Putnam Vets Salute Woody Williams

Members of American Legion Post 187 Winfield, Marine Corps League Detachment 1474 Hurricane, VFW Post 9097 Hurricane along with fellow veterans and Putnam County citizens gathered on the overpass at the intersection of I-64 and U.S. Route 35 on Saturday morning, July 2nd, to honor and salute the Woody Williams procession as it made its way from Huntington to Charleston. Williams was awarded the Medal of Honor for his gallantry in taking out seven Japanese pillboxes with a flame thrower during the battle for Iwo Jima in World War II. American Legion Commander Jim McDade organized the event. The Winfield and Teays Valley Fire Departments teamed in displaying "Old Glory."

Putnam County Commission News

By Ron Allen

The Putnam County Commission meeting on June 30, 2022 featured a first-time happening — the swearing-in ceremony of five new Deputy Sheriffs. The new hires ups the number of Putnam deputy sheriffs to 42. David O'Conner, Noah Miller, Matthew Wood, Bradley Hodges, and Ryan Moses, all swore to support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of West Virginia, and to faithfully discharge the duties of Putnam County Deputy Sheriff. It was a particularly special occasion for the Moses family as Ryan represents the third generation of the family to serve as a Putnam Deputy Sheriff.

In other business, the Commission approved the annexation of 17.99 acres into the Town of Poca. Rock Branch Elementary School and the Sheetz adjacent to the Board of Education

Sights from Hurricane's 4th of July

Hurricane 4th of July parade watchers were treated to a scene from the past by Allen's Funeral Home. This hearse is much like the one which Noah Allen, the founder of Allen's Funeral Home, parked outside his store more than 100 years ago.

Today, the funeral home is operated by Noah's great-grandsons Greg and Wesley Allen.

Meet Some of Hurricane's Oldest Families

In 1988, The Centennial History of Hurricane, WV was published to commemorate the town's 100th anniversary. In 1994, the Centennial Committee published a follow up book which included family histories which were not submitted in time for the 1988 Centennial History. This week's selection is the 1st history from The Centennial History of Hurricane WV Continued — 1994.

Arbaugh has been a familiar family name in the Hurricane area since the early 1800's. Many of the early Arbaughs lived just 2 or 3 miles south of present day Hurricane and their graves are to be found in the old Charley's Creek Cemetery.

One of the descendants of those early settlers was Pearly Walker Arbaugh. He was born January 1, 1886, the son of Preston and Susan Mitchell Arbaugh. Actually, as he told the story, he was born

The Centennial History of Hurricane

Meet Some of Hurricane's Oldest Families

just before midnight on December 31, 1885, but the doctor in attendance said it was close enough to midnight that he could be called a New Year's baby, so the January 1, 1886 date was generally used by the family, although his birth certificate does indicate December 31, 1885.

When P.W. (as he was called by family and friends) was still under six years of age, he lost both of his parents. This left P.W. and his two brothers and two sisters to be raised by relatives. P.W. grew up in the home of an uncle, Floyd Mitchell, who was his mother's brother.

In September, 1909, P.W. was married to Anna Agnus Beckett who was born December 14, 1892, and was the daughter of John Charles "Charley" and Abigail Sowards Beckett. Charley Beckett was the son of Ahas and Mary Rayhill Beckett. Abigail Sowards had moved to the area from Scotttown, Ohio. P.W. and Agnus (better known as Aggie) lived for a time on Bee Branch/Sycamore Creek where most of their children were born. Son, Freddie, would later say that it was on this farm that he spent the happiest days of his life. (Most of us would say that about the first home we remember.)

Eventually, they purchased a larger farm on Sycamore and lived there the remainder of their lives. Their "cash" crop, as on most farms, was tobacco, and Aggie's butter and eggs were always in demand.

When the Laywell Church of Christ was organized in 1913, P.W. and Aggie were charter members. The church met for a time in an old school house but in 1924, decided to build a new building with most of the labor provided by the members. P.W. would later relate that any time it was too wet to farm or the work was caught up, they would go over and work on the church building.

