Hurricane City Council Meeting Goes Overtime

By Ron Allen

The June Hurricane City Council meeting was brought to order by Colton Brown, an autistic 11-year-old, hammering the gavel for Mayor Scott Edwards. Colton was given the honor of opening the meeting because his grandma, Carrie Varney Huff, contacted Edwards earlier this spring and suggested that the City conduct a First Responder Meet & Greet for kids with autism. Edwards liked the idea and has a Meet & Greet scheduled at the Fire Station on Thursday, June 9. The Mayor said that the Meet & Greet will become an annual event that will be held during April (National Autism Awareness Month) in future years.

variance to operate a spa from her home. Wolfe's neighbors, testifying in support of the variance, stated that the deeds to their respective properties made no mention of a protective covenant which would preclude Council from granting the variance. There is, however, a protective covenant which would forbid a business to operate from a residence which applies to a different section of the Moss Creek Subdivision of which Fieldcrest Drive is a part, which section was developed at a later date than was Fieldcrest Drive. The matter is slated to be reconsidered at the July council meeting.

Council rejected the recommendation of the Hurricane Planning Commission to rezone the Montana Avenue property from R-1 to R-2. Multi-family structures are allowed in R-2 zones but not in R-1 zones. The Planning Commission recommended the rezoning after viewing proposed plans for the multi-family dwellings. A number of residents expressed concern that the rezoning would result in increased traffic and water runoff problems. Mayor Edwards stated that R-2 zoning is more restrictive in that on-street parking is not allowed. Edwards said that water runoff plans must be approved before any construction can begin. The Mayor also noted that any plan presented to the Planning Commission may be changed at a later date provided that it meets R-2 requirements. The Council voted, 4-1, to reject the Food Truck Friday has returned to the gazebo area on Main Street. This popular weekend event will last all summer and bring a variety of local food trucks to Hurricane.

To start off the 2022 season, the opening day featured both an afternoon edition and an evening edition with live music by Putnam County legends Sounds of Bluegrass. This band has been in existence for over forty years, and was originally was composed of Darrell Black and Ruth Ann Crist. As time passed, more members were added. The Sounds of Bluegrass is a family group, and many of the bandmembers are related. Friday's performance was the first time that the band has played without Ted Black, the lead singer and lead guitarist. He was unable to attend due to health reasons. Food Truck Friday is generally an afternoon only affair, but for special occasions, an evening event, featuring musical entertainment, is added. Bite Mi, Twisted Grille, and Rocky's World were

Hurricane High Captures 4th Class AAA Baseball State Championship

By Ron Allen

The Hurricane High baseball team has found a way to the Class AAA State Championship game in Charleston each of the last six years (2020 exempted because of Covid) only to return home without the State Title except in 2018 when the 'Skins defeated Wheeling Park, 11-5. In 2017 and 2019, St. Albans defeated Hurricane. In 2021, it was the Bridgeport Indians.

In the semi-finals on Friday, June 3, and came away with the win in an extra inning contest. Technically, the victory is classified as a walk-off because the game ended when Damien Witty's double allowed Bryan Brown to score.

Spectators viewing the game did not witness a walk-off. They saw Brown galloping at full speed as he and the ball both arrived at home plate. The Bridgeport catcher applied the tag but the ball squirted away. Game over! The victory made way for the Redskins to move on to the title game against the George Washington Patriots who had defeated Jefferson earlier in the day. On Saturday, the 'Skins coasted after scoring 8 runs in the third inning to take a 9-0 lead. Hurricane increased the margin to 11-0 in the fourth.

Hurricane pitcher Ethan Spolarich did not yield a hit until the top of the fifth when GW singled. The game ended mercifully for the Patriots

Submitted by Charles D. Wise

Fred E. Wise, a Hurricane man, was born on Cow Creek on the last day of 1895. The clock was striking midnight at the time of his birth. The physician in attendance, Dr. Ira Hicks of Hurricane, took note of the time and said the new-born son, the twelfth child in the family, could celebrate his birthday either on the last day of the year or the first day of the next year.

