SINCE 1900 THE BEST FAMILY WEEKLY NEWSPAPER FOR ALL OF PUTNAM COUNTY AND THE WHOLE WORLD

Putnam County Commission Approves $856,000 Radio Bid

By Ron Allen

The January 10th Putnam County Commission meeting was a first for Steve Deweese whose six-year term officially began on January 1st. Brian Ellis and Andy Skidmore also serve as county commissioners. Skidmore will be commission president throughout 2023. The commission, consisting of Skidmore and Ellis, met in an emergency meeting on December 30 a because decision needed to be made before the end of the calendar year to avoid a ten percent in the cost of replacement 911 radio consoles for those destroyed by a lightning strike earlier in the year. OES/911 Director Mikyle White received bids from Motorola for $2,567,000.00 and from Zetron for $855,727.60. Zetron informed White that its price would go up ten percent on January 1, 2023. White recommended Zetron because it was lower and because the company had received a good report from Jackson County officials who utilize Zetron equipment. The commission approved the Zetron bid of $855,727.60 and adjourned. In action on January 10, the commission designated that the commission hold regular meetings on the second and last Tuesday of each month. The second Tuesday meeting will be at 9 a.m. and the last Tuesday meeting will be at 5 p.m. Commission president Skidmore conducted a swearing in ceremony for newly hired Deputy Sheriffs Devin Conliff; Austin McKeown; and Austin Smith. Conliff and McKeown must graduate from the State Police Academy before assuming duties. Smith is a former Lincoln County deputy (Continued to Page 3)

Public Service Commission Paves Path for Nucor Plant

The Public Service Commission approved a request by Appalachian Power and Wheeling Power Companies to recover the cost of purchase and sales agreements for two renewable generation facilities. The PSC approval means that Appalachian and Wheeling will pass on the cost of a 4.875 MW solar facility in Amherst County, Virginia, and a

204 MW wind project in Logan County, Illinois, to customers. Appalachian and Wheeling argued that the agreements were necessary because Nucor's commitment to building in West Virginia requires that 20% of its energy sources come from renewables. The Nucor plant will be built in Mason County. The two utility companies project that

The 2023 Fairs and Festivals Pageant was a three day event held January 12-14 with activities conducted at the Marriott and the Charleston Civic Center. Contestants registered on Thursday. The judges conducted personal interviews on Friday and Saturday. Also on Saturday, each contestant was given 30 seconds to promote the event which she represented. The Evening Gown competition followed. The field of competitors was narrowed to 15 after the judges tallied points for interviews, event promotion, and evening gown competition.

In addition to pageant winner Bridgette Altizer, Miss Putnam County Fair Kayleigh Hayzlett of Eleanor and Miss Shanghai Parade Taylor Miller of Winfield finished in the top 15 and qualified for the final phase of competition, the on-stage interview. The judges then named Miss Altizer as the Fairs and Festivals Queen.

The Shanghai Parade which Miss Miller represented is a New Years parade which is held in Lewisburg.

Prior to the on-stage interviews, Krista Call Snodgrass was inducted into the Fairs and Festivals Hall of Fame. ## Girl Scout Cookie Season Kicks Off Across Region

The 2023 Girl Scout Cookie Season has arrived.

The Girl Scouts of Black Diamond Council is kicking off cookie season on Jan. 19 with the classic lineup of Thin Mints, Samoas, Tagalongs, Trefoils, Dosi-dos, Lemon-Ups, Girl Scout S'mores, Toffee-tastics, Adventurefuls and new this year: Raspberry Rally.

The Raspberry Rally is a crispy cookie with a pink raspberry flavored center and dipped in the same chocolate coating as the popular Thin Mint Cookie. The online-exclusive cookie will be available beginning Feb. 27.

"Cookie season is a wonderful time of year when Girl Scouts learn how to operate their own business and our community rallies together to support them and enjoy treats at the same time," said Beth Casey, CEO for the Girl Scouts of Black Diamond.

"These girls have big goals to travel, take on service projects and help their communities - and you can help get them there simply by ordering cookies to enjoy. All the while, they're learning key skills like goal setting, decision making, money management, business ethics and people skills."

To purchase Girl Scout Cookies this season:

If you know a Girl Scout, reach out to her to find out how she's selling cookies - whether that's in person or online.

