Betsy Allen was among visitors from Hurricane to view galloping knights attempt to unseat each other at the West Virginia Renaissance Festival in Greenbrier County this last weekend.

The West Virginia Renaissance Festival is held each weekend in June at Hollow Hills Farm near Alta, a short distance from Lewisburg.

The festival is a yearly event which features a reconstructed medieval village. Besides jousting, the festival treats visitors to acrobatic equestrian acts, sword fighting, archery, mermaids and pirates, fire breathers, glass blowing demonstrations, and a wide variety of performers, dancers, singers, and comedians. The public is encouraged to dress up for the occasion in either historic or fantasy inspired costumes. Each weekend features a different theme. Pirates and barbarians were among this year's offerings. (Photo by Betsy Allen)

Elevate Summer Entertaining With an Enjoyable Crunch

(Family Features) As families and friends gather on patios and decks to enjoy the warmth of summer and meals fresh off the grill, many are searching for that perfect ingredient that can complement salads, appetizers, main courses, desserts and more.

This year, you can turn to pecans to elevate meals and give your guests something to rave about. Iconic for their flavor versatility – shining in a wide range of profiles from sweet and spicy to salty, smoky and savory – they're a tasty addition for favorite summertime recipes.

From an enjoyable crunch to comforting creaminess and a satisfying chew, pecans deliver a perfect bite and texture. These Grilled Pork Chops with Peach Pecan Salsa, for example, are loaded with fresh flavors for an easy, nutritious warm-weather meal.

Taste is just the beginning – pecans also pack a nutritious punch with a unique mix of health-promoting nutrients and bioactive compounds. Known for their rich, buttery consistency and naturally sweet taste, pecans have a longstanding tradition as a nut topping. They're sprinkled atop this Spiced Pecan Grilled Peach Salad with Goat Cheese for a refreshing seasonal salad with a nutty crunch.

we do. We are asking for His love to be seen in us. It is a request that only He can fulfill.

"Give us day by day our daily bread." Again, this is a request and it is not a general request. It is an expression of the heart that the Father supply us with spiritual manna each and every day. In asking of this, we confess our dependence upon Him in all that we do.

"And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us." Jesus is not instructing the disciples to lie. Forgiving those who have wronged us is a precondition to calling upon the Father in prayer. We can boldly ask forgiveness of our transgressions because we have forgiven others.

"And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil." Jesus was led of the Spirit into the wilderness where He was tempted by Satan for 40 days. We are to pray to the Father that we should not be tested as Jesus was tested. In making this request, we are asking that it be the Father's will that we need not experience the trials of the Son.

The story which Jesus related in verses 5-8 illustrates persistence. Had the one in need of bread asked once and departed, he would not have received. His request was granted because he believed that his persistence would be rewarded. His persistence demonstrated his belief. We are to ask the Father believing. We are not to tap lightly on the door and retreat into the night.

In verse 9, Jesus assures us that our requests will be satisfied. Everyone who asks shall receive and everyone who seeks shall find. To everyone who knocks upon the door of understanding, it shall be opened.

This does not mean that every request shall be satisfied in the manner that we may have envisioned. Jesus assures us that the answers which the Father supplies are those which are needful and good.

In the opening verse of Luke 11, the disciples asked Jesus to "teach us to pray." The answer which Jesus supplied was given to Him by the Father (see Jn. 15:15). Jesus showed them what to say and how they should ask. Jesus relayed the Father's answer to their request. In verse 13, Jesus reveals the good gift which the Father gives to all who ask. God the Father, God our Father, would have us ask and receive that which of Him. Our Father gives Himself to us.

Our Father shows us that which He would have us to do. We are to reach out to others as He has reached out to us. We are to show His love to others as He has showed His love to us. We are to reveal the most perfect give which He has given. He gives in abundance to them who ask such that we may reveal His abundance to all.

He would have all men walk in His light.

The main grammatical requirement for pronouns is that they must agree with their antecedent (the noun they stand for) in number and gender, to avoid confusion. Gender used to be just a grammatical concept. In some languages, it is mostly arbitrary and does not necessarily have anything to born a woman. I didn't have do with sex. "The table" is "der Tisch" (masculine) in German Spanish.

