

SINCE 1900 THE BEST FAMILY WEEKLY NEWSPAPER FOR ALL OF PUTNAM COUNTY AND THE WHOLE WORLD

VOL. 123, NO. 15 THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 2023

HURRICANE, WEST VIRGINIA

SINGLE COPY 75¢

By Ron Allen

The agenda of the Monday, April 3rd Hurricane City Council meeting included an unexpected item of new business, "Order and Notice of Levv Election."

The item was unexpected because City of Hurricane voters held a Special Levy Election on January 25, 2020, in which voters approved annual revenue of $201,517 for the Street Department and $193,614 for the Police Department for fiscal years 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, 2023-2024 and 2024-2025.

The Order approved by the Hurricane Council on April 3 called for a Special Levy Election to be held in conjunction with Hurricane's upcoming municipal election in June. What is going on? This was the question which I asked City Manager Andy Skidmore.

Skidmore said that the State Legislature passed a law last year which required all special levy elections to be held in conjunction with a regular primary or general election and that the election was necessary to change the levy expiration date such that it would comply with the new law.

The new law eliminates the expense of special elections. What are the details? WV Code §11-8-17 makes provision a city to hold a special election to extend an existing levy on the condition that the levy IS NOT up for renewal at the next regularly scheduled primary or general election.

An existing levy which expires on June 30, 2025, must be put to the voters in the 2024 primary or the 2024 general election. No primary or general election will be held in 2025. The 2024 primary or general election IS voter approval time for levies expiring on June 30, 2025.

Hurricane's Special Levy expires on June 30, 2025 and is in sequence with the requirement that it be voted upon in 2024. Future special levies and levy renewals should be for the fiscal years 2025-2026, 2026-2027, 2027-2028 and 2028-29. Four fiscal years, beginning with the 2025-2026 year, will result in a renewal election during primary and general election years.

§11-8-17 (d) states “In the event that a majority of the votes cast upon a question submitted pursuant to this section

Teays Valley Baptist Church celebrated the true reason of the Easter season with three showings of their production, "The Greatest Story Ever Told," over the two day period of Saturday, April 8, and Sunday,

April 9. The production chronicled the life and miracles of Jesus, from His birth to the crucifixion and resurrection. Boasting a cast and crew of over 140 volunteers, the "Greatest Story” featured twenty-four different scenes from the Bible, lavish costumes, multiple set changes, and pyrotechnics.

Over 2,500 people came to Teays Valley Baptist Church Easter weekend.

to see the life of Christ depicted on the stage. This marked the first time that the church has presented the “Greatest Story” since 2019. The church does not

A girl on the left, wearing a patterned shirt and dark pants, is running towards the left while holding a small basket. Next to her, a girl in a dark sweater and dark pants is walking away from the camera. To her right, a young boy in a light-colored shirt and pants is walking towards the camera, also holding a basket. Further back, another child is visible, and the ground is scattered with numerous white Easter eggs. In the background, a large group of people, including adults and children, are spread across a grassy field. Some are standing, while others are bending over to pick up eggs. A large, light-colored building with a gabled roof is visible in the distance, surrounded by bare trees, suggesting a cool day. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, festive community event.

Last Saturday, April 8, brought lots of sweet treats to Valley Park, with a fudge competition and an Easter egg hunt. For many years, children have enjoyed scrambling for candy-filled eggs during the annual Easter egg hunt, but this year featured the inaugural Fudge Off in addition to traditional Easter festivities.

The Fudge Off featured both amateur candymakers and local businesses, with nine different vendors participating. Visitors went around to each booth, sampling the fudge and then voting for their favorites. Winners of the Fudge Off were 1st Place - Jordan Ciarochi from Hurricane; 2nd Place - Ella Hutchison from Hurricane; and 3rd Place - Elizabeth Dolin - Ginny's Homemade Fudge from St. Albans.