P.W. and Aggie were the parents of five children:

1. Hobart Ernest, b. May 12, 1911, who married Hazel Chaney and they have lived in Hurricane for nearly 50 years. They had one son, Aubrey Glen.

2. Laymon, b. 1913, d. age 5 years.

3. Alberta Marie, b. November 2, 1915. Alberta m. Martin Honaker and lived in Huntington. They were the parents of a daughter, Romona, and a son, Gary.

4. Freddie Morrison, b. February 25, 1918. Freddie m. Doshia Helen Lawson and they were the parents of two daughters, Natella and Evelyn.

5. Vaneta Jewel, b. October 6, 1919. Vaneta m. Forest Smith (d. 1992) and they were the parents of two daughters, Charlotte (d. 1993) and Joy.

P.W. passed away November 25, 1983 and was preceded in death by Aggie March 14, 1968.

property are now part of the town. Poca Mayor William Jones stated that the annexation allows the Town's insurance to cover the police officer who serves as a PRO Officer at Rock Branch Elementary.

The Commission also approved a memorandum of understanding that will make all of the Town of Poca subject to the county's DAEA Ordinance. The DAEA Board will now act upon complaints filed concerning dilapidated and abandoned properties within Poca town limits. The County Commission has the authority to fine property owners who fail to correct a valid complaint. Mayor Jones said that he knows of four properties which are in need of correction.

Terry Martin of the Regional Intergovernmental Council informed the Commission that the maximum limit for Critical Infrastructure Need Grant has been increased from $1 million to $2 million. The increase will make it possible for RIC to apply for a grant on behalf of Deerfield Estates for water service. Martin stated that the cost per customer is high and may result in other grant applications given priority.

The Commission voted to table acting on awarding an engineering services contract for the Office of Planning and Infrastructure because of identical low bids. The Commission wants Planning Director David Coll to determine if the low bidders exchanged bid information.

The next County Commission meeting is Tuesday, July 12.

The following events happened on these dates in West Virginia history. To read more, go to e-WV: The West Virginia Encyclopedia at www.wvencyclopedia.org.

July 7, 1928: The Madonna of the Trail monument was dedicated in Wheeling. It is one of the 12 such statues erected along the National Road to honor America's pioneering women.

July 8, 1894: Walter Aegerter was born in Helvetia. An amateur photographer, Aegerter built both a studio and darkroom on his farm and photographed portraits, families, celebrations and everyday scenes of the German Swiss settlement. The glass plate negatives survive today in several archived collections.

July 8, 1924: Rock 'n' roll pioneer Johnnie Johnson was born in Fairmont. Johnson collaborated with Chuck Berry on songs such as "Roll Over, Beethoven." Berry's hit "Johnny B. Goode" was written as a tribute to Johnson.

July 9, 1942: An explosion at the Pursglove No. 2 Mine at Scotts Run near Morgantown killed 20 men. It was one of three fatal accidents at the mining operation in an eight-month period.

July 10, 1769: Physician Jesse Bennet was born. He performed the first successful caesarian section in America in 1794, on his own wife and without proper equipment and with no antiseptics. He later established a large practice in Mason County and served as an Army surgeon in the War of 1812.

July 10, 1936: The temperature in Martinsburg reached 112 degrees. It tied the record for hottest temperature on record, which had been set August 4, 1930, at Moorefield.

July 11, 1867: John Jacob Cornwell was born on a farm in Ritchie County. He served as the 15th governor of West Virginia.

July 11, 1976: Gov. Arch Moore dedicated the West Virginia Culture Center. The structure was built to showcase the Mountain State's artistic, cultural, and historic heritage.

July 12, 2003: The Clay Center for the Arts & Sciences in downtown Charleston opened to the public. More than 50,000 schoolchildren from 50 West Virginia counties and 21 counties in surrounding states visit the center each year.