If you don't know a Girl Scout, email us at cookies@bdgsc.org so we can connect you with one in your area.

Later this spring, cookie booths will be available outside all of your favorite big box retailers and you'll be able to find troops selling near you using your zip code on our website.

Don't need cookies for yourself? No problem! Consider ordering a few boxes as part of the Gift of Caring program, which are donated to military members, veterans and their families.

The Cookie Program began in 1917 as a way for troops to finance activities. Today, the program encourages girls to discover their inner leadership potential and use their earnings to create experiences for themselves and their troop—including travel, outdoor adventure, and science, technology, engineering and math programming.

Proceeds from the sale stay local and have led to support for animal shelters, food banks and more in communities - all while teaching girls crucial skills like goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills and business ethics.

Every Girl Scout Cookie purchase fuels local Girl Scouts' adventures throughout the year: exploring what interests them, discovering their passions, and taking action on issues they care about.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

"Why Me, Lord? What have I ever done to deserve even one... of the blessings..."

— Kris Kristofferson

"Why me, Lord? What have I ever done to deserve even one of the pleasures I've known?"

Tell me, Lord, what did I ever do that was worth loving you or the kindness you've shown?

Lord help me, Jesus, I've wasted it so, help me, Jesus, I know what I am

But now that I know that I've needed you so, help me, Jesus, my soul's in your hands.

Try me, Lord, if you think there's a way, I can try to repay all I've taken from you.

Maybe, Lord, I can show someone else what I've been through myself on my way back to you.

Lord help me, Jesus, I've wasted it so, help me, Jesus, I know what I am.

But now that I know that I've needed you so, help me, Jesus, my soul's in your hands.

Lord, help me, Jesus, I've wasted it so, help me, Jesus, I know what I am.

But now that I know that I've needed you so, help me, Jesus, my soul's in your hands."

Sometimes, when the boys and I are playing games, and laughing and acting silly, I say, "Lord, what did I do to deserve these boys?" One of the boys said, "Lordy mercy, Nana... you have two of us..." He took me literally... they are so smart and so cute and sweet, kind, and good to their Nana... our game times are fantastic... board games... and when Nana can walk, we go to the basketball court, tennis courts, or pickle ball... yes... truly... we don't go to the pool as they have their own... we play... we laugh... they help Nana. They call the condo, "The laughing place..." They asked their dad why Nana laughs so much... because she loves them so much... God's greatest blessings are our children and grands... and one day, great grands... Linda, I will catch up...

Respectfully, I love the words to this song... and the tune... the music... I cannot imagine what a person must feel at death's door... in a foxhole in a foreign land... at the end of life... knowing that one's mistakes can't be erased... that having lived one's life selfishly... won't change in that instant... the Lord is there for the asking... we

Four Chaplains Service

The American Legion James E. Marshall Post 187 at the Winfield Presbyterian Church on Ferry Street will have a Four Chaplains Memorial Service on Thursday, February 2, at 6:00 p.m. to mark the anniversary of the sinking of the USAT Dorchester by a U-boat in the North Atlantic on February 3, 1943. Among the 672 who died were four U.S. Army chaplains, who gave their life jackets to others.

Following the service, a covered dish dinner will be held at the Winfield Community Center. The public is invited.

ask... He comes...

My life has been long... I have loved and lost; I have laughed and cried; I have felt giddiness and happiness; I have felt sadness and loss; I have felt remorse... no one's life is perfect; we cannot pretend it is... but I know in my heart I have had the best in life... marriage... children... grands... in laws... you name it. I have been lucky... blessed... thankful...

What have I ever done to deserve a son and daughter who love me... each wanting me to live near... each caring for me... watching out for me??? What have I ever done to deserve my five grands who are the best the world has to offer? They are so good to me... I can't believe my miracles... and my son-in-law and daughter-in-law are fantastic. What have I ever done? Nothing... it just is... life just is...

I have a cadre of texting friends... we pray for each other daily... Beverly M., Linda F., Flora Lee, Linda A... my lifelong friend in my heart... they are all in my heart... she and I have been together forever... we pray at the drop of a text... we pray continually for each other... we love and adore each other... most of them have never met each other...

What have I ever done to deserve these four lifelong friends? Nothing... God just simply blessed us.