WVU Medicine celebrates National Donate Life Month

WVU Medicine is pleased to join the Center for Organ Recovery and Education (CORE) to raise awareness about organ, tissue, and cornea donation and to inspire everyone to register to be an organ donor during Donate Life Month. Donate Life Month graphic
“As a health system, we are uniquely positioned to not only tend to the health of our patients, but to inspire our community to be mindful of wellness in all aspects of life,” Michael Shullo, Pharm.D., WVU Medicine Transplant Alliance vice president, said. “The more people we can inspire to become organ donors, the better we can serve our mission to be advocates for the well-being of our entire community.”
Nationally, more than 100,000 people are waiting for an organ transplant, including 2,500 people in West Virginia and western Pennsylvania. At least 20 will die each day without receiving the transplant they so desperately need. Someone is added to the transplant waiting list every 10 minutes.
“National Donate Life Month is a time when we recognize the power of organ, tissue, and cornea donation to save and heal lives; affirm the partnerships between CORE and the hospitals we serve throughout West Virginia and western Pennsylvania that made possible nearly 900 life-saving organ transplants in 2022; and mobilize and inspire our local communities to register as donors,” Susan Stuart, president and CEO of CORE, said. “Most importantly though, National Donate Life Month is a time when we honor the generous donors and donor families whose decision to give the gift of life has provided hope and healing to so many in our community.”

Some important facts about organ, tissue, and cornea donation:
• Anyone can be a potential donor regardless of age, race, or medical history.
• With more than 90,000 people across the nation awaiting a kidney, it is the organ in greatest demand, followed by liver, heart, and lungs.
• Because conditions such as diabetes and hypertension are often more prevalent in the multicultural community, these individuals make up more than 50 percent of those on the national organ transplant list.
WVU Medicine J.W. Ruby Memorial Hospital will host a CORE flag raising on April 6 and a private Donor Wall ceremony in early May.
Individuals are encouraged to talk with family members and friends about registering as a donor. One organ donor can save up to eight lives, and a tissue donor can improve the lives of more than 100 others. To sign up, visit RegisterMe.org/WVUMedicine.
For more information on the WVU Medicine Transplant Alliance, visit WVUMedicine.org/Transplant.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke
“Springtime is a season of hope and joy and cheer, There’s beauty all around us to see and touch and hear...
So, no matter how downhearted and discouraged we may be, New Hope is born when we behold leaves budding on a tree...
Or when we see a timid flower push through the frozen sod
And open wide in glad surprise its petaled eyes to God...
For this is just God saying ‘Lift up your eyes to Me,
And the bleakness of your spirit, like the budding springtime tree Will lose its wintry darkness and your heavy heart will sing’
For God never sends the winter without the joy of spring.”
—Helen Steiner Rice

I live in paradise. My furnace was on two nights. We do not have winter here on the coast. We live so close to the ocean that we most always have the breeze. I can see my son’s home behind the condos... if I walk there, I can see the ocean and the marina where they keep their boat. The view is always filled with the green of the trees.

However, I have lived in WV, Ohio, Indiana... those states have winter... oh, do they have winter. When I lived in South Carolina, I never wore a heavy coat, but it was not as mild as it is here in Palm Harbor, Florida.

I do not miss winter. I do not miss the cold, the severe pain, and the snow. I do not miss snow days from school (teaching), or the mess the snow brings... and the dangers... the ice storms... there is something almost crippling about those days and nights and the worry...
This area is spring and summer most of the year. Of course, the summers are hot. That being said the summers were hot in the other states where I lived and air conditioning was needed, just as it is here. I don’t care what the weather is like, I walk. I walk and walk... good for me.

Since it is spring and summer, hope and joy and cheer abound in this area, in this time of my life. I laugh; I get so excited with the little boys (one was eight in December and the other will be eleven in April). I enjoy being outside with them on the tennis courts and the pickle ball courts... even the basket ball court. Of course, I am not good; I try... I get tired, and I am in pain 24/7, but I do it... with them... they are sweet, patient, and kind.
When I lived in WV and had my own house, I loved watching the buds on the trees; I enjoyed watching the bulbs come to life; I could not wait for the birds to return. Here, this happens all year round. This morning, one bird was singing especially loudly, wanting all of us to hear. When the white egrets are on my lawn, I sit on the patio and watch them.

