Putnam Primary Election Results

By Ron Allen

Only 8,678 of Putnam's 38,350 voters turned out for the May 10th Primary. The low turnout was no surprise.

There were only three races of countywide interest — Republican for County Commission, Republican for Circuit Clerk, and three spots on the Board of Education.

In the Board of Education election, first time candidate Brad Hodges collected the most votes and will serve 4 years. He will be joined by incumbents Rob Cunningham and Wade Neal who beat out Melissa Oxley who finished 4th, 482 votes behind Neal.

The Republican contest for County Commission gathered more votes than any other single candidate contest. Former Sheriff Steve Dewese defeated incumbent Ron Foster by 599 votes.

Stephanie Smith coasted to victory in the race for Circuit Clerk with 639 more votes than second place finisher Donald Underwood. Smith is assured of victory in November because no

Samuel Warner (center) was first out of the gate and finished first in the second annual Cpl. William B. Fulks Memorial 5K Race at Meeks Mountain Trails.

More than 50 participants, ranging in age from 10 to 62, ran/walked in the Cpl. William B. Fulks Memorial 5K/10K Run, Walk & Ruck Race held Saturday, May 14, on the Meeks Mountain Trails at Hurricane City Park.

This trail event is an annual tribute to Cpl. William B. Fulks who was wounded while conducting combat operations in Anbar Province, Iraq, on May 1, 2006. Cpl. Fulks suffered second and third degree burns in addition to internal injuries when an IED (improvised explosive device) detonated beneath his Humvee near Fallujah. He succumbed to his wounds on Thursday, May 18, 2006 – just three days after his 23rd birthday. Cpl. Fulks was a member of the 2nd Reconnaissance Battalion, 2nd Marine Division, II Marine Expeditionary Force, Camp Lejeune, N.C. He grew up in Milton and attended Cabell Midland High School and Marshall University.

The proceeds from the race help fund a scholarship in honor of Cpl. Fulks. Proceeds also

Correcting a 65 Year Old Misprint

By Ron Allen

Last week's issue featured a reprint of a 1957 article which listed Novell Grant of Winfield as one of the first toll collectors at the Winfield bridge. The Breeze was informed Friday that Grant's first name was Lovell, not Novell. The November 29, 1957 Breeze had the name wrong and we repeated the error in the reprint.

Many errors appeared in print in the 1950's because the typesetting machine (the linotype) did not do what the operator told it to do. Each line of newspaper type in 1957 was produced from molten lead. Words and lines of words were formed using separate molds for each letter. When a typesetter struck a key, the molding for that letter would drop into its proper place. It is likely that the linotype dropped an "N" when an "L" was commanded because the "N" was not where it was supposed to be. The linotype was designed to sort used moldings according to width. No two letter moldings were of identical width. There was, however, little difference in the width of "N" moldings and "L" moldings. The frequency of sorting errors tended to increase as moldings wore from use.

I am guessing that the 1957 typo resulted from a worn "N" molding.

Lunar Eclipse Captured over Teays Valley

Crystal Rooper of Teays Valley sent in these photos of the total lunar eclipse which occurred on the night of Sunday, May 15, through the early AM on Monday, May 16. The eclipse, which is caused by the Earth's shadow blocking sunlight from reaching the moon, lasted approximately 85 minutes, making it the longest one in thirty-three years.

Farmers Market Opens for Season

The Putnam Farmers Market opened for the season at Valley Park on Saturday, May 14th. Only locally produced vegetables, meats, and crafts can be marketed. The market will be open every Saturday morning until October.

Macholah Ballet Perform Sew & Reap

By Betsy Allen

Months of practice finally came to fruition for the hardworking dancers of the Macholah Ballet this past weekend. The performance of Sow & Reap, the title of this year's annual recital, was held Saturday, May 14, at Cabell Midland High School in Ona. The recital featured a harvest theme, with many of the dances being inspired by gardening and farming.

The production began with "Come Home: The Prodigal," an original ballet inspired by the parable of the Prodigal Son. In this variation, which was set in the mid-20th Century, a young girl from the country leaves her home for the excitement of the big city, but later returns home when her glamorous life begins to unravel.

The second part of the recital featured individual dances performed by children, teenagers, and adults. Some of the dances included Scarecrows and Crows, Sunflower Fields, Green Acres, and Grandma's Garden.