July 13, 1861: The Battle of Corricks Ford took place in Tucker County. Confederate Gen. Robert S. Garnett was killed. He was the first Confederate general killed in the Civil War.

Something About the Lightning Bugs

By Velma Kitchens of Culloden

There's just something about the lightening bugs, or fireflies as some call them, that remind me of my childhood and summer. When school was out and there was no set sleep time, we would play outside in the dark for what seemed like hours. The lightning bugs would be all around us and we would catch them and let them go. Some nights we caught them and put them in the jar to see them light up and let them go come morning.

My kids used to play spotlight and they thought that was fun and it is.

Recently I have found myself waiting until dark and watching the lightening bugs and just standing in awe at the sight of so many of them all around. I don't think they go near the city. Just kidding, probably can't see them, but I'm sure they are there somewhere. I do like the lightening bugs but the other bugs just love me — especially the mosquitoes. If there is a bug that bites, I will be the one to get bitten, and don't even mention the chiggers. I love the summertime but not those pesky bugs.

Summertime is so wonderful, no coats, gloves, hats, mittens or boots and so on, but the change of seasons is what life is all about. We all go through them.

I have written before about the lightening bugs but I want to encourage you to just take some time to look for them and enjoy God's handiwork.

Take Summer Grilling to New Heights With a Versatile Veggie

(Family Features) The fresh flavor of favorite foods pulled hot off the grill makes summer cookouts a treasured pastime for families across the country. This year, you can make new memories at those backyard barbecues by keeping in mind that grilling isn't only about charred burgers and steaks — delicious, grilled vegetables can be just as enjoyable.

Nutritious and full of antioxidants, sweetpotatoes are a perfect option for summer recipes as they're easy to grill in a recipe like Sweetpotato Wedge & Purple Cabbage Salad with Poppyseed Dressing. Hearty yet light for a tasty side dish, this salad is effortlessly simple and combines crispy purple cabbage, juicy tomato, velvety feta and poppyseed dressing around sweetpotato wedges as the star of the show.

With nearly 70% of the nation's sweetpotatoes produced in North Carolina, the state is the largest producer in the country of the year-round veggie ideal for grilling on those hot summer days. As a versatile superfood, their rich nutritional value and ease of use in a variety of dishes make them an ideal ingredient in recipes ranging from breakfasts and salads to protein bowls, tacos and more.

In addition to cooking on a classic grill, sweetpotatoes can also be prepared using a griddle. Until Sept. 30, you can enter the North Carolina Sweetpotato Commission's Blazin' Blackstone Giveaway to win one of 14 prize packages including the grand prize: a 28-inch XL Culinary Pro with Rangtop Bundle. Join fellow "griddlers" by sharing a photo of your favorite sweetpotato recipe and encouraging friends, family and online followers to do the same.

Learn how to enter the giveaway and find more information at ncsweetpotatoes.com.

Sweetpotato Wedge & Purple Cabbage Salad with Poppyseed Dressing
Recipe courtesy of the North Carolina SweetPotato Commission
Servings: 4

- 2 North Carolina sweetpotatoes
- 1/2 head purple cabbage
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- salt, to taste
- pepper, to taste
- 6 tablespoons poppyseed dressing, divided
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 2 cups grape tomatoes, halved
- 3 tablespoons feta cheese, crumbled

Preheat grill to 400 F.

Scrub and wash sweetpotatoes. Cut each into six wedges. (If sweetpotatoes are long, consider cutting wedges in half.) Parboil sweetpotatoes 5 minutes, drain and cool 5 minutes.

Shred cabbage into thin slices.

Toss sweetpotatoes with olive oil and salt and pepper, to taste.

Place sweetpotato wedges on grill perpendicular to grates over direct heat; grill about 3 minutes on each side, or until tender-crisp with grill marks on each side. Remove from grill and set aside.

In zip-top bag or large bowl, toss cabbage with 4 tablespoons poppyseed dressing until coated. Add parsley and tomatoes; toss.