There is probably no doubt in my mind that living here is freer; there are fewer times that there is bleakness. How can one be upset at anything when the weather is just plain gorgeous. The sky is bluer; the water is emerald; the sand is white; the breeze off the palm trees in my yard glorious. I love sitting on that tiny patio just listening and watching. God is saying that He has blessed us with such magnificent beauty.

Could I return to the north? I know that there might come a time, in my old age (lol), when I will return to Indiana to live near my daughter. There might not. I might go into Assisted Living or a Nursing Home here in Florida... it might be Indiana. It doesn’t matter where I am as both my kids want me near them. All of the grands also. I do know that I will probably never get to live in WV again as I have no family there. Almost Heaven... despite the cold and snow...

Some of my dear, sweet friends have gone through the “winter”... they have lost their husbands. Ironically, my cadre of snail mail friends in Indy—none of us are still married... My cadre of friends who pray/text... only one is still married... the ones who have lost their husbands in the past three years are Linda (WV) Margo (Iowa) Cherie (South Carolina), Janet (my daughter’s mom in law). Beverly in Ohio is married to David... Pat, Barbara, Ruth, and Charlotte in Indy are all widows or divorced. I know that the “winter” has been difficult for them, but they are all coming into spring and summer with hope, and they are so strong. Linda and Margo and I are close and call and text, send cards. Both of them have lost their husbands. Rodney in 2020 and Gary in 2021. Janet lost Larry in 2020... the girls lost their beloved Grandpa Larry suddenly... all of these beloved women are coming through the “winter.” They will never get over their pain; they will get through it graciously and slowly. They get up in the mornings and “remember” what it was like; they keep going. I am proud of them. Just like the buds on the trees and the new flowers, there is hope for the future. We take one day at a time because “Joy Comes in the Morning.” We are thankful that winter is not forever because the way we were is always the way we are: believers...

Yes, I have lived through the “winters,” and I have come out stronger and more faithful. It was not easy. It was painful many times. However, one person got me through... the Lord... spring is here...

offer the production every year due to the intense labor involved. An enormous amount of time and effort goes into making the “Greatest Story,” requiring volunteers to practice and rehearse for months.

Director Lois Gail prefaced the Saturday evening production stating: “From the manger to the cross to the empty tomb to the second coming, this is the greatest story ever told.”

In addition to being a church event, the production is also a family affair. Gail’s daughters, Stacie Howell and Shannon Davis, are also co-directors of the “Greatest Story.”

“It has been my privilege to direct this drama here at Teays Valley since the mid-nineties, and God has blessed me to be able to do that with my family,” Gail stated in the church program. “My son, Adam, is the narrator and has always been a part of the creative process. For the past twenty years, my daughters Stacie and Shannon have shared the directing with me and are instrumental in the creating as well.”

“It takes every one of the 140 plus cast and crew for the ‘Greatest Story’ to be what it is,” Gail related. “They are a great crew to work with.”

A Message from UNION OIL & GAS and TEAVEE OIL & GAS

April is National Safe Digging Month!

It’s Springtime! This means we’ll be spending time outdoors working on gardens and other home improvement projects. Before you begin any outdoor project, don’t forget to think about utility line safety.

Do you know that a simple job like planting a tree in your yard can jeopardize your safety? Many energized utility lines are buried just a few feet below the surface.

Digging, trenching or excavating without knowing where lines are buried could be costly ...and fatal.

Calling 811 before you dig gets the utility lines marked for free, and helps prevent undesired consequences.

Life is too short to stress yourself over people who don’t even want to change.

Failure is nothing more than a chance to revise your strategy.

The problem is that people are being hated when they are real, and are being loved when they are fake.

When you’re a child, you make funny faces at the mirror. When we become an adult, the mirror gets even.

Sometimes the most ordinary things can be made extra ordinary, simply by doing them with the right people.

Why do you stay in prison when the door is wide open?

Blessed are those with best friends in their lives.

Doggies are our link to paradise.

The same light you see in others is shining within you, too.

Every day is another day to find a little more joy.

