Putnam County needs more than the mere existence of Fire Departments, they need additional money to properly staff and operate the stations.

Your Fire/Rescue Stations do much more than fires. More commonly than structure fires are motor vehicle collisions, many with entrapments; alarm activations; downed power lines; downed certain medical trees; Services to provide the emergencies; gas leaks; search and rescue; ATV/ accidents; swift water conditions; and much more. These stations respond daily to protect and assist Putnam County residents and businesses in many ways. Without adequate funding, these services become in jeopardy of protecting our residents and businesses our the way they deserve and expect.

Without the additional money, the county will fleet be forced to reevaluate replacement costs and and likely reduce the fire/ rescue services in Putnam premiums unchanged the entire county, not in the county. since 2012 and the Fire/ just portions. Artwork of Metro Valley 'Kids Kick Opioids' Regional Winners On Display at W.Va. Capitol

West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrisey announced artwork by students from the Metro Valley who are regional winners of the office's sixth Kids Kick Opioids contest, will be on display at the State Capitol building from now until October 10.

The artwork designs showcasing efforts to raise awareness of opioid abuse were created by Tyler Kinghorn of Village of Barboursville Elementary School in Cabell County; Tori Smith, Alexander Valleau and Bayla Harrison of Andrew Jackson Middle School in Kanawha County; Rachel McClanahan and Kristine Ashby of Sissonville Middle School in Kanawha County; Jonathan Easter of Hurricane Middle School in Putnam County; Mia Carper of West Teays Elementary School in Putnam County; Kenzie Hendren and Erin Walls of Winfield Middle School in Putnam County; and Kaylee Roland and Alyssa Staley of Buffalo Middle School in Wayne County. Artwork created by Erin Walls from Winfield Middle School in Putnam County, which was selected as this year's statewide winner, along with statewide runnersup Mary Calvert from Washington Irving Middle School in Harrison County, Aryana Hinz from Moorefield Middle School in Hardy County, Sheridan Hudson from Rivesville Elementary/ Middle School in Marion County and Abby Allen from Spanishburg Elementary School in Mercer County, will be on display at the Capitol

"These entries demonstrate the immense through Nov. 7.

creativity and talent of our students and shows the grim reality of the opioid epidemic and how opioid abuse can destroy lives," Attorney General Morrisey said. "Our hope is the work of these artistic students will bring greater awareness and change, and touch the minds and hearts of those who view them at the Capitol."

Walls's design also appeared as a public service announcement in newspapers across West Virginia. In addition, entries from Walls and the state runners-up can be viewed on the Attorney General's website.

The Attorney General received a total of 2,798 entries from 2,876 students at 78 elementary and middle schools across West Virginia. The submissions included a mix of drawings, poems and other designs aimed at promoting awareness. Kids Kick Opioids represents one of many initiatives through which the Attorney General has sought to combat West Virginia's drug overdose death rate, including a lawsuit against the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration that achieved sweeping reforms to the nation's drug quota system.

The Attorney General also has combated the opioid crisis with civil litigation, multistate initiatives, funding to target opioid abuse, criminal prosecutions, new technology. engagement with the faith-based community and education.

The West Virginia Board of Pharmacy, West Virginia Association of School Nurses and the Capitol Police assisted the Attorney General in judging the public service announcement contest.

The meeting this month will be held on October 12.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are By Brenda Burke

Sweetest Day

In October, we celebrate Sweetest Day... I am not sure if this means we are to be sweet, or if this means, we eat sweets. Just joking... It is a day of doing kindness. In Indiana, our church celebrate helping others one weekend a year... although they were quite altruistic the rest of the year also... there were no Sunday morning services that week... the members were out in the community helping others... some of us stayed in the building and wrote cards or did other "helping" activities... they cleaned...they built... they mowed... whatever folks needed... this is what I think of when I think of Sweetest

If I were to imagine the sweetest person I have ever known, my Mama Opal Coyner comes to mind immediately... sweet... kind... good... always thinking of others despite her difficult life... my youngest granddaughter is the other person... Margaret Rose... her sisters will tell you the same thing...she is the most sweet person... Mother called me her peacemaker... I don't like dissension... I can't tolerate it... it makes me physically sick...I have been around others who have made me wonder why they are the way they are... for the past few years, I have lived a sweet life with sweet family and friends... almost perfect... I guess one could say I celebrate Sweetest Day every day of my life NOW.