The father of Fred Wise, as he was named at birth, was Samuel David Wise, Continued to Page 3

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

My ten year old grandson, Aidan, was interviewing me the other day... it was for his Spanish class... he and his seven and half year old brother, Nicholas, have Spanish after school two days a week. He asked me questions and one: "What is your favorite food, Nana?" He hurriedly answered, "Nana, it is pizza..." (They have allergies and don't eat pizza...)

I have ordered pizza two times since I moved to Florida in 2021, March... Once from a restaurant up the street... pretty good... the other... Dominoe's Thin and Crispy... My granddaughter (youngest) and I found a Dominoes a few weeks ago... Yummm... delicious... I do make my own homemade pizzas and Chef Boy... yes... that kind...

Anyway, when Aidan asked me this question, I thought of the foods I miss... I don't eat out here... have not been in restaurants since Covid... when my daughter and her daughter come... or any of the others in the family... we order and eat outside... sometimes, the family here gets food also... we do have a couple of oceanside places we love... eating out with the sand and breeze... there is a restaurant at Clearwater... about ten minutes away that has the best fries, onion rings, and veggie burgers... there is one on the causeway about five minutes from me... Frenchy's... veggie burgers... my family likes their real food there... and we are at the ocean... outside in the breeze...

I miss the Gino's pizza of the 60's and 70's... the first thing we wanted when we visited from Ohio was that pizza... we got it... loved it. I miss Chicago pizza from Indianapolis... thin and crispy... delicious... the Taylors brought me one every other week when they dropped off my groceries during the pandemic...

I miss the veggie dog with veggie chili from Huskey's Dairy Bar in Cross Lanes... no one else makes those... Oh, I try... I air fry the veggie dog... I add sauerkraut (made by my daughter-in-law) or slaw... mustard... and sometimes veggie chili... just not the same. I miss the fries from Farley's with their Root beer in the mug, frosty and cold... sitting in the car eating...

I miss the veggie burgers from Jagger's in Indianapolis... the best I have ever had (except those in Carmel, Ca...) I make homemade veggie burgers that are close but not perfect... Jagger's loaded them... made them themselves... homemade... when I return to visit...

I miss the grilled cheese and fries from Culver's... when I visited Taylors in Indy... first place to eat was Culver's... after I moved there, I continued to get those items, but sometimes the grilled cheese was not done... not tasty. I emailed the owner of Culvers about bringing a veggie burger... eventually, he did... it was fine, and I liked it but nothing like Jagger's. There is a Culvers near me, but I have not gone yet.

Taco Bell little pizza without meat... Margaret and I used to eat those with those yummy lime drinks they have... in Indy... well... the pizza is back soon... there is a Taco Bell near me... drive through here I come...

I miss the spaghetti of the past at Olive Garden... the one in Huntington and the one Margaret and I loved in Indy... there is an Olive Garden here, and Margaret and I plan to order the next time she comes... I make pretty good spaghetti myself... my family prefers mine...

Linda and I ate at Wendy's when we shopped... fries and a cheeseburger with no meat... do not laugh... was tasty... the Wendy's here is not the best ever... but is close. (Everything is close to me...) I miss sitting with her and sharing that meal...

Broccoli bites at Bennigan's at Town Center Mall... I could eat the whole order by myself. That dip was wonderful... not sure if Bennigan's is still around. They also had the best Reubens ever... I make those myself with veggie meat... love... I have purchased broccoli bites at the grocery... just can't compare...

Spaghetti at The Sterling in Charleston... long time ago... that brings to mind A and W bologna sandwiches... I was not always a vegetarian... Burger Boy in St. Albans with cheap burgers and milkshakes... long ago...

Myrtle Beach on Saturday nights... Johnny Rocket and Hard Rock Café... weekly driving over and enjoying fries and nachos... no meat... the music and the ambiance...

fun... California Pizza at Myrtle has the best selection... a wait for the food but worth it...

Yes, I like food... I miss the places we used to go... here we have our favorites... a tiny Mexican place for takeout... from scratch... a Mexican restaurant that is delicious... we eat outside... the girls eat Chick Filet salads... when we go down the coast, we stop at different places at St. John's Pass or other beach areas... we like Cuban food...