There is never a day in any man’s life but that he is dependent upon the grace of God for power and the blood of Jesus for cleansing.

When a church changes their values to match current culture, they are no longer following the Bible; they’re following the lost.

The most expensive liquid in the world is a tear. It’s 1% water and 99% feelings. Think before you hurt someone.

Don’t judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seeds that you plant. - Robert Louis Stevenson

Having a doggie is like having a rich broke friend who thinks you’re rich.

God has already prepared a way. Now he is just preparing you.

Faith is seeing light with your heart when all your eyes see is darkness.

Life is like a succulent, a little prickly, but incredibly beautiful.

Memories are the most beautiful pictures our minds can paint.

Fear is a reaction. Courage is a decision.

You deserve to be loved in all the right way, and for all the right reasons.

I’m not aging like wine – I’m aging like milk: turning sour and getting chunky.

If you get to thinking you’re a person or some influence, try ordering someone else’s dog around.

Give. But don’t allow yourself to be used. Love. But don’t allow your heart to be abused. Trust. But don’t be naïve. Listen. But don’t lose your own voice.

Diet for a better life and avoid negative people, fake people, Indians people, people who do not want to see you happy. In a month, you will lose 5 pounds of anxiety and gain 5 pounds of happiness.

Each day I understand the phrase “I’m getting too old for this stuff” on an even deeper level.

Unless you attended a funeral with taps being played for a family member or friend, don’t tell me what the country owes you.

Some people try to turn back their odometers. Not me! I want people to know why I look this way. I’ve traveled a long way and some of the roads weren’t paved.

The most important thing you will ever wear is your attitude.

You don’t know how your words will linger on another’s mind. Speak kindly.

You will never be happy, if you are always worried about what others think about you.

A lot of our problems in the world disappear if we talked to each other instead of about each other.

Take care of your thoughts when you are alone and take care of your words when you are with people.

Our prime purpose in this life is to help others. And if you can’t help them, at least don’t hurt them.

Definition of insanity is paying people not to work and taxing the ones who do.

Every sunset gives us one less day to live. But with every sunrise, God gives us one more day of hope.

If common sense was lard, most people wouldn’t be able to grease a pan.

Good judgment comes from experience, and a lot of that comes from bad judgment.

Letting the cat out of the bag is a whole lot easier than putting it back in.

Don’t pick a fight with an old man. If he is too old to fight, he’ll just shoot you.

Put God first and you’ll never be last.

Just because I post something on Facebook, doesn’t mean I’m going through it. I might just like the quote.

To be kind is more important than to be right. Many times, what people need is not a brilliant mind that speaks, but a special heart that listens.

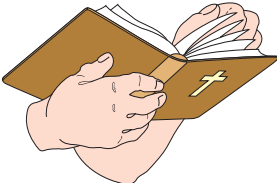

When you are no longer friends with someone, respect the secrets they shared with you. It’s called integrity.

If there ever comes a day where we can’t be together, keep me in your heart. I’ll stay there forever. – Winnie the Pooh Appreciate what you have now, because you don’t always get a second chance.

I used to feel like my side of the story needed to be told to keep folks right. Now I don’t care what story you choose to believe.

2023 Adopt-A-Highway Spring Cleanup set for April 29th

The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection (WVDEP) is now accepting registrations for the Adopt-A-Highway Spring Statewide Cleanup set for Saturday, April 29.

Co-sponsored by the WVDEP and the state Division of Highways (DOH), the Adopt-A-Highway program is administered by the WVDEP’s Rehabilitation Environmental Action Plan (REAP) and improves the quality of the state’s environment by encouraging public involvement in the elimination of highway litter.

Individuals, families, churches, businesses, schools, civic organizations, government agencies and communities can register to pick up trash on almost any state-maintained road, back road or main route. Private roads and interstate highways cannot be adopted.

The Adopt-A-Highway program provides garbage bags, work gloves and safety vests to volunteers, and takes care of disposing of collected trash. Volunteers must be at least 12 years old to participate. One-time cleanups are encouraged but must be registered.