Perhaps this year, my readers might choose one activity to do on Sweetest Day... for someone else... someone who can't help themselves all the time... celebrate a day that is a day for caring and giving... and helping... why do we do this? Because the Way We Were is always the Way We Are... sweet... caring... helping... loving... even with the masks, there are smiles... This is a really short column, but I wanted to give my readers the idea of what one might do on Sweetest Day... If you don't want to get out and about... look at your spouse and smile...buy a box of chocolates, a red rose... go out to eat... get a pizza...watch a movie... but by all means, make every day of your life a Sweetest Day... be kind and gentle... forgiving...

just plain sweet... I must add here that all five of my grandchildren are absolutely sweet and kind. Aidan always jumps in to help Nana and is darling about that... Nicholas does too... Katelyn and Jessica treat their Nana like a Queen... my children and spouses are better to me than I could ever imagine... I have been blessed with the best family in the world. Not sure what we will do on Sweetest DAY, BUT WE WILL REMEMBER IT... Remember your friends with cards... my cadre of friends still do that... remember someone who has no one else... remember family who live alone... just remember... prayers.

Turn to Tradition for Tex-Mex Taste

(Family Features) The next time your loved ones crave a comforting dish that's warming from the inside-out, turn to an all-time classic with a touch of southern flair.

Take inspiration for this Tex-Mex Beef Lasagna from season 3 of "BBQuest: Beyond the Pit," a video series that dives into the long-held traditions, new flavors and everyday inspiration that make Texas barbecue legendary. Developed from the show by BBQuest co-host and "Hardcore Carnivore" cookbook author Jess Pryles, this tasty take on comfort food can be the perfect solution for a family meal with plenty of leftovers. After dinner, settle in together and learn pitmaster techniques from the experts as the series follows four themes that capture the essence of Texas barbecue: legacy and tradition; creativity and innovation; Texas trailblazers; and family and community.

"Since launching BBQuest four years ago, it's truly remarkable to see how much has changed and yet stayed the same when it comes to Texas barbecue, and that's exactly what you see in season 3," said Rachel Chou, Texas Beef Council's director of consumer marketing. "There has been so much exciting innovation around cooking methods and international flavors while there's still a huge dedication to long-held recipes and smoking techniques."

To find more pitmaster-worthy recipes, visit BeefLovingTexans.com.

Tex-Mex Beef Lasagna

Recipe courtesy of Jess Pryles on behalf of Beef Loving Texans Total time: 60 minutes

Servings: 10

tablespoon olive oil onion, diced nounds ground beef teaspoons kosher salt

1 teaspoon garlic powder 1/2teaspoon cumin

2teaspoons chipotle powder

1/2teaspoon onion powder

15 ounces canned corn, drained

15 ounces canned seasoned black beans, drained 10

ounces canned diced tomatoes with green chiles, drained 15 ounces canned red enchilada sauce

1 cup Mexican crema or sour cream

nonstick cooking spray

12 corn tortillas

ounces shredded Mexican blend cheese

cilantro (optional) green onions, thinly sliced (optional)

Preheat oven to 375 F.

In large pan or skillet, heat olive oil over medium-high heat then add onion. Cook until softened, 4-5 minutes, stirring regularly.

Add ground beef and cook, stirring regularly, until beef has browned. Add kosher salt, garlic powder, cumin, chipotle powder and onion powder; stir well. Add corn, black beans and diced tomatoes. Turn heat to medium and simmer 10 minutes. Remove from heat.

In bowl, combine enchilada sauce and crema; mix well.

Spray casserole dish with nonstick cooking spray. Pour about 1/4 cup enchilada sauce mixture on bottom to prevent tortillas from sticking.

Layer 2-4 tortillas across bottom then top with layer of ground beef mixture.