The Centennial History of Hurricane

Meet Some of Hurricane's Oldest Families

In 1988, The Centennial History of Hurricane, WV was published to commemorate the town's 100th anniversary. Since the Centennial History is now out of print, the Breeze is reprinting articles from the book as space allows. This week's selection will be the 424th installment of the Centennial History.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

My daughter and youngest granddaughter flew in on Monday, May 2nd, for a week. They usually stay only 5 or so nights, but this time a week. YES... Daughter comes every 5-8 weeks and grand girl less frequently... son-in-law has come and one other grand girl... the eldest granddaughter is working in NYC for a publisher, living her dream...

It was a wonderful, fabulous, fantastic week. I usually don't do any cooking of big meals... however, I fixed one, so they could have some leftovers... nothing like I used to cook... but a few of their favorites...(I cook for myself every day, but just veggie meals...) We also got them their favorite Chick-Fil-A salads a couple of times... and we had other food goodies... they went to Disney one night and one long day... not a long drive... brought home fabulous desserts...

Mother's Day was perfect... My son and his wife host our family meal every week during the winter and often in the summer... they prepare the food... light food... nothing heavy... and a special vegan dessert from the vegan bakery... better than any cake I have ever had... Nana is not permitted to do anything... just be there at the table... so different from other meals I have experienced...

After our meal and gifts and fellowship, we played pool on the beautiful pool table my son bought a few months ago. We did not get in their salt water pool as most of us were suffering from allergies... we also played board games and laughed and laughed.

When the Burkes and Taylors get together, we have fun... no work for Mom/Nana and just fellowship and laughter... no drama... just thankful we can be together... it was the perfect Mother's Day... perfect...

I remember having those days in Hurricane with Mother and Grandma Burke... family together eating and laughing... telling stories... we did the same here... The Grandmas would love seeing these kids... I have Nathan who is 51 and Kathy will be 50 in July. Katelyn is 22 (23 in July) and Sophie is 21. Margaret is 17 (May of this year)... Aidan was 10 in April and Nicholas 7 last December... lots of age difference there... but it works.

Although the boys enjoy getting Nana and Aunt Kathy on the tennis courts, we are still trying to get on the pickle ball courts... we throw balls... kick

HHS Class of 1972 Looking For Classmates

The Hurricane High School class of 1972 will be celebrating their 50th year reunion and are in the planning phase. If you graduated in 1972, please email your contact information to grammy06.jg@gmail.com or poleugenia@aol.com or gyoung@gandbuilders.com them... play badminton... just fun... our family is active... always doing something... the boys are running, winning races... 20 miles on bicycles... swimming... Tae Kwan Do almost nightly... the girls go to the gym, bike, walk...

The perfect Mother's Day... we were trying to discern the last time both kids were with me on this day... we believe it was 2007 when I graduated from Marshall U. with my Master's... Nathan was living in Miami and was traveling the next year... I remember he treated me to some special activities in London that year for Mother's Day... my second trip with the other Shakespeare teachers... government grants... He moved to California in 2009... married 2010... then a little boy... then Seattle... then another little boy... Back to Florida—this time the Gulf Coast... As I was teaching, Kathy and I didn't get together every year but from 2007—this year, one or both of them were with me most of the time...

It has never bothered me if I can't see my kids on holidays. Kathy learned from me... she has already told her girls they do not feel they have to return home every time... they have their own lives... and it is expensive to travel... I am glad she is like her mom in that way.

We had the perfect Mother's Day week... we read books... buddy reads... shopped for Margaret's birthday and prom (she is going with her friends who go to public school)... we went to the ocean... we walked... did pedicures... so many things to do... we never have time for all of them... two of our favorites... the little shops in Dunedin and in Tarpon Springs... no time this trip... played games with the boys here at the condo...

I am thankful I have been blessed by God with two mature, generous, faithful and kind children... they take care of me like no one else has done since their dad... they are good and patient with me... they are loving... never a harsh word... they make my world complete... I am thankful we went through all we did to get our kids... I am thankful I have been blessed by God with five grandchildren... also sweet and good and kind to Nana... patient... caring... I am a loved Nana and Mom, and I know that the years I have invested in my family have paid off a million times over... I don't have material possessions, don't own a home, my car is old... little of my own furniture... but I have the best blessings ever.

I must add here that I have the best daughter in law anyone could have. She treats me with kindness and is so good to me... I also have the best son in law... he does the same... all nine of them spoil me... I never want for anything... I am always cherished and love because the way we were is the way we are... Burkes and Taylors... loving good people...