Just a few places I like to eat... try some of them... when Aidan asked me about my favorite food, notice it was not a dessert... although I miss Mother's red velvet cake... I prefer a good pizza to anything else... the family here eats really healthy... my daughter-in-law cooks really healthy foods for them... they have never had fast food... they wouldn't know how to act... the one restaurant food they can tolerate, occasionally, is Tudor's biscuit... when they go to WV for the month of July to camp and stay at lodges, I know they will have Tudor's at least once... that is about the only time they eat regular/ plain bread... Tudor's is special... I liked their scrambled eggs, toast, and home fries...

Eggs... I am a vegetarian... I am almost a vegan... the exception is the cheese on take out pizza. I buy veggie pizza and veggie margarine... I don't eat eggs anymore but used to love them... something made me quit... we will see. I have been a vegetarian since 1992, but I don't see being a vegan forever... just a vegetarian...

I miss my favorite restaurants in WV and Indy, but I will find some favorites here... I hope my readers try some of these places if you have not already... the drive to Cross Lanes is well worth it...

Enjoy WV food... enjoy going out to eat... Appleby's... Bob Evans... Pizza Hut... we love our favorites because the way we were is the way we are... socializing, fellowship, good food... great friends... and don't forget Outback... the best salad ever, ever... and those baked potatoes... well... better get off here and go walk... so I can eat...

the house builder of early Hurricane. His mother was Henrietta A. Ellis Wise, a descendant of one of the Putnam County's first residents. Fred, later as a young boy, adopted the middle name Eugene.

Fred Wise, through most of his formative years, was without a mother, Henrietta having died in 1904 from cancer while the family lived at Diamond in Kanawha County. He had a few years schooling in Putnam County Schools, but went to work with his father at about thirteen years of age, as a carpenter and cabinet maker. David Wise and Fred Wise built many houses in and around Hurricane, as well as many other types of structures. At one time in 1917, Fred Wise owned three houses in Hurricane, two of which were on Putnam Avenue.

Fred Wise built houses, barns, store buildings, churches, banks, and school buildings. He built these and other types of buildings from Hurricane to Logan and from Huntington to Montgomery. For a time his family lived in South Charleston, where he was employed on construction at the Union Carbide Plant, and later, at the Naval Ordnance Plant. At the time of the Great Depression, he maintained his own construction company which went under as did many other small and large companies.

In 1916, Fred Wise met Maggie Morris Harshbarger while he and his father were building a house just below Milton, West Virginia, and they married in November of that year. They moved immediately to Hurricane where they began their married life together in one of Fred's houses on Putnam Avenue. The small cottage is still standing today (1987). At this place their first child Lloyd Hale Wise was born in 1917. During the Depression, Fred sold insurance to support his family, but in later life went back to his trade-carpentry and cabinet-making for the Appalachian Electric Company. Other communities in which the Fred Wise family lived include: St. Albans, Brushton, Montgomery, Milton, East Bank, Marmet and Kenova. His four children all graduated from East Bank High School.

The four children of Maggie and Fred Wise are: Lloyd H. Wise, presently at Milton, West Virginia; Frances Lorraine Wise Paxton, presently of Hudson, Florida; Fred Eugene Wise, Jr., presently of Charlotte, North Carolina; and Charles Davidson Wise, presently of Muncie, Indiana. Lloyd holds two degrees from West Virginia University and for many years was employed by Pratt and Whitney Company of Hartford, Connecticut. Frances married a chemist of the Pure Oil Company of Cabin Creek and later of Beaumont, Texas, and still later of the 76 Petroleum Company. Fred holds a degree from Marshall University and M.D. degrees from Medical College of Virginia, and a specialty in Radiology from Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. Fred, Jr., now practices at the Nalle Clinic in Charlotte, North Carolina. Charles Davidson Wise holds two degrees from West Virginia University and a Ph.D. degree from the University of New Mexico. He is a professor at Ball State University, in Muncie, Indiana. Also, he has served six years in the Indiana legislature as a State Representative and State Senator.