To serve, place sweetpotato wedges on bed of dressed cabbage and drizzle with remaining poppyseed dressing then sprinkle with cheese.

Serve warm or cold.

BASIC BIBLE

By Ron Allen

Micah Stands Firm for God

Micah 2:4-11

Micah prophesied more than 2,700 years ago to an audience which had little interest in hearing that which God would have them hear. The text before us reveals the hearts of them who were far from God in that day. Sadly, the hearts of many of today are as were the hearts of Israel in Micah's day.

"In that day shall one take up a parable against you" (v. 4). These words were given to Micah by God. What does it mean to take up a parable? A parable is a simple story that tells a whole lot.

The day in which this simple story would be taken up against Israel is revealed in verse 3. It is the day in which the Lord would bring judgment upon them who devise and practice iniquity (v. 1).

"We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people" (v. 4). This is the voice of them who devise and practice iniquity. It is the voice of them who have taken the land of the weak and downtrodden. The voice bemoans that the Lord has taken away the land which it had obtained by exploitation.

Micah uses the judgment to come to tell the simple story that the Lord wanted Israel (and all who would ever read scripture) to hear. The message is simple and clear: Those who cast aside the word of God shall be cast away. In verse 5, Micah prophesies that there shall be none who shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the Lord. What does it mean to cast a cord by lot? It means to be part of the congregation of the Lord. For Israel, it meant possession of the land which God promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

For New Testament believers, casting a cord by lot in the congregation of the Lord means being a child of God. It means abiding in Christ Jesus.

Micah prophesied the loss of the land to all Israel — there would be none who would cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the Lord. Micah also prophesied that the land would be restored to the remnant of Israel and their king would pass before them (v. 12).

"Prophecy ye not . . ." (v. 6). These are not the words of God. These are words spoken by them who do not hear the Lord and do not want to hear God. They are words which were directed against them who declared the coming judgment of God in Micah's day. Today, we hear words of similitude. We live in a time in which some shout down the truth that the Lord would have all men know. The same voice which said 'Prophecy not' in Micah's day says 'Don't tell me that there is only one way to heaven.'

Micah was the target of them who said 'Prophecy ye not' because he shamed them who had cast the commandments of God aside. Micah was charged with hate speech because he had said that which God told him to say. God hears the words of them who say: "Prophecy ye not." God hears and He wants all to know that He hears. God, likewise, looks upon New Testament believers and makes note of when we cast His commandments aside. God would have all men know Him and know their standing before Him.

In verse 7, Micah directs the house of Jacob to answer three rhetorical questions: Is the Spirit of the Lord straitened? Are these His doings? Does not the word of the Lord do good for them who walk uprightly? These questions require one to think upon the character of God and to answer in truth. The Spirit of God is not made narrow by them of hardened heart. The evil of men is not of God. God's word directs men in the way of righteousness.

God asked but Israel did not answer. The house of Jacob had already answered the Lord's questions through their actions. They were as an enemy that attacked the innocent passerby and as a heartless landlord who evicted helpless women (v. 8, 9). They did not believe that they should be required to answer to God. They had lifted themselves above God. Is not America of today and the world likewise pretending that the Spirit of God is straitened and men shall not be accountable for their actions? Have men not turned from the truth?

God looked upon the house of Jacob and issued His eviction order: "Arise ye, and depart" (v. 10). God's people, who were His people in name only, would depart less than thirty years later when Assyria would conquer Israel and remove the inhabitants from the land.

In verse 11, Micah was moved by the Holy Spirit to declare them who issued false words of assurance to be the prophets which Israel deserved. Israel most certainly received that which the people deserved.

All who turn from God's word shall get their just desserts. The Lord called Micah to warn Israel of the judgment to come because He takes no pleasure in judgment. The Lord is not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance (II Pet. 3:9). Nonetheless, the day of judgment shall come as a thief in the night (II Pet. 3:10). God's judgment cannot come upon believers as a thief in the night.