I have four dear, dear friends in Indy from church... we sat at the same table at Sunday School; we sat at the table at Bible Study, Friend to Friend; we sat together in church every Sunday... we ate out at local restaurants... five of us... some of us went to music class together... we send cards faithfully... we write each other... what did I ever do to deserve them? They welcomed me that cold January in 2018 when I needed them... I did nothing... God did... Ruth, Barbara, Pat, and Charlotte...

What did I ever do to deserve my other friends, Phyllis, Craig, Sonny, Lorraine, Beverly H. S., nothing... God did... He brought us together... there are so many friends in my life... Ruth B., too many too count... but let me tell you this... if I needed anything... they would be there...

What did I ever do, Lord, to deserve even one? Nothing... we just are... because the way we were is the way we are... blessed every single day, every moment, with those who love us and care about us... thank you Lord... prayers in 2023 to my readers. I apologize for repeating things in my column... I am just blessed and fortunate to have the same people over and over... I am not apologizing for being thankful and feeling blessed... it is my column... I can write my feelings... I know those who read it understand... others... oh well... it is not a book. I do appreciate the notes, texts, and emails thanking me... it is just a little part of my life... knowing that others make it what it is.

THIS WEEK IN THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

For the week ending Jan. 13, 2023

When members of the West Virginia House of Delegates took the oath of office Wednesday, Jan. 11, to kick off the first session of the 86th Legislature, it marked the first time in history the state will be represented by single-member House districts.

West Virginia Supreme Court Chief Justice Beth Walker administered the oath of office to all members after Secretary of State Mac Warner delivered the certified election results of November 2022, and members then elected Roger Hanshaw, R-Clay, to his third term as Speaker of the House.

"He is a man of faith; he is a man who is committed to his family; he is probably one of the most disciplined men I have ever seen, and he is a servant," Delegate David Kelly, R-Tyler, said in nominating Hanshaw. "He is humble. He doesn't boast about his status or his accomplishments, although he could. But he is more interested in boasting about our status and our accomplishments. He is a man of vision."

Speaker Hanshaw then addressed the members from the podium, thanking them for the honor and reminding them of the honor to occupy one of the 100 seats they collectively share in the House of Delegates representing 1.8 million West Virginians.

"This body, actions taken by this body have made it possible for over six billion dollars of investment to have been made in our state in the last five years," Hanshaw said. "We are talking about economy transforming jobs into communities across our state; we did that. We did that together."

Hanshaw revisited the goal he set as Speaker when he spoke to members as he assumed the position two years ago, saying it would be his priority to make West Virginia the easy choice.

"I am very proud to say the work we have done here has helped put us on the right path to make it easier to choose West Virginia," he said. "We have a lot more opportunity ahead of us, we have a lot more responsibility on our shoulders now that what we have done has been working, we simply now need to keep our foot on the accelerator."

Members then elected Stephen J. Harrison for another term as Clerk of the House, Marshall Clay as Sergeant-at-Arms and Robert Stewart as Doorkeeper.

The House welcomed Gov. Jim Justice to address who were married Oct. 25, 1808 in Franklin County, Virginia. Jack came to what is now Putnam County in the 1830's. He owned a large farm on Charley's Creek, just over the ridge from the first Matthews homestead near Hurricane Creek and that is perhaps where they first became acquainted.

Ann and Jack were the parents of four children: Mary Elizabeth, b. 1843; Lee Frances, b. 1845; William Franklin, b. Mar. 1847; Louella, b. 1850. Mary married A. Pratt Nov. 13, 1868. They were the parents of Laura (m. (1) James Henderson, (2) Woodville Riddle), and twins, Edith and Ada. It isn't known who Lee and Louella married. William Franklin married (1) Anna Olivia "Ollie" Rowan on Dec. 24, 1872. They were the parents of six children, only two (Ed and Bertha) lived to adulthood. Oliva died in 1883 (possibly in childbirth — last child born in March 1883) and Frank then married (2) Sarah "Sally" Garrett, daughter of Robert Garrett, Nov. 26 1884.