Strawberry Walnut Hand Pies

Dough:

1/4 cup California walnuts
1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon cane sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
7 tablespoons cold unsalted butter, cubed
4-5 tablespoons ice cold water
1 egg, beaten

Strawberry Walnut Filling:

1 cup strawberries, tops removed, halved
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons cane sugar
1/3 cup finely chopped California walnuts

Frosting:

1/2 cup powdered sugar
2 tablespoons 2% milk
1/2 teaspoon beetroot powder
2 tablespoons finely chopped California walnuts

To make dough: In food processor, pulse walnuts until fine and evenly ground. Add flour, sugar and salt to ground walnuts; pulse to combine. Add cubed butter; pulse until butter is in small pieces. Add cold water 1 tablespoon at a time, pulsing while adding, until dough starts sticking together.

Transfer dough to clean surface; shape into two 4-inch discs. Wrap with plastic wrap and refrigerate 1 hour.

To make filling: In food processor, pulse strawberries and lemon juice until slightly chunky.

Transfer to saucepan and gradually whisk in cornstarch until dissolved. Stir in sugar.

Heat over low heat until sugar dissolves, about 3 minutes. Turn heat off and stir in chopped walnuts. Transfer mixture to small bowl; refrigerate.

To assemble hand pies: Remove one dough disc from refrigerator. Lightly flour work surface and rolling pin. Roll out dough into large rectangle. Slice dough into six 4-by-2-inch rectangles. Place on parchment paper-lined baking sheet.

In bowl, mix water and egg. Brush perimeter of dough rectangles with egg wash. Place 1 tablespoon filling on center of dough.

Roll out second dough disc, creating six rectangles of dough. Place on top of jam and crimp edges with fork to seal. Freeze hand pies 20 minutes.

Preheat oven to 375 F.

Trim uneven edges of dough with sharp knife and brush tops and sides with egg wash.

Bake 20-24 minutes until golden brown around edges. Cool at room temperature 5 minutes on baking sheet then transfer to wire cooling rack until completely cooled.

To make frosting: In bowl, whisk sugar, milk and beetroot powder until thick but smooth. Drizzle frosting over hand pies and top with chopped walnuts. Cool 15 minutes, or until frosting is set.

The one who loves you will never leave you because even if there are 100 reasons to give up, he/she will find one reason to hold on.

You are loved when you are born. You will be loved when you die. In between you have to manage.

If you want to walk fast, walk alone. But if you want to walk far, walk together.

There is a lot of difference between human being and being human. A few understand that.

Art is not what you see but what you make others see.

Never give up on something you believe in.

Your story is the greatest legacy you can leave.

You're never really fully dressed until you have a smile.

God is incapable of being tempted by evil and is never the source of temptation.

The unselfish effort to bring cheer to others will be the beginning of a happier life for ourselves.

We can remove flags and statues all day, but until we figure out how to remove the hate in peoples hearts, nothing will change.

Make sure you test positive for faith. Keep distance from doubt, and isolate from fear. Trust God through it all.

When David faced Goliath he didn't think his stone was too small. He believed Goliath was too big to miss. Sometimes it's how you look at things that matter.

Instead of buying your children all the things you never had, you should teach them all the things you were never taught. Material wears out but knowledge stays.

Most of your stress comes from the way you respond, not the way life is. Adjust your attitude, and all that extra stress is gone.

Let people do what they want to do, so you see what they would rather do. That will answer all you want to know about them.

Some days are hard so you just have to look a little harder than others.

Patience attracts happiness; it brings near that which is far.

Beauty is its own excuse for being. - Ralph Waldo Emerson

Not everything needs to be perfect to be enjoyed.

Beautiful sunsets need cloudy skies.

Each new day is a blessing. Let go of all worries and be grateful for all the positive in your life.

Be not afraid of going lightly; be afraid only of standing still.

You've got to stay strong to be strong in tough times.

If you want to, you can find 1,000 reasons to hate life and be angry at the world. Or, if you want to, you could find 1,000 reasons to love life and be happy.

Most of us have been told Angels have wings; some of us have learned they have paws.

Be thankful for today, because in one moment, your entire life could change.

All our life, we will be faced with a choice. We can choose love or hate. I choose love.

Wisdom opens its eyes both to the glory of earth and to the hollowness of earth.

Every child is born with two parents but what's sad is often times, only one of them make all the sacrifices.

Happiness is the new rich. Inner peace is the new success. Health is a new wealth. Kindness is the new cool.

Use your voice for kindness, your ears for compassion, your hands for charity, your mind for truth and your heart for love.

It's really hard to see the evil in someone when you're blinded by love.

A bit of patience, and a tad of persistence; eventually we figure it out.

Always do your best. What you plant now, you will harvest later.