God's judgment upon believers was satisfied upon the cross at Calvary. Christ has borne the judgment which every believer deserves. May all men hear the word of God and come to repentance.

lives of the people she encountered. She was a very kind and caring person who would approach even a stranger if she was worried about their well-being. Cheyenne could brighten up any room with her cheerful sense of humor and contagious laugh. Her kindness, like her memory, will continue to live on in the lives of those she touched.

Cheyenne was a 2015 graduate of Winfield High School where she graduated with honors. She had a love for basketball and played for the Winfield Generals. She attended Marshall University with a full scholarship. Anything Cheyenne set her mind to, she achieved.

In addition to her parents, Cheyenne is survived by her brother Dylan Sawyers, sister Haylee Sawyers, paternal Grandparents Albert and Patricia Sawyers, maternal Grandparents Steve and Cathy Gill, Uncles Tyler Gill (Alli), Albert Sawyers Jr. (Tonya), Devin Sawyers (Max Webb), and Aunt Lisa Bennett (Greg). She is also survived by multiple cousins and countless friends, all of whom loved her wholeheartedly.

Funeral Service was Saturday, July 1, at Chapman Funeral Home with Bishop Walt Lovett and Pastor Roger Fox officiating. Burial was in Haven of Rest Memorial Gardens, Red House.

said James McDaniel Robinson died October 5, 2014, thereby vesting title in Karen Sue Robinson Brumbaugh. Subject to the rights of way, easements, reservations, restrictions, covenants, and conditions dated October 10, 1979, and of record in Deed Book 247, at page 488. The said party of the first part further GRANTS and CONVEYS unto the parties of the second part and to their successors in title, the right to use in common with other owners of lots situate in Rolling Acres Subdivision, all streets, roads, and drives, as are shown upon the herein previously referenced map. There is EXCEPTED and RESERVED a right of way and easement measuring ten (10) feet in width, which said easement and right of way parallels all of the boundary lines of the real estate herein conveyed.

Being the same property conveyed to Samantha J Atkinson by the Deed dated March 3, 2017 and recorded in Deed Book 557 at Page 58 in the Office of the Clerk of the County Commission of Putnam County, West Virginia.

TERMS OF SALE:

- 1) The property will be conveyed in an "AS IS" physical condition by Deed containing no warranty, express or implied, subject to the Internal Revenue Service right of redemption, all property taxes, prior Deeds, liens, reservations, encumbrances, restrictions, rights-of-ways, easements, covenants, conveyances and conditions of record in the Clerk's office or affecting the subject property.
- 2) The Purchaser shall be responsible for the payment of the transfer taxes imposed by the West Virginia Code § 11-22-1.
- 3) The Beneficiary and/or the Servicer of the Deed of Trust and Note reserve the right to submit a bid for the property at sale.
- 4) The Trustee reserves the right to continue sale of the subject property from time to time by written or oral proclamation, which continuance shall be in the sole discretion of the Trustee.
- 5) The Trustee shall be under no duty to cause any existing tenant or person occupying the property to vacate said property, and any personal property and/or belongings remaining at the property after the foreclosure sale will be deemed to constitute ABANDONED PROPERTY AND WILL BE DISPOSED OF ACCORDINGLY.
- 6) The total purchase price is payable to the Trustee within thirty (30) days of the date of sale, with ten (10%) of the total purchase price payable to the Trustee at sale.

EUGENE WORKMAN

Eugene Aldon Workman, 84, of Buffalo, passed away July 1, 2022, at home.

He was born January 5, 1938, to the late Oden and Nellie Workman of Buffalo.

Gene worked his entire life in the gas industry, retiring from Eastern American Energy, formerly known as Quinco Petroleum, Devon Energy and Commonwealth Gas. He loved being a farmer. Every year he looked forward to the Putnam County Fair and seeing his grandbabies show their animals. He loved his family and was very proud of all his grandbabies.