Groups must register in advance by April 21st and inform their county DOH garage if they need supplies. To register, call 1-800-322-5530 or send an email to dep.aah@wv.gov. If you reach the REAP voicemail, please leave your name, phone number, group name, date of cleanup, number of participants, and the county where your adopted road is located.

BASIC BIBLE

By Ron Allen

Proofs of the Resurrection

Luke 24:36-53

“And as they spoke . . .” (v. 36). They would have consisted of the eleven disciples and those gathered with them. This number included the two believers who returned to Jerusalem after journeying to Emmaus (v. 33). Jesus appeared to the apostles as they spoke immediately after their having heard the report of His appearance to Cleopas and the other disciple on the road to Emmaus.

The apostles had received an earlier report that Jesus had risen — that from the women who found the empty sepulchre. The women reported the words of the two angels who said, “He is not here, but is risen” (v. 6). The apostles had heard but believed not (see v. 11).

The things which are recorded in verse 37 to 42 are there because God wants us to know that the apostles doubted the physical resurrection of Jesus Christ. Their doubt followed two reports and the very appearance of Jesus before them. Seeing, in this instance, was not believing because they saw and heard and did not believe.

Doubt is a reasonable reaction because it is impossible for what happened to have happened. The disciples reacted to what they saw in a reasonable and predictable way.

The Lord showed them His hands and His feet. His nail torn flesh was exposed; they beheld it but still doubted. Jesus then took fish and honeycomb and ate it before them. The Lord does that which is necessary to erase doubt. The Lord cannot use doubters; He uses believers.

The Lord speaks to all who will ever believe. In verse 44, He told the apostles that all things which are written in the law of Moses and in the prophets and in the Psalms concerning Him must be fulfilled. There are numerous passages in both the Psalms and in the books of the prophets concerning the Messiah. The Psalms speak of His being rejected, His crucifixion, His priesthood, and His future reign. Daniel speaks of His sacrificial death. Zechariah prophesies of the future time in which the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall “look upon me whom they have pierced.” Isaiah prophesies of all these things and more. One, however, must search the law of Moses to find that which directly spoken concerning Jesus. In Deuteronomy 18:15-19, Moses prophesies concerning the Prophet who shall come and do the works of Moses and deliver words to which all men must hearken. Jesus is that Prophet and all men who cast Him aside bring condemnation upon themselves.

Verse 45 states, “Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures.” The Lord God has opened up the understanding of believers (not doubters).

And what is it that believers are to understand?

That Christ came according to the scriptures. That Christ suffered according to the scriptures. That Christ rose from the dead according to the scriptures. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in JESUS’ name to all nations beginning in Jerusalem.

Jesus told the disciples (Believers) that they were witnesses of these things. “These things” is that ALL which is recorded in the scriptures is true and that ALL things must be fulfilled. All believers are witnesses because they believe. All believers are employed as witnesses. There is no such thing as an unemployed believer. Not all witnesses are equal. Some believers are more effective witnesses than others. Some can be and have been counterproductive. Jesus did not instruct His disciples to go forth and do the best that they could do.

He told them to wait until they were endued with power from on high. We know that this power came upon the disciples at Pentecost. It is a promise kept. Believers of today became believers because they heard and believed the message that was delivered to them by witnesses who were empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Today, believers survey the scriptures and find promises that have been kept and promises yet to be realized. Believers are to tell others of the things which have been made known to us. We are without excuse. He came that we might know that ALL THINGS which are written are true and that we are to be the witnesses of that truth.

God wants us to be good witnesses. Jesus revealed His nail torn flesh and dined with the disciples so that they might be certain witnesses. Let us confess all doubt and be the Spirit-driven witnesses that He would have us to be.

KELLIE ANN MAGAW

Kellie Ann Magaw, 53, of Hurricane, passed away on Friday, March 31, 2023 after a sudden illness.

She was a 1988 graduate of Hurricane High School where she ran Track and Field, and held several records that stood for many years. Kellie loved her dogs and her Tennessee Walking horses, and enjoyed trail rides and competing in horse shows. Kellie taught countless numbers of children and adults how to ride horses, and had been involved in most every aspect of horsemanship. Kellie was a member of the Eastern Kentucky Walking and Racking Horse Association, and The Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders and Exhibitors Association.