Sally was b. Feb. 1866, d. Mar. 8, 1909. They were the parents of: Woodville, b. Nov. 26, 1885, m. Laura Pratt Henderson; Mary Edith, b. Mar. 31, 1887, m. A Brooks; Edna Ellen, b. April 7, 1889, m. Marion Fizer; Buford Jackson, b. Aug. 10, 1895, m. Sadie (Turley) Woodall, and their children were Kyle W., Clarice, Alma and Raleigh; Fitzhugh McKinley, b. July 4, 1898, m. Reva Inez Ashworth and their children were Cebert and Erma Jewel; and Evaline "Evie", who m. Walter Burton. Sadly, Ann Matthews Riddle died about 1851. Jack Riddle then married Mary Jane Powell in 1853 and they were the parents of at least 12 more children, including: Alice, Caroline E., James M., Flora J., Lucretia, Ann Eliza, Ellen W., Margaret Emma, Infant, Josephine, Virginia, and Charles.

The burial place of Ann Matthews is unknown, but Jack Riddle was buried in the Charley's Creek Cemetery just below his farm. Numerous descendants of Ann and Jack still live in the Hurricane area.

SFLAction-Inspired Bill Addresses Standards Surrounding Medical Waste Related to the Use of Chemical Abortion

"Women's safety, the preborn, environment, and health risks have all been woefully ignored by the abortion lobby as they push dangerous Chemical Abortion Pills and profit off unassuming women," said Kristan Hawkins, SFLAction President. "SFLAction has been targeting the prohibition of these deadly drugs as well as the impact they have on the environment including our waterways, cattle, and health and safety standards. We're told to not flush something as trivial as a dead goldfish, but the abortion lobby is sending women home to kill and dispose of their preborn children in our sewage systems — we're demanding answers from these unchecked policies that impact public water supply."

WASHINGTON, D.C. (01-17-2023) — Students for Life Action (SFLAction) and Students for Life of America (SFLA) have been on the forefront of calling out the risks of Chemical Abortion Pills for women and the preborn, but this year the organization has expanded its scope of research on the effects that the drugs impose on the environment. SFLA has launched a petition and nation-wide awareness campaign calling for Red Bag Medical Waste regulation of dealing with dead bodies after an abortion. Due to the horror stories of babies' bodies ground up in garbage disposals, frozen in bags awaiting retrieval, and stashed away in old cars, SFLAction was eager to incorporate Red Bag Medical Waste language into a bill with State Senator Patricia Rucker of West Virginia.

Defined in Senator Rucker's legislation, West Virginia Chemical Abortion Prohibition Act (SB 153), the term "medical waste bag" means a red biohazardous waste container made to contain medical or biohazardous waste. The legislation includes guidance with warning labels including the clear identification of "BIOHAZARD." Furthermore, the container must be of a fluorescent orange or orange-red color and would be applicable to an "Unborn child, means an individual organism of the species homosapiens, beginning at fertilization, until the point of being born alive."

"This is a natural next step after our bill this summer to prohibit abortions except for rape and incest which I wasn't wholeheartedly happy with. I hope this bill will address some of the things which were left out of previous legislation regarding care of the baby and ensuring proper disposal of chemicals which endanger our water supply," said Senator Rucker.

The West Virginia Chemical Abortion Prohibition Act also:

Places penalties on physicians who distribute the drugs, in cases other than saving the life of a mother, with a $1,000 fine or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.

Prohibits the prosecution of women.

Distinguishes the difference of ectopic pregnancy treatment.

Penalizes manufacturers of any abortion drug who does not properly dispose of discarded abortion drugs. Including, if abortion drugs are found in wastewater, the pill manufacturer company shall be responsible for cleanup, remediation, and further preventative measures. A violation of this provision is punishable by a fine of $20,000 per violation.

As SFLAction educates women on the risks of injury, infertility, and even death as well as the Chemical Abortion antidote that could help reverse the beginning of a medical abortion, the organization is highlighting the lack of environmental studies prior to the Food and Drug Administration's approval of the Chemical Abortion Pill.

SFLAction is hopeful with Senator Rucker's legislation more states will take up this issue as we press federal agencies to test and investigate the effect of our water supply with potent chemicals. As Chemical Abortion Pills continue to rise as the most common method of direction abortion, it remains highly unsafe and destructive.

a joint session of the Legislature for his State of the State address and to present his budget, which proposes a 50% reduction in the personal income tax to take place in three phases over three years. The legislation to carry out that plan, House Bill 2526, advanced from the House Finance Committee Thursday, Jan. 12, after members made a change that included the Personal Income Tax Reserve Fund in the bill.