He is preceded in death by his sons David E. Workman and Ricky D. Workman both of Buffalo; son-in-law Tom Vaughan of Red House; brother Randall Workman of Buffalo and sister Gilda Badgley of Dunbar.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Mrs. Barbara F. Workman; daughter Patty (Skip Brewer) Vaughan of Red House; son Donnie Workman of Buffalo; grandbabies Jennifer Vaughan of Poca; Tommy Lee Vaughan of Red House and Josie Workman of Teays Valley and furbabies Nibbles and Junior.

A tribute to the life of Mr. Gene Workman was held Wednesday July 6, 2022 at Gatens-Harding Funeral Home Chapel with Pastors Scott Casto and Woody Willard officiating. Entombment was in Haven of Rest Memory Gardens.

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS

Appalachian Power plans to maintain a portion of its power line rights of way in West Virginia through aerial application of registered herbicides. Weather permitting, the program will begin on or about June 1, 2022.

Questions about the program or information about sensitive areas near the power lines listed below, such as springs, wells, streams, lakes, ponds, orchards, crop areas, gardens, pastures, meadows, year-round dwellings, public recreation areas, and Christmas tree farms, may be directed to the company by calling toll-free 1-800-642-3622.

Right-of-way maintenance agreements between the company and landowners are available to those preferring to accept responsibility for clearing the right of way crossing their property in lieu of aerial herbicide applications. Such agreements provide for compensation equivalent to the cost of aerial herbicide maintenance, provided the work meets the company's specifications.

Landowners desiring to enter into right-of-way maintenance agreements with Appalachian Power should call the toll-free number above. Maps showing the location of rights of way to be maintained in their areas also are available for inspection.

Herbicides to be used have been extensively tested and are registered by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the West Virginia Department of Agriculture. They are imazapyr, metsulfuron methyl, fosamine, triclopyr, aminocyclopyrachlor and aminopyralid. All applications are performed by certified applicators.

Rights of way involved in the program are:

PUTNAM COUNTY

Amos-Mountaineer 765kV – A transmission line on steel structures beginning at the John Amos Plant and running north, passing near Bancroft, Leon and Letart and ending at the Mountaineer Station near New Haven.

Amos-Sissonville 345kV – A transmission line on steel towers beginning at the John Amos Plant and running east into Kanawha County, crossing Harmons Creek Road, West Virginia Route 7, Frogs Creek Road, Derricks Creek Road and Haines Branch Road and ending northwest of Sissonville.

Sporn-Kanawha River 345kV – A transmission line on steel structures beginning at Structure 86 at the Mason/Jackson County line and running southeast through Jackson County, crossing Tight Squeeze Road and Peppermint Creek Road, then entering Putnam County and crossing Jim Ridge Road, Ghost Hollow Road, Clendenin Creek Road and McClane Pike. The line continues southeast through Kanawha County, crossing Dog Fork Road, Spicewood Road, West Virginia Route 19, Interstate 77, Poca River Road, Grapevine Road, Hughart Drive, Coopers Creek Road, Interstate 79, Campbells Creek Drive and Kellys Creek Drive, and ends at the Kanawha River Plant.

Complaints about possible damage resulting from herbicides may be made by contacting the company at the above toll-free number or the local office listed below. Complaints may also be directed to the Department of Agriculture, Pesticide Regulatory Programs Unit, which may be contacted in Charleston at 304-558-2209.

Two Putnam Students in John Philip Sousa National High School Honor Band

Two Putnam County students were among two of three selected from West Virginia to perform in the John Philip Sousa National High School Honor Band. They performed three concerts in Massachusetts from June 27-29.

The West Virginia representatives at the John Philip Sousa National High School Honor Band were Dillon Johnson, Isabella Boehm, and Cedric Allder.