The sky is not the limit. Your mind is. - Marilyn Monroe

My best friend is the one who brings out the best in me. - Henry Ford

Think positive thoughts. Say nice things. Do good for others. Everything comes back.

Don't count sheep. Count the little things that make you smile.

How deep is the mud? Depends on who you ask. We all go through the same stuff differently.

If I'm wrong about God, then I'm wasting my life. If you're wrong about God, then you wasted your eternity.

Make your day begin with a smile on your face, loving your heart, and happiness within your soul.

Always try to leave people better than you found them. Hug the heart. Kiss the broken. Befriend the lost. Love the lonely.

I feel like I should clean the house, so I'm going to lie down now until the feeling passes.

Today I ask for nothing more or nothing less, I just want to give thanks for everything I already have.

Someday we will look back on this moment and it will forever remind us to never take little things for granted.

The secret to living well and longer is eat half, walk double, laugh triple and love without measure.

Respect your body when it's asking for a break. Respect your mind when it's seeking rest. Honor yourself when you need a moment for yourself.

Forget the day's troubles and remember the day's blessings.

Be the reason someone feels welcomed, loved, heard, seen, and supported today.

Revenge builds a lonely, narrow house - space enough for one person.

Learn from yesterday. Live for today. Hope for tomorrow.

The God behind you is stronger than the enemy in front of you.

What happened in your past is not nearly as important as what is in your future.

It is in your moment of decision that your destiny is shaped.

Your biggest risk will be the one you don't take.

Stay in control of your anger. Don't let your anger control you.

The way to know life is to love many things. - Vincent van Gogh

Do you want to know who you are? Don't ask. Act! Action will delineate and define you. - Thomas Jefferson

Be positive and have a good outlook when talking with others.

A gentle word, a kind look, a good natured smile can work wonders and accomplish miracles.

Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society.

The thankful receivers bears a plentiful harvest.

Nothing profits more than self-esteem, grounded on what is just and right.

The greatest wealth is health.

Spiritual Weapons II Corinthians 10:1-12, 17-18

All scripture exists for God's purposes. It is through the written word that God reveals Himself to us. Paul reveals Christ to us through that which he says and does. God wants us to know Him, to understand Him, and to act upon the knowledge and understanding which He gives.

In the text before us, Paul acts upon the knowledge and understanding which God has given him. Paul presents a living example of how the Lord would have all believers act upon that which He freely gives.

Paul was about to make an urgent request of the church at Corinth. Paul prefaced his request with an announcement of the manner in which he would beseech them. He would do so by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. Christ came not to condemn the failures of men. He came such that men might know the love of the Father and have a new relationship with Him. Paul wants that which God wants.

In verse 2, Paul beseeches the Corinthians to make it unnecessary for him to do that which he intends to do. It was Paul's intention to be bold to certain ones within the church when he visited. Paul did not want to discipline those who erred. Paul wanted the church to address the error of them "which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh" (v. 2). Paul wanted what God wants. God wants His church to correct them who err and to do so with the meekness and gentleness of Christ.

In correcting them who walk in the flesh, the church is not battling the flesh. The battle is against imaginations (Satan's arguments) and high things (Satan's false claims) [see v. 5].

Correcting them who walk in the flesh requires proper weaponry. God supplies the weapons which destroy the strongholds of Satan. The weapons which God supplies have the capability of bringing our every thought into the obedience of Christ (v. 5). Proper use of God's weaponry was on display when Jesus was tempted by Satan in the wilderness. Jesus was tempted three times. Each and every time, Jesus countered with the word of God.

Paul possessed the weapons which God supplied. In verse 6, Paul states that he has God's weapons at the ready and that he shall use them when "your obedience is fulfilled." Paul possesses heavy artillery. He intends to use it to revenge all disobedience (resistance to the corrective actions of the church).

In verses 7 and 8, Paul directly addresses those in need of correction. He states the reason that he was given apostolic authority. It was not to destroy; it was to edify. Paul's detractors found his letters to be heavy hitting and powerful. They found Paul to be anything but. They did not recognize meekness and gentleness. They perceived him to be weak and ineffective. His body was weak in appearance and his speech contemptible. They did not know the real Paul and they did not know the God who uses the weak to defeat the strong and foolish things to confound the wise.

They looked upon the flesh and perceived weakness. Paul assures them that when he is come they will see that which is weighty and powerful. In verse 12, Paul tells them why they err. They commend themselves. They look upon each other and measure themselves by themselves. Paul uses a different measuring stick. Paul is not concerned with how his works appear to stack up in comparison with the works of others. Paul's concern is that he is doing that which God wants him to do.