"You are touching every wage earner in the state of West Virginia with this bill," said House Finance Committee Chairman Vernon Criss.

The measure would begin with a 30% reduction in state personal income tax rates beginning with the 2023 tax year, and then reduce the original rates by another 10% the following year, and another 10% the year after that.

The newly elevated House Technology and Infrastructure Committee reported out two bills this week, HB 2218, a potential expansion and modernization of current distracted driving laws, and HB 2310, which would allow the West Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles to develop an "antique fleet" program to utilize a single registration plate for a person to rotate among multiple antique motor vehicles.

The House Health and Human Resources Committee also advanced two measures this week: HB 2016, which would allow specific information to be shared among child agencies or facilities when making referrals or providing services on behalf of the child, while still keeping the information private; and HB 2002, which would increase support for families through several methods, including increasing the adoption tax credit and allowing adopted children of West Virginia residents to participate in the Department of Health and Human Resources' early intervention services for children with developmental delays.

"We know this bill will require more work and fine-tuning, but this House is committed to supporting life and supporting families, so I'm happy we were able to get it moving early to allow for all those discussions," said House Health Committee Chair Amy Summers, R-Taylor.

A total of 548 bills have been introduced in the House, and the 60-day, regular legislative session ends at midnight March 11.

Dare to Dream...

By Wendy Silva

Submitted by Myra Simmons

Close your eyes and let Your imagination fly away.
See a picture of where you wish to be one day.

Let the colors of your heart take command to paint the picture of your dream and place it in your hand.

Hold on tightly and nurture it,
but allow it room to grow.
When you reach your dream,
open your hand and let it go.

Close your eyes and search for another, caring for it as before.
Never stop searching and letting go, for that's what dreams are for.

A Mission for Nutrition

Accomplish health goals with better-for-you family meals

(Family Features) Setting out on a mission to eat healthier starts with creating goals and working to achieve them with those you love. To help make nutritious eating more manageable, call together your family and work with one another to create a menu everyone can enjoy while staying on track.

Connecting an array of recipes that all can agree on starts with versatile ingredients like dairy. Gathering at the table with your loved ones while enjoying delicious, nutritious recipes featuring yogurt, cheese and milk can nourish both body and soul.

For example, the key dairy ingredients in these recipes from Milk Means More provide essential nutrients for a healthy diet. The homemade yogurt sauce served alongside these Grilled Chicken Gyros provides protein and zinc.

You're totally replaceable at work. You're not replaceable at home. Home is your real life. Keep that perspective.

Your life changes for the better the moment you stop accepting the opinions of negative people.

You don't always have to be the strong one. It's okay to ask help from people you meet.

Nobody watches you harder than people who can't stand you.

Don't forget God when you get what you prayed for.

Think big thoughts but relish small pleasures.

Your thoughts matter, so choose good ones.

A smile is like a jewel worn on the face.

The beauty you see in me is a reflection of you.

The beginning is the most important part of any work.

Some people drop sparkle into your day just by being a part of your life.

We may have to take some walks alone throughout life, but it's those walks that make us the strongest.

Don't you love it when things works out better than planned?

Do not forget small kindnesses and do not remember small faults.

Laugh with your eyes, smile with your heart, and love with your spirit.

Being prepared and successful in this life and not for life after death is failure.

Use your voice for kindness, your ears for compassion, your mind for truth, and your heart for love.

Karma is like a rubber band; you can only stretch it so far before it will come back and smacks you in the face.

Memories are the most beautiful pictures our minds can paint.

In a world full of choices, choose you.

Nutrition is so much more than the food you eat.

When you focus on the good, the good gets better.

Strong women empower, not compete.

The most valuable gift you can receive is an honest friend.

Many people walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave pawprints in your heart.

I love seeing people happy and hearing them laughing. It makes even a dark world, brighter.

Sometimes we mistakenly think our bodies need that little extra sleep, but in reality it's our soul screaming at us to find some inner peace.

Repetitive complaining will attract things for you to complain about. Repeated gratitude will attract things for you to be thankful about.

A person without a sense of humor is like a wagon without springs, jolted by every pebble in the road. - Henry Ward Beecher

No matter how good your heart is, eventually you have to start treating people like they treat you.