After retirement from the Appalachia Power Company, Fred Eugene Wise, with his wife Maggie, moved back to Milton, where he lived until his death on January 7, 1984. He died at Presbyterian Manor in Huntington after failure to recover from a broken hip, surgery, and the accompanying trauma.

The Parts of Speech

Submitted by Myra Simmons

Every name is called a NOUN,
As field and fountain, street and town;

In place of noun the PRONOUN stands
As he and she can clap their hands;

The ADJECTIVE describes a thing,
As magic wand and shiny ring;

The VERB means action, something done,
To read, to write, to jump, to run;

How things are done, the ADVERBS tell,
As quickly, slowly, badly, well;

The PREPOSITION shows relation,
As in the street, or at the station;

CONJUNCTIONS join, in many ways,
Sentences, words, or phrase and phrase;

The INTERJECTION cries out, 'Hark!
I need an exclamation mark!'

The Wisteria

By Brenda McClanahan of Poca

The wisteria climbed the black walnut tree and dangled its blossoms for all to see.

With spirals of blooms cascading down, suspended high above the ground.

Over each limb they twine and drape, like lavender purple bunches of grapes.

Filet Mignon with Blue Cheese Chive Butter

Recipe courtesy of Omaha Steaks Executive Chef David Rose
Servings: 2

Blue Cheese Chive Butter:
4 ounces unsalted butter, cubed
4 ounces blue cheese
1 tablespoon fresh chives, minced
1/4 teaspoon kosher salt
1/4 teaspoon black pepper

Filet Mignon:
2 Omaha Steaks Private Reserve Filet Mignons
Omaha Steaks Private Reserve Rub

To make blue cheese chive butter: In medium bowl, use rubber spatula to fold and incorporate butter, blue cheese, chives, salt and pepper.

Section 18 inches of plastic wrap and place blue cheese chive butter about 6 inches above bottom. Take bottom portion of plastic wrap and place over blue cheese chive butter then shape butter into 1 1/2-inch cylinder.

Continue to roll butter in plastic; pinch ends of plastic wrap while rolling to tighten cylinder.

Once size and tightness are achieved, tie off loose ends of plastic wrap and chill in refrigerator 1-2 hours, until blue cheese chive butter is chilled and firm.

To make filet mignon: Bring filet mignons to room temperature, about 20 minutes; pat dry and season on both sides with rub, to taste.

Prepare grill for 500 F direct heat.

For medium-rare, place steaks on grill 3-4 minutes. Flip and cook 2-3 minutes, or until 130-140 F internal temperature is reached.

Rest 7-8 minutes before serving.

Slice chilled blue cheese chive butter into 1/2-inch pieces and place on top of filets.

NOWADAYS DADS

Istockphoto

This Fathers' Day, consider some of the qualities of a new father. New fathers not only have a new addition to their family; they share a more hands-on role in parenting than the dads of a previous generation. Gone are the days of dad pacing the floor in the waiting room; he is right there in the delivery room. Sleep deprived dads share in the day-to-day duties of new parenting - getting up in the middle of the night, changing diapers, feeding baby. A new dad is an important part of the team. As you worship with your family this Father's Day, remember your own special dad, and thank your Father in Heaven for him!

Isaiah's Commission

Isaiah 6:1-8

The prophet Isaiah was chosen by God to deliver messages of the judgment to come upon Judah and upon the nations surrounding Judah. Isaiah was also given a wealth of revelation concerning the coming Messiah which he relayed to all who had the ears to hear. In the text before us, Isaiah reveals the details of his calling.

Every prophet whose words are part of the holy canon were called by God but not every calling has been preserved as scripture. Isaiah's calling is scripture because it is an example by which New Testament believers may be empowered to become the agents of God's will.

Isaiah relates the moment and setting of his call to prophetic service. It was the last year of the reign of Uzziah, king of Judah. By way of vision, Isaiah saw the Lord sitting upon His throne. It was an overwhelming sight. The Lord sat high and His garments filled the temple. Above the throne was a special order of angels called Seraphim which called out "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts."