Dillon and Isabella attend Winfield High School where they perform in the WHS Band under the Direction of Geary L. Jack II. Cedric is a member of the Spartan Marching Band and Symphonic Band at Greenbrier East High School.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

The boys are back from their deep sea fishing trip with their parents. They don't usually stay all night with Nana, but they have the last couple... they go home to do Spanish with their tutor, math with their parents... run, bike, swim... all the fun things of summer. However, one night we told stories about "back then" and had a great time... Usually, we are at the tennis courts or pickle ball... playing Monopoly

Happy Anniversary

Marty Stewart and Connie Smith of Hendersonville, Tennessee, will celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on July 8.

Charles and Linda Brannen of 4385 Bowman Hill Road in Huntington will celebrate their forty-fifth wedding anniversary on July 9.

Greg and Stacy Losh of Culloden will celebrate their thirteenth wedding anniversary on July 11.

Brandon and Candy Scarberry of JohnÆs Creek Road in Milton will celebrate their sixth wedding anniversary on July 11.

Edward (Buddy) and Gayle Chapman of 5201 5&20 Road in Frazier's Bottom will celebrate their forty-eighth wedding anniversary on July 12.

Danny and Sue Hudnall of 78 Chapman Drive in Milton will celebrate their wedding anniversary on July 12.

Mitchell and Jennifer Day Farrar of 574 Fairwood Road in Huntington will celebrate their thirty-second wedding anniversary on July 14.

Darren and Lora Vance of Milton will celebrate their twelfth wedding anniversary on July 14.

or Risk... reading... walking... whatever we choose to do and whatever temps... the stories were fun... I realized I miss much about "then"...

I miss:
Roller skating at the rink in Hurricane AND roller skating up and down Virginia Avenue on sidewalks with cracks...

Attending Sunday School at First Baptist with my favorite teachers and friends...

Walking to Billups Store to get groceries and being treated like a little lady...

The July 4th carnival at the school...

Getting a fountain Coke at Raines Drug Store...

Walking into Putnam County Bank and seeing Jack Wilson at his desk... smiling... and Phyllis Canterbury...

Getting gas at Black's Sunoco...

Getting yummy deli food at the A to Z... and running into Linda with her mom on Thursdays...

Slumber parties at Norma Kessler's...

Halloween parties at Becky Foster's...

Barbara Cottrell's sweet sweet parents...

Walking to church with Becky Turner...

Parties at the Casey's home...

Main Street crowded... Breakfast at MacDonald's...

The little library in Hurricane and the librarian, Becky...

I miss my Mother and our gatherings... I miss the Burke family and fun there... I miss the years my kids were growing up...

I miss:
A little blonde haired boy and a blonde haired girl saying, "Mommy, can we?"

I miss Circleville, Ohio, where we lived ten glorious years with so so much to do...

Traveling with my family... back in the day... all over this country... 46 states... other countries

The beach... Myrtle, of course...

Burke Reunion the last Saturday of June...

I miss living in Indianapolis with family there...

Seeing the family on Sunday at church... and my friends

Bible Study at my church...

Music class at my church...

My favorite restaurants and stores

The fantastic library...

Seeing the girls...

Lunch with daughter...

Dinners with the Taylors...

I miss too much... but in return, I have the Burkes here in Florida and two little boys I adore... the family, my son and daughter-in-law and the boys treat Nana like a queen... helping me in anyway...

Although I miss the things/places/people above, life does come full circle, and my life is fantastic. I realized that this year is half over... I do not know where the days go, but I know that I live them to the fullest... each day...

and the best part: There is just sweetness and goodness... no stress at all... I get to be Mom and Nana... loved by the best the world has to offer... and I love the best... life does go by quickly... we do become "going on 80" before we know it... we are who we are by our experiences... that is fine... I have had the best and the not so best... (I love the word, best... as my readers know...)

I am a little old lady, born and bred in West Virginia, Almost Heaven... who has lived so many places... made friends... forgotten some... stayed in touch with others... who can say with all honesty...

I am the luckiest, most blessed woman... I am fortunate... because the way we were is the way we are... forever and ever... prayers to my readers... mask... isolate when you can... vaccinate... please...