For decades, there has been trouble over the thirdperson singular pronoun in English. The default option or "common gender" was masculine when the person referred to (e.g., teacher, doctor, patient) could be of either sex. As Margaret Thatcher explained, "Man embraces woman."

outraged. Hence, all the "he or she" constructions. Instead of unobtrusively doing their job, pronouns constantly demanded attention. Then people asked why the "he" should come first; hence "she or he," or perhaps alternating use of one or the other.

Then there is grammatical atrocity of using "they," "them," or "their" (plural) to refer to a singular noun. (Das geht durch mich wie ein Messer—that goes through me like a knife—as my German teacher used to scholarly supposedly publications.

Long ago, the only way people might be offended by your use of pronouns was if, in talking to someone, you used the wrong secondperson pronoun in a language that distinguishes by status. Did you address someone as "du" or "tu" (familiar) when you should have used "Sie" or "usted" (formal or polite)? But feminists became If you were talking about someone (third person), then that person had no say about your use of pronouns and could not accuse you of trespassing on their identity. CASE NO. 23-0298-E-P

APPAI ACHIAN POWER COMPANY and WHEELING POWER COMPANY

Petition to Update the MBRC Rates Currently in Effect

PUBLIC NOTICE OF CHANGE IN RATES UPON APPLICATION

NOTICE is hereby given that Appalachian Power Company and Wheeling Power Company (the Companies), public utilities, have, on March 15, 2023, filed with the Public Service Commission of West Virginia a Petition to update the Modified Rate Base Cost (MRBC) surcharge revenues. The Public Service Commission's June 30, 2021, Order in Case No. 20-1012-E-P required the Companies to file an annual MBRC update in March 2022, 2023, and 2024. If approved, the increased rates will apply to electric service to approximately 462,328 customers in the counties of Boone, Brooke, Cabell, Clay, Fayette, Greenbrier, Jackson, Kanawha, Lincoln, Logan, Marshall Mason, McDowell, Mercer, Mingo, Monroe, Nicholas, Ohio, Putnam, Raleigh, Roane, Summers, Wayne, and Wyoming.

CHARLESTON

The Companies propose to recover total incremental revenue requirements for certain rate base increases added between October 1, 2021 and September 30, 2022. The proposed increased rates and charges will produce approximately $10.05 million annually in additional revenue, and increase of 0.58%. The average monthly bill for the various class of customers will be changed as follows:

	($) INCREASE	(%) INCREASE
Residential	$1.23	0.76%
Commercial	$2.31	0.55%
Industrial	$1,161.04	0.47%
Special Contract	$2,664.57	0.53%
Other	$0.09	0.45%

The increases requested vary by customer class and customer usage level. Individual customers may receive an increase that is greater or less than average. Furthermore, the requested rates are only a proposal and are subject to change (increases or decreases) by the Public Service Commission in its review of this Petition. Any increase in rates will not become effective until authorized and approved by the Public Service Commission. The Public Service Commission will conduct an evidentiary hearing at 9:30 a.m., August 30, 2023, in the Howard M. Cunningham Hearing Room, Public Service Commission Building, 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia.

Anyone desiring to intervene should file a written petition to intervene by 4:00 p.m. May 31, 2023. Failure to intervene timely can affect your right to participate in the proceeding. Requests to intervene must comply with the Commission's rules on intervention. Anyone desiring to protest should file a written or electronic protest at any time up to the start of the evidentiary hearing. All protests or requests to intervene should briefly state the reason for the protest or intervention. All protests and interventions should be addressed to: The Executive Secretary, Public Service Commission of West Virginia, P.O. Box 812, Charleston, West Virginia 25323. A complete copy of this tariff, as well as a representative of the Company to provide any information requested concerning it, is available to all customers, prospective customers, or their agents at the following office of the Companies: 200 Association Drive, Charleston, WV 25311. A copy of this tariff is also available to all customers, prospective customers, or their agents on the website of the Companies: www.appalachianpower.com/account/bills/rates/ APCORatesTariffsWV.aspx

Any customer wishing to receive a reduced-size copy of the tariff can telephone toll-free at 800-982-4237, request such a copy, and provide the necessary mailing information, and a copy will be mailed to the customer. A copy of this tariff is also available for public inspection at the office of the Executive Secretary of the PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION at 201 Brooks Street, Charleston, West Virginia.
