireworks-watching spot. They will be let off once again from Water Tank Hill at 10:00. If your business would like to get involved in this or any of our events, please call City Hall at 304-562-5896 or email events@hurricanewv.com for more information.

Last but not least, I always want to say THANK YOU to our awesome City Council, City Staff, the Hurricane Police Department, Hurricane Fire & Rescue and all of you for the support and assistance in making Hurricane a great place to live, work and play. If you ever have questions or suggestions, feel free to call me on my cell at 304-419-0022 or email me at sedwards@hurricanewv.com.

THANK YOU!

A red ink signature of Scott Edwards.

Scott Edwards, Mayor

One day, a young boy will become a man with adventure and ambition on his mind; right now, letting him go is unthinkable. As a mom, you are making a difference each day. You are teaching your young child to be courageous, yet cautious...to smile and have dreams for the future. You encourage him with faith and support...you strengthen him with your presence. Have you taught your child about his Heavenly Father? One day you and your young one will be apart, but if he knows God, he will never be alone. Make a difference in a spiritual way...worship as a family. It will give your child the courage he will need to make a difference in the world. One day he will say, “Thanks, Mom!”

Our Heavenly Dwelling

II Corinthians 5:1-10

In the ten verses before us, Paul uses the pronoun “we” 13 times, “us” twice and “our” twice. These plural pronouns, while referring to Paul and the Corinthians, are applicable to all who believe.

In the opening verse Paul speaks of two houses — an earthly house and a house in heaven. The earthly house is the tabernacle (tent) in which a believer dwells. It is our physical body. It is a transient structure. The house in heaven is our future dwelling place. Paul states that the house in heaven is of God’s construction. It is not transient. It is forever. The heavenly home is ready for habitation but cannot be occupied until the earthly home is vacated.

We groan (v. 2). We make deep and inarticulate sounds in response to pain and despair which we experience in our physical bodies. We desire to be clothed upon with a garment which shall never experience pain or sorrow. Paul describes that garment as our house which is from heaven.

“If so that being clothed . . .” (v. 3). The picture which Paul has placed before us is that of changing one’s clothes. The clothes in which we now reside is our earthly body. The clothes in which we desire to reside is our heavenly home. To be dressed in our heavenly home, we must remove our earthly clothing. When we remove our earthly clothing (submit to death), we are exposed. Some believers shall be more exposed than others.

In Revelation 3:15-18, Jesus addressed the church at Laodicea. The church at Laodicea was the seventh and last church which Jesus addressed. Jesus saw the church at Laodicea as wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked. Jesus urged the Laodicean believers “to buy of me gold tried in fire” such that they might be rich and be clothed in white raiment such that “the shame of thy nakedness do not appear” (Rev. 3:18). The nakedness of those clothed in white raiment shall be hidden.

In verse 4, Paul makes it known that the groaning which he, the Corinthians and like-minded believers engage is not for fear of being found naked. We groan because we desire to be clothed with the house which God has built.

Why is Paul not fearful of being found naked? Read verse 5. God has given us the earnest of the Spirit. Jesus said, “In my Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you” (Jn. 14:2) and “It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you” (Jn. 16:7). The Comforter, the Holy Spirit, abides in all who hear and believe that which Jesus said. The presence of the Holy Spirit is proof that God is faithful to His every promise. The Comforter is cause for our confidence. We are confident because we know that the Comforter speaks to us and we see Him revealed in fellow believers.

“Therefore” (v. 6). Because the Holy Spirit dwells in us, we are confident that we shall see Christ face-to-face when we depart this body. We are confident of every promise because we live, not by sight, but, by faith. Living by faith means believing God and acting upon that which He reveals. Living by faith means acting upon that which the Comforter teaches and brings into remembrance (Jn. 14:26). It means loving one another as Jesus loves us. It means letting Him be seen in us.

In verse 8, the Apostle reiterates his and our confidence that being absent from the body (our earthly tabernacle) means to be present with the Lord. That confidence is manifested by our labors. In Paul’s day, prior to Paul’s day and in the present day, men who labor in the employment of others do so with confidence that their labor shall be rewarded on payday. Laborers do not receive payment in advance. It is with a similar confidence that we labor to please Him who made us free of the law which we could not keep.

In verse 10, Paul states that all believers must appear before the judgment seat of Christ. Every believer shall be exposed but not all shall be naked. Believers who have bought gold tried in fire shall be attired in white raiment such that their nakedness shall not be seen. Jesus does not want to look upon naked believers. He desires to look upon them who are clothed in white raiment and are rich because they have purchased gold tried by fire.

There is one source, and one source only, of gold tried by fire — Christ Jesus. All believers shall appear before the judgment seat of Christ. Some shall be clad in gold, silver and precious stones. Others shall be adorned in wood, hay and stubble. All coverings shall be tested by fire. In I Corinthians 3:15, Paul makes it known that the coverings of wood, hay and stubble shall be consumed by flame but that believers themselves will be saved as by fire. Though saved, these believers are without works and are naked.

The plural pronouns which Paul employs are inclusive but not totally inclusive. We, in verse 9, applies only to them who labor to be accepted of Him. Those who labor not shall be as the church at Laodicea.

Let us labor for the night shall come when no man can work.

years until her husband passed in 2007. They raised two daughters together, Debra and Nicole. She proudly served over 35 years working for the State of West Virginia, as an Administrative Assistant-predominantly for the Office of Chief Medical Examiner's Office. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, caretaker (to both her mother and mother-in law), and a loving dog mom to many sweet and cherished dogs over the years. After the passing of her mother and husband, she found great joy in adopting and caring for many dogs and enjoyed absolutely every minute of it. She enjoyed reading romance novels and had accumulated quite the inventory of books and kept very meticulous records of each one. She also loved passing time watching old western movies and tv shows and listening to music. Her favorite types of music were golden oldies, classical country, and Elvis. She was blessed with an extremely kind and generous spirit and would do absolutely anything to help those that she loved.

Sharon was preceded in death by her father Delbert Hammack, mother Emma Ruth Hammack, sister Judith Rich, and husband Samuel.

She is survived by daughters Debra Ward (partner Craig Keefer) of Raleigh, NC, and Nicole Russell (Matt) of Charleston, WV, brother Larry Hammack (Beverly), loving cousin Rhonda Goolsby (John), Randi Bridges and Sean Dalton (Vicky) of Hendersonville, NC.

A memorial service, officiated by Pastor Mike Harper, will be held on Saturday, May 14, 2022, at Tyler Mountain Funeral Home in Cross Lanes at 3 pm. Friends and family may gather at 2:00 pm for a time of visitation.