When Paul comes to Corinth, he will do that which God wants. Paul will use the weapons of God to defeat them who lift up themselves as Satan lifted up himself to be as God.

In verse 17, Paul states: "But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord." Paul made this same statement in his first epistle (I Cor. 1:31). These words are not Paul's. They were first spoken through the lips of Jeremiah (see Jer. 9:24). Paul's response to them who glory in themselves is to use the weapons that God has given him. Paul quoted the word of God. Paul did as Jesus did when confronted by Satan (who sought to be as God).

Those who commend themselves, do as Satan. To glory in self is to be as Satan. Paul had cause to glory. Paul did that which God wanted done and did it in the manner in which God wanted it done. Paul followed the example of Christ who was ever obedient to the will of God the Father.

God wants all men to know and understand Him. God wants all to act upon the knowledge and understanding which He gives. Let us use the weapon of His word for His purposes. Let us use that which He has given in the manner that has shown to us. Let us do all as God desires. Let us do, and then, glory in that which God has done.

ERNEST M. TAYLOR JR.
 Ernest Morrell "Butch" Taylor Jr., 79, of Scott Depot, passed away on April 19, 2022.

He was born on September 29, 1942 to the late Ernest M. Taylor and Grace Andrews Taylor in Youngstown Ohio.

He graduated Conneaut High School in 1960. After serving honorably in the U.S. Air Force, he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Florida State University. He accepted a job with the U.S.D.A. in Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he also earned a Master of Science Degree from the University of Wyoming.

He spent 20 years in the Wyoming Air National Guard and retired after 30 years as a Soil Scientist. In 2007, he moved to WV to be closer to his nephew Mike and his family, as well as his "adopted" Wells family, whom he had much love and respect for. He did make it clear that he would miss his neighbors and family from Neal Ave., and his good friend Gerald Schuman, who he worked and played with for many years. He enjoyed fishing, camping and serving his community and church where he was generous with his time and money. He was also known to enjoy dining out and all who knew or met him would agree that he loved sharing a meal with friends and family. Even if he did flirt with the waitresses! His greatest joy came from spending time with his great nieces and nephew. The real reason he moved back east. Everyone he met all have a "Butch" story.

He was preceded in death by his brother Gilbert M. Taylor.

guard. Thorn has had an extended and distinguished career in the National Basketball Association.

He is survived by his brother Jeffrey S. Taylor of Conneaut, OH, his nephews, Mike (Stacy) Taylor of Winfield, Doug Taylor and Matt Taylor of Conneaut, OH, Nathan Taylor of Painesville, OH; nieces, Sarah Lucas and Kalli Taylor of Conneaut, OH.

Butch loved and appreciated his church family and especially Pastor Sonny Williams of Teays Valley Church of the Nazarene.

BARBARA JEAN TERRY

Department Of Education To Honor Golden Horseshoe Winners

The West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE) will recognize 221 eighth-grade students from middle schools across the state as 2022 Knights of the Golden Horseshoe on Tuesday, June 14, 2022, at the West Virginia Culture Center in Charleston. The event will be livestreamed on West Virginia Public Broadcasting stations. The WVDE will induct these students as a part of the 306th anniversary of the Golden Horseshoe legacy, recognizing them for their achievement in knowledge of West Virginia history. It remains the longest-running program of its kind in the country. Approximately 15,000 eighth-grade students have been recognized since its inception.

Putnam students include:

Kennedy Price, Hurricane Middle School
Trenton Clower, Hurricane Middle School
Kayla Taylor, Winfield Middle School

Aidan Carney, Winfield Middle School
Jaxon Adkins, Winfield Middle School

Aidan Honaker, Poca Middle School

"Our students have worked diligently for this moment to become Knights of the Golden Horseshoe," said State Superintendent of Schools W. Clayton Burch. "It is clear their passion for knowledge and resilience to achieve this accomplishment will make them incredible ambassadors for the Mountain State. I look forward to all of their future success."

The state has administered the test each year since 1931 with 87 students honored from 46 counties in its first year. The exam focuses on Mountain State topics including civics, government, geography, culture and numerous other categories. A minimum of two students from each county and one student from the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and the Blind are selected for the award. The other honorees are selected from the 55 counties based on each county's eighth-grade population.

The WVDE will host three separate ceremonies to honor the 2022 Golden Horseshoe recipients on Tuesday, June 14, at the West Virginia Culture Center.

To learn more about the Golden Horseshoe program, visit the WVDE website or contact Dustin Lambert at dllambert@k12.wv.us.