Our curiosities are often piqued by accounts of angelic beings as seraphim and cherubim to the extent that we look beyond the information which is placed before us. Each seraphim possessed three sets of wings. Two wings were used to cover the face, two to cover the feet, and two for flying. While it is possible to suggest reasons that two sets of wings were used for covering purposes, Isaiah was not shown seraphim with the intent that he should understand the anatomy of angels. Isaiah was shown a picture of God's holiness in preparation of his being called to deliver God's messages to Judah and to all men.

The seraphim are in the presence of God and continually declare His holiness and His glory. Isaiah may not have understood the details of what he was shown but one thing that he certainly understood was that he was in the presence of God Almighty and that he was unworthy to view the things that he beheld. Isaiah's reaction was: "Woe is me!" Isaiah confessed that he was a man of unclean lips and that he dwelled in the midst of a people of unclean lips. No man can look upon God and live. Isaiah fully expected to die.

The unexpected happened. One of the seraphim flew to Isaiah with a coal from the altar where burnt offerings were offered up to the Lord. The coal speaks of the sacrifice which was offered for sin. An innocent animal had been sacrificed for Isaiah's sin. The seraphim touched the coal to Isaiah's lips and announced that his sins were forgiven. The prophet deserved death but received mercy instead. It was by the grace of God that the animal sacrifice was counted sufficient to take away sin and satisfy the death penalty.

The picture presented to Isaiah and us is easy to understand. Isaiah's sin was great but the grace of God is greater. The seraphim's action demonstrated this truth to Isaiah and to us. God wants men to know that His grace is sufficient for all whom come to Him in repentance.

Isaiah stated: "I heard the voice of the Lord" (v. 8). In verse 4, Isaiah reported that the doorposts shook and the house was filled with smoke when the Lord spoke. What a difference! Before his sin was taken away, Isaiah knew that the Lord was speaking but he did not hear what was said. The house was filled with smoke. Isaiah could not see clearly or comprehend the words of the Lord until his sins were removed.

Isaiah heard the Lord ask: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" When the seraphim touched the coal to Isaiah's lips, his lips were purified. It was with purified lips that Isaiah responded, "Here am I; send me."

Today, men are called to the Lord's service in similar manner. The preliminaries are the same. One must recognize his unworthiness before God—even realize that one is deserving of death. One must then realize and accept that his death penalty has been served by Christ Jesus. One must partake of the coal from the altar of sacrifice. Then, and only then, can one listen with a pure heart and receive the plan that God has for him. One cannot hear until one is cleansed.

Isaiah was to "go" and to "tell". The Lord's instruction to us is the same—"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matt. 28:19). Isaiah did not purify himself. God did! Isaiah confessed his sin and let God do the rest. God empowered Isaiah to hear His voice. God empowers each and every believer with the Comforter, the indwelling Holy Spirit. New Testament believers are vessels the Spirit that speaks to and convicts the lost.

The live coal that touched Isaiah's lips was on the altar waiting to purify him before he confessed. God commended His love toward Isaiah (and us) in that Christ died for us while we were yet sinners (Rom. 5:8). Let us confess such that His Spirit might always lead, guide and direct.

Attorney General Morrissey Warns Consumers of Mystery Shopper Scams

West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrissey is warning consumers to be cautious when responding to offers to become secret or mystery shoppers.

Mystery shopping is actually a legitimate endeavor. A company will offer you the opportunity to shop at your favorite stores and get paid for it. However, scammers have learned to take advantage of people's desire to be part of such a venture.

"Mystery shopping can be a valid way to make some extra money," Attorney General Morrissey said. "But consumers need to have their wits about them or they can get ripped off."

Real secret shopper opportunities can be found through the mystery shopping trade group, Mystery Shopping Providers Association. Scammers, however, will set up fake websites, post newspaper ads, and use emails to convince consumers that the money is free and easy.