When the big things are getting you down, focus on the little things that bring you joy.

If we look at our lives and see fruit we don't like, it's time to plant the seeds.

The bravest people are the ones who keep going even when they think they can't.

If you're encountering failure right now, turn around and encounter your matchless Lord.

Victory is always possible for the person who refuses to stop fighting.

Gratitude helps you fall in love with the life you already have.

Stop worrying about what you have to lose and start focusing on what you have to gain.

When you build in silence, people don't know what to attack.

God will make a way for you. He did it before and he will do it again.

BASIC BIBLE

Blessing of Liberty in Christ

Galatians 5:1-17

In verse 1, Paul urges the Galatians to stand fast in the liberty which is realized through Christ and not to be entangled "with the yoke of bondage." Before being made free by Christ, both Jew and Gentile were under the law. Because Christ fulfilled the law, believers are made free of the law through Him. The Good Shepherd gave His life for the sheep such that they (all believers) have life and have it more abundantly (Jn. 10:10-11).

The Galatians and we (believers of every age) are called to testify of the freedom from the law which Christ has purchased. One who remains under the law does not testify of the liberty which Christ has purchased. In verse 4, Paul states that anyone who attempts to justify themselves by keeping the law is fallen from grace. Grace is not found in the law.

The Apostle asserted in verse 2 that the liberty that one has through Christ is not related in any way to circumcision. As New Testament believers, we recognize that we are beneficiaries of the promise made to Abraham (Genesis 12). We note that circumcision was an outward sign on the part of Abraham and his seed of God's contract to be their God and to give them the land of Canaan forever (Gen. 17:8). The terms of that contract involved more than physical circumcision. In Genesis 17:1, God placed the requirement upon Abraham that he "walk before me, and be thou perfect." More than six hundred years passed before God spelled out His terms of perfection in the law of Moses. The blessing which God promised to all families of the earth through Abraham (Gen. 12:3) predates the covenant of circumcision.

In verse 3, Paul flatly states that circumcision makes one a debtor to the whole law — one must be perfect. If one could walk in the perfection which Christ walked, Christ's perfection is of no effect. The act of circumcision is no less than a pledge to keep the entire law.

It is through the Spirit (revelation by the Comforter, the Holy Spirit) [v. 5] that we eagerly receive the righteousness of Christ which is the gift of grace by faith (Eph. 2:8-9). Paul identifies that which matters with Christ as "faith which worketh by love." Neither circumcision or uncircumcision has spiritual merit with Christ. Faith that testifies of God's love is the spiritual response that matters. God counts believing Him as righteousness. Evidence of belief is manifested by all who testify of His love.

"Ye did run well" (v. 7) refers to the manner in which the Galatians had responded to God's love. Something happened. God's love did not change. Christ did not change. Truth did not change. The Galatians had changed. They had stopped testifying of His love. What caused this change? False teachers had convinced them that God's love alone was not enough. False teachers had persuaded them to embrace legalism. Believers, Galatians included, cannot embrace both grace and the law. To do so is to declare God's love to be both sufficient and insufficient. One who embraces righteousness by works (the law) rejects righteousness by faith. Righteousness by works is spiritual leaven which infects the entire lump (v. 9). It destroys the testimony of His love.

Paul was born a Jew and was circumcised under the law but he did not remain under the law, He threw out the leaven. He embraced Christ and Him alone. The specific leaven that had infected the lump in the church at Galatia was the requirement of circumcision (v. 3, 4 and 11). It is apparent that some of the Judaizers argued that Paul continued to preach circumcision. Paul did have Timothy circumcised (Acts 16:3). The reason, however, was not to keep the law. Timothy's circumcision was a demonstration of love in that Paul might gain them who are under the law (I Cor. 9:20). The apostle argues that the persecution which he suffers at the hands of Judaizers is because he teaches the sufficiency of the cross alone.

In verse 13, Paul makes it clear that freedom from the law is not a license to sin. The law requires one to love his neighbor as himself. Freedom from the law allows believers to serve one another by love. Love cannot be legislated. One cannot fulfill the love requirement of the law unless one is made free from the law.

Through Christ, we can walk in the Spirit. The law is of the flesh and is contrary to the Spirit (v. 17). One cannot walk in two different directions at the same time. The flesh and the Spirit lead in opposite directions.