Kellie was also a Certified Equine Sports Massage Therapist. She loved working with animals and was quick to help anyone with a sick or injured animal, doing everything she could to help the owner get their animal healthy again. Kellie enjoyed being outdoors, working on the farm, deer hunting, and the occasional motorcycle ride.

Kellie was a former co-owner of Celebration Sensations in Hurricane. Kellie was employed by Service Wire Corporation, where she worked as a Dielectric Technician.

She is survived by her husband Rex Magaw and daughter Amber Lynn Magaw, stepfather Thomas Noecker, brothers James Parks and Ricky Noecker, and her sister Jennifer Greenleaf (CT), nephew Brett Reed, and niece Addi Mae Greenleaf.

Funeral service was Saturday, April 8, 2023 at Allen Funeral Home. Burial was in Tyler Mountain Memory Gardens.

Edna Raines, his brother Frederic Donovan Raines and a grandson Sean M Harris.

He will be missed by his loving wife of 65 years, Jeanni Raines who he truly loved and appreciated, Loving daughter Teresa Raines Harris and her husband Chris Harris. As well as a host of friends. He and Jeanni would sing "Have I told You Lately That I Love You?" to each other every day. Even in the hospital she leaned over and sang to him, and he joined in!

He retired from the US Army Corps of Engineers in Huntington after 30 years.

Duke absolutely loved his family, life and telling jokes and stories. He enjoyed working around his property and "clearing brush and trees" with a couple of teenage helpers who always enjoyed being with him on the weekends. His beloved beagle "Dutchess" used to love eating ice cream cones and after working, all would load up in the 1950 Ford truck and drive through Dairy Queen.

Later in his life he enjoyed studying the Bible and appreciating the hope it showed for the future. He also enjoyed sharing these Bible truths with others by means of letters and talking to people when he could. He dedicated his life to Jehovah and on April 19, 2015, was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

There will be a Memorial Service on April 22, 2023, at 1:00 at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 606 King St., Dunbar. For those not able to attend in person there will be arrangements for a Zoom tie-in. Please email jrbentley13S@suddenlink.net for login information. A private burial will be held in Valley View Cemetery at a late date.

Hurricane Council News

at any primary election be against the question, the question may again be submitted to the voters at the next succeeding general election.”

If I am correctly reading §11-8-17, no special election is needed or authorized by the new legislation. Hurricane Council may simply place the special levy renewal on the 2024 primary ballot. If the question receives a majority (not 60% as previous law required), the levy will be renewed. If it fails to receive approval in the primary, the measure may be placed upon the November ballot for a second chance.

§11-8-17 can be found in its entirety at <https://code.wvlegislature.gov/11-8-17/#:~:text=%C2%A711%2D8%2D17.,%2D3%2D1%20et%20seq.>

In other business, the council approved the first readings of ordinances to annex a parcel owned by Teddy and Joseph Bailey and 1.84 acres owned by Jan Hoover. The Bailey property is located at 2530 Main Street and will be zoned R-2 (multiple occupancy housing). The Hoover property is on Sleepy Hollow Drive. The property will be zoned for small business use.

The two properties must receive council approval at a second reading and approval by the Putnam County Commission at a future date to come into city limits.

Council is scheduled to meet at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 18, to “Lay the Levy” for the upcoming fiscal year. The next regular council meeting is Monday, May 1, at 6:30 p.m.

The following events happened on these dates in West Virginia history. To read more, go to e-WV: The West Virginia Encyclopedia at www.wvencyclopedia.org.

April 13, 1923: Medal of Honor recipient Jonah Edward Kelley was born at Rada in Mineral County. Sergeant Kelley died while leading his squad in repeated attacks on a German position during World War II.

April 14, 1774: Surveyors met at the mouth of the Kanawha River to establish military bounty claims in Kentucky. They became involved in several skirmishes with Indians in the region. This was the start of Dunmore's War, the name given to the conflict in the Ohio Valley in the spring of 1774.