Typically, the fake mystery shopping company will send you a check to deposit and then ask you to "shop" for gift cards and send the company the cards or the PIN codes or ask the consumer to test a wire transfer service by sending the money to someone else. Then the check is identified as fake and the consumer is responsible for the money they spent. Or the fake mystery shopping company will want interested parties to pay a program fee to be certified or to be guaranteed an assignment. Legitimate companies won't require payment and won't pay upfront for shopping.

Anyone who believes they have been the victim of a secret shopper scam should contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection

The average residential customer using 1,000 kWh per month would experience a rate increase of $0.08 monthly or $0.96 yearly under the Companies' proposal.

These increased rates will result in the following average project-related increases for the total indicated class of customers to become effective October 1, 2022, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission:

	Monthly		Yearly
	($) Increase	(%) Increase	($) Increase	(%) Increase
Residential	$31,818	0.052%	$393,816	0.052%

Industrial	$11,845	0.028%	$142,134	0.028%
Resale	$0	0%	$0	0%
Other	$0	0%	$0	0%

The proposed increased rates and charges related to the Project will produce approximately $0.7 million annually in additional revenue, an increase of 0.030%, during the first rate year.

The increases shown are based on averages of all customers in the indicated class. Individual customers may receive increases that are greater or less than the average. Furthermore, the total requested rates and charges and resulting increases for the various classes of customers are only a proposal and are subject to change (increases or decreases) by the Public Service Commission in its review of the Companies' filing.

The Commission has set a procedural schedule, including a hearing on the Companies' application, if necessary, that will begin at 9:30 a.m. on August 3, 2022, in the Howard M. Cunningham Hearing Room at the Commission's offices at 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia. If no opposition to the Companies' application is received, the hearing may be waived and the Commission may issue a final order within 150 days of the application filing date.

Anyone desiring to intervene in the matter should file a written petition to intervene no later than June 27, 2022, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. All requests to intervene should briefly state the reason for the request and comply with the rules on intervention set forth in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Samantha Facemyre Wins Fruth Manager Of the Year Award

Local Fruth Pharmacy Store Manager, Samantha Facemyre, is the annual recipient of Fruth Pharmacy's Manager of the Year Award.

Fruth Pharmacy celebrates the accomplishments of employees each year, presenting awards to outstanding individuals who embody what it means to go beyond for our stores and communities.

Lynne Fruth, President of Fruth Pharmacy was in Scott Depot to award Facemyre with the Manager of the Year Award. Fruth says, "Sam is courteous, outgoing, and has helped tremendously with multiple projects at other locations. Sam has been with Fruth for 10 years and has a good team that supports and mimics her efforts. Sam is truly knowledgeable in the beer and wine categories of her store and helps drive the success of those categories. I am proud to present her with the Manager of the Year Award."

Scott Depot customers enjoy their interactions with Samantha. A customer said, "Sam is knowledgeable and has a great personality, she is very customer focused and you can tell her employees love working with her."

Not only did Ms. Facemyre win Manager of the Year, but her store had two other category finalists. Aaron Cramer was a finalist for the Rising Star Award and Janet Adkins was a finalist for the Associate of the Year Award.

Fruth Pharmacy presents The Rising Star award to an employee who has been with the company 1 - 3 years and shows immense potential. Cramer quickly proved himself as a friendly, helpful, and efficient employee. Cramer knows many of the customers in the area and is also helpful in the wine and beer categories. Cramer's friendly demeanor and knowledge about beer and wine makes him a favorite among customers.

Janet Adkins, store associate, was a finalist in the Associate of the Year category. Janet won the award in 2014.

Adkins works the pharmacy counter and the drive-thru window at the store. Adkins is always efficient and friendly. Lynn Fruth says, "Janet, at 75 years old, shows no signs of slowing down". Adkins customers say, "you can see the smile under her mask, she always makes sure that delivery customers are well taken care of." It is plain to see why Adkins was a finalist this year.

Fruth Pharmacy is a family-owned company. Currently, Fruth Pharmacy has 29 locations in West Virginia, Ohio, and Kentucky. Fruth Pharmacy will celebrate 70 years in business this November and is proud to be your Hometown Family Pharmacy.