Use ladle to spoon some enchilada sauce mixture on top, distributing evenly. Top with another layer of tortillas then repeat layers until casserole is full, 3-4 layers. Top with shredded cheese. Loosely cover dish with foil in tent shape to help prevent cheese from sticking then bake 30 minutes.

Remove foil and bake 10-15 minutes until cheese is bubbly and golden brown. Cool 5 minutes before serving. Top with cilantro and green onions, if desired.

BOOKS ARE NOBLE

Books have the power to change lives; without them our knowledge of the world is limited. One immortal book offers beauty, hope and inspiration - more than any other. It is the story of both what has been and what will be. This book is God's Word, the Bible. In Job 12:13 we read, "To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his." Read this book, it will change your life!

BASIC BIBLE

By Ron Allen 304-562-9881

Obedience in Building the Tabernacle

Exodus 40:16-21, 29-30, 34, 38

"Thus did Moses: according to all that the Lord commanded him, so did he." The "all" in all that the Lord commanded is all that God commanded Moses to do in regard to the construction of the tabernacle and its furnishings. There is not one thing relating to the tabernacle and its furnishings which was by the design of man (Moses). It was all of God.

Scripture is not the whim of man or God. All scripture is of God and is given such that we may receive the understandings that He intends. Verse 16 is an advance notice from God. God wants us to know that the tabernacle and its furnishings hold special meaning.

In verse 17, God directs our attention to the date. It is the first-year anniversary of Israel's departure from Egypt. The tabernacle was raised up on this date because the Lord wants us to associate the tabernacle (a physical symbol of His presence) with Israel's departure from Egypt (Israel's freedom from bondage and servitude). The Old Testament is filled with previews of New Testament coming events. All born again Christians have been set free from the power of sin to become the tabernacle (temple) of the indwelling Holy Spirit (the Comforter, Jn. 14:26).

Devout adherents of Judaism will read all that God has written regarding the tabernacle and obtain an understanding that is far short of that which the Holy Spirit makes known to them who have received a new life through Christ Jesus.

In raising up the tabernacle, Moses first assembled the framework which consisted of boards, bars and pillars by fastening them into sockets. Moses then spread the covering upon the framework. In setting up the interior of the tabernacle, Moses followed God's every detail. The pieces which Moses placed inside the tabernacle consisted of the Ark of the Covenant (symbolizing God's covenant with the Israelites); the mercy seat (symbolizing God's presence among His people); the curtain (symbolizing humanity's separation from God due to sin); the table that held the shewbread (symbolizing the spiritual nourishment God offers His people); candlestick (lighting the holy place for the priests); altar of incense (burning incense that symbolized acceptable prayers); altar for the burnt offerings (symbolizing how sacrifice restored one's relationship with God); laver (symbolizing the need for spiritual cleansing).

Once Moses completed the work designated by God, God made His presence visible as a covering cloud above the tent of the congregation and filled the tabernacle His glory (v. 34). God's continuing presence was evidenced by a cloud by day and by a fire by night.

The tabernacle holds special meaning for Christians because we are the temple (tabernacle) of the Holy Spirit (I Cor. 6:19). God instructed Moses to fashion the boards, bars and pillars from shittim wood. The actual species of tree that Moses used no longer exists and quite likely did not exist in 1611 when the KJV was translated from the original languages. The shittim trees of today are little more than shrubs that cannot be fashioned into boards, bars and pillars of the dimensions specified by God. The Hebrew word which is translated as shittim identifies the wood as that of a thorn tree. The outer branches of all such trees exhibit high thorn density. Note that the supporting boards, bars and pillars of the tabernacle were cut from a tree once capped with a crown of thorns.

The covering of the tabernacle was made of ram and badger skins which were dyed red. Badger, is the translation of the Hebrew word, tachash. The tachash is most likely an antelope with badge-like markings. It most definitely is not a member of the weasel family as tachash is a general term that applies to grass-eating animals with split hooves (Strong's Exhaustive Concordance). The covering which God specified required the shedding of blood. The proper covering for God's dwelling requires the sacrifice of an innocent animal.