Judaizers were enemies of the Galatians because they would have the flesh rule over the Spirit. Christians of today face like challenges in that legalists would not have us walk in love (the way of the Spirit) but walk in duty (bondage).

Christ has made us free such that His love may be seen in us. Let us consider that which He has done and then love one another as He has loved us. We are free in Him who is the full expression of God's love.

infrastructure at two West Virginia business ready sites and associated cost recovery, pursuant to W. Va. Code§ 24-2-1n.

The Companies' plan will involve the construction of transmission and distribution facilities within and near the Mason County Industrial Park and the Harless Industrial Park, both located within APCo's service territory, which facilities will be capable of serving initial customer load at each site up to 30MW and potentially up to 60MW with additional investment. The goal of the Companies' plan is to retain existing industrial customers and attract new industrial customers to the benefit of the local and state economies. The Companies' application is on file with and available for public inspection at the Public Service Commission, 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, WV 25301. The Companies anticipate charging the following surcharge rates in connection with the construction described in their application:

Customer Class	Cents per kWh	$ per kW
Residential		0.008
Small Commercial	0.004 to 0.008	0.016
Large Commercial		0.004 to 0.026
Industrial Tariff		0.004 to 0.026
Industrial Special Contract	Various	Various

The average residential customer using 1,000 kWh per month would experience a rate increase of $0.08 monthly or $0.96 yearly under the Companies' proposal.

These rates represent the following average project-related increases to become effective June 1, 2023, unless otherwise ordered:

	Monthly	% Increase	Yearly	% Increase
Residential	$33,546	0.055	$402,556	0.055
Commercial	$12,945	0.044	$155,343	0.044
Industrial	$7,728	0.018	$92,735	0.018
Resale	0	0	0	0

The only resale customer in West Virginia is Black Diamond Power Company, Inc.

The proposed increased rates and charges related to the Project will produce approximately $0.650 million annually in additional revenue, an increase of 0.041 percent, during the first rate period.

The increases shown are based on averages of all customers in the indicated class. Individual customers may receive increases that are greater or less than average. Furthermore, the requested rates and charges among the various classes of customers are only a proposal and are subject to change (increases or decreases) by the Public Service Commission in its review of the Companies' filing.

The Commission has set a procedural schedule, including a hearing on the Companies' application, if necessary, that will begin at 9:30 a.m. on March 23, 2023, in the Howard M. Cunningham Hearing Room at the Commission's offices at 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia. If no opposition to the Companies' application is received, the hearing may be waived and the Commission may issue a final order within 150 days of the application filing date.

Anyone desiring to intervene in the matter should file a written petition to intervene no later than February 1, 2023, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. All requests to intervene should briefly state the reason for the request and comply with the rules on intervention set forth in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. The Commission will receive public comments until the beginning of the hearing. All written comments and requests to intervene should state the case name and number and be addressed to Karen Buckley, Executive Secretary, P.O. Box 812, Charleston, WV 25323. Public comments may also be filed online at <http://www.psc.state.wv.us/scripts/onlinecomments/default.cfm> by clicking the "Formal Case" link.

Joe Swann Celebrates 90th Birthday

Happy 90th birthday to Joe F. Swann of Hurricane. Joe was born in Milton on February 21, 1933, to the late G.C. and Bessie Davis Swann. Joe graduated from Milton High School in 1952, where he played football and ran track. He moved to Hurricane on January 29, 1954, when he married his late wife of 67 years, Phyllis Rappold Swann. Joe was the co-owner of the Sunoco Gas Station on Main Street for many years, and he retired from Sunoco Fiber Drum in Culloden.

After retirement, he has enjoyed metal detecting, coin collecting, and wood working. He is a member of the Pine Grove Church of Christ and has assisted in building several churches in the area. Joe is the proud father of two children, Dr. Gary F. (Kim) Swann of Toledo Ohio, and Teresa (Michael) Adkins of St. Albans. Joe also has a four legged son, Peanut.

He is the the grandfather of Ashley Harless Roberts (David) of Dunbar, Corey F. Swann of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and step grandchild Adam (Alisha) Adkins of Charleston. Joe is the great grandfather of Adelay and Adrian Adkins and the late Baby Roberts and the late Riley Ann Roberts.

Happy 90th birthday Joe! We love you very much!