Born again Christians are made the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit of God by the sacrifice of Him who wore a crown of thorns and gave His blood for us. As the proper dwelling place of God, we are to be His testimony by day and by night. Let us be worthy of our calling.

LARRY LEE SHAMBLIN

Larry Lee Shamblin, Sr., 80, of Red House, is now looking for the best fishing hole in Heaven. A simple man from humble beginnings, Larry built a life and legacy with his own two hands. Those hands were callused and worn, but oh the stories they could tell. Tales of homes he's built, dogs he's fed, food he's grown, fish he's caught, deer he's killed, and most importantly, the family he's created.

Those hands held the hand of his beloved wife, Linda, for more than half a century. Those hands rejoiced the day he gave his heart to the Lord and trembled in glory as they felt the cold baptismal waters of 18 Mile Creek. I can only imagine those hands that grew frail over time are restored and embracing the hand of our Lord and Savior.

Larry leaves behind his wife, Linda; daughter, Connie (Paul) Hill; son, Larry "Bub" Shamblin, (Kim Lamb); grandchildren, Jess (Eric) Westfall, and Tony (Rachel) Hill; great-grandchildren, Landon, Grayson, Ethan, Talan, Adalyn, Brayden. His life and legacy will continue through all of those who loved him. In accordance with his wishes, his body was cremated. There are no services planned for the public at this time.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF CHANGE IN RATES UPON APPLICATION

(Tariff Rule No. 30-C) NOTICE is hereby given that Union Oil & Gas, Inc., a public utility, has filed with the PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF WEST VIRGINIA an application to 6,000 customers in the Counties of Cabell, Kanawha and Putnam, West The proposed increased rates and charges will become effective November 1, 2022, unless otherwise ordered by the Public Service Commission, and will produce an increase of approximately $1,569,000 annually in revenue containing increased rates, tolls and charges for furnishing natural gas service an increase of 26.4%. The average monthly bill for the various classes of customers will be increased as follows: ($) INCREASE (%) INCREASE Residential (5 mcf usage) $ 15.24 $ 76.20

The increases shown are based on averages of all customers in the indicated classes. Individual customers may receive increases that are greater or less than average. Furthermore, the requested increased rates and charges are only a proposal and are subject to change (increases or decreases) by the Public Service Commission in its review of this filing. Any change in rates and charges will not become effective until authorized and approved by the Public Service Commission. If a hearing is scheduled, notice will be given of the time and place of hearing.

A complete copy of the tariff, as well as a representative of the Company to provide any information requested concerning it, is available to all customers, prospective customers or their agents at 85 Ferry Street, Winfield, WV 25213. A copy of the tariff is also available for public inspection at the offices of the Executive Secretary of the Public Service Commission at 201 Brooks Street,

The Rule 30C procedure is designed to provide a procedure for changing rates charged to customers by natural gas distribution utilities based exclusively on the costs of purchased gas. Consequently, protest should be limited to the reasonableness of such costs and the method by which they are calculated. Anyone desiring to protest or intervene should file a written protest or notice of intervention within twenty-five (25) days following the date of this publication, unless otherwise modified by Commission order. Failure to timely intervene can affect your rights to protest any rate increases and to participate in future proceedings. Request to intervene must comply with the Commission's rules on intervention. All protests and intervention should be addressed to Executive Secretary, Public Service Commission of West

West Virginia Attorney General's Office Argues Appeal in State Supreme Court on Hope Scholarship Act

General Patrick Morrisey said his office argued in the state Supreme Court Appeals justices urging dissolve the permanent injunction against the or take anything from Hope Scholarship Act and remand the case back to Kanawha County Circuit Court for dismissal.

case and the argument is very clear: the decision of judge is flawed in many ways and only renders harm to the thousands of families set to receive funds from the Act," Attorney General Morrisey said. "I strongly support the right of parents to choose the best education possible for their children and will fight to prove the Act provides constitutionally for that

According to Attorney Morrisey's appeal, the circuit court incorrectly found that the Act interferes with the Legislature's duty to provide a "thorough and efficient system of free schools" for West Virginia students. That court also "misread the Hope Scholarship Act to find that it takes money from the school fund, interferes with the State
