Support West Virginia’s Only Remaining Ohio River Ferry

In Tyler County, West Virginia, in the small town of Sistersville, operates the last Ferry that crosses the Ohio River from West Virginia to Ohio. In 1817 the Ferry service began between Tyler County, Virginia (now West Virginia) and Monroe County, Ohio. For over two centuries, yes centuries, the Ferry service has transported farm animals, wagons, cars, pedestrians, and merchandise back and forth across the Ohio River. Over the years the Ferry service has had several owners and operators, with the City of Sistersville assuming ownership in 1981.

A seven-member board of directors has worked conscientiously over the last decade to develop fundraising ideas to help cover the cost of operating the Ferry. In 2023 alone the Ferry needed a rebuilt transmission at a cost of $27,000, a Coast Guard-required dry dock inspection costing $20,000, marine insurance policies costing $22,000, fuel expense of over $10,000, hull repairs estimated to cost approximately $15,000, and excavation work at the Fly, OH Landing totaling $4,000. Unanticipated expenses such as the transmission and hull repairs are a significant financial challenge.

Board of Directors knows that the people of West Virginia and Ohio are willing to help preserve this great asset serving the Mid-Ohio Valley. So, the Board created a Sistersville Ferry Endowment Fund last spring with the Community Foundation for the Ohio Valley (CFOV). The goal of the endowment fund is to establish a growing pool of money from which annual distributions will be made to defray Ferry operating costs. The growth of the fund will occur as area benefactors make donations to sustain the Ferry’s longtime service and historic value.

Residents of West Virginia, Ohio, and other states who are interested in preserving the heritage of the Ferry can explore two options to show their support. The first is to make a donation directly to the Ferry operations. To do this a donor can either mail a check to: Sistersville Ferry, 200 Diamond Street, Sistersville, WV 26175 with a memo showing 2024 Ferry Operations, or they can call the City of Sistersville and make a donation using their credit card. The phone number for the City Recorder’s office is 304-652-6361. The second option is to visit the CFOV website www.cfov.org and click on the Donate button at the top of the page. Then, enter Sistersville Ferry Endowment Fund in the Search bar and follow the prompts. Gifts to Ferry operations or the endowment fund can be deducted on your federal income taxes while helping to preserve the Ferry’s legacy. The Sistersville Ferry Board of Directors appreciates any and all donations to help sustain its vital, historic role in serving the Mid-Ohio Valley with the last remaining ferry service between West Virginia and Ohio.

Give Blood, Celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the Film “Elf”

For many, watching the classic holiday movie “Elf” has been a heartwarming tradition for 20 years. This November, the American Red Cross is encouraging people to add a new tradition as the holiday season begins: Spread cheer with a blood donation.

Donations are critical to the blood supply as the holiday season draws near – a time when blood donations often decline. Donors of all blood types are urged to give, especially type O blood donors and those giving platelets.

To celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the film “Elf” and create holiday cheer, all who come to give Nov. 10-30 will receive an exclusive pair of “Elf” + Red Cross socks, while supplies last. For more details, visit RedCrossBlood.org/Elf.

The Way We Were, The Way We Are

By Brenda Burke

I m a g i n e ... Thanksgiving back in the day. I love Thanksgiving... one of my favorite holidays. No big deal except the food... and here in Florida, no big meal. Just healthy whatever we eat... and relaxing... when Nathan goes to WV hunting that week, sometimes my daughter-in-law and I take the boys to the pier in St. Pete... after they run their Tgiving Day race... fun... fun... when son is here, we sit at the table and eat our favorites...

Imagine... Mother taking a huge, bigger than life, turkey out of the electric roaster. She makes a “million” sides and doesn’t even ask how many desserts. Her rolls, mashed potatoes, and awww her sage dressing... wow... Imagine... we all sit around the table, after Mike gives a blessing, and we eat until we can eat no more... too much totally. Mother gives us all so many leftovers... Imagine that... the best Thanksgivings ever... until they were no more...

Imagine... MOM/ NANA taking the huge turkey out of the electric roaster... adding tons of sides... not as many as Mother... and homemade pies and/or cakes/cupcakes... we sat around that dining table... Nathan, Kathy, Pat, the girls and Nana... enjoying our meal after the blessing... leftovers of course... and the best Thanksgivings ever... until Nana sold the house, and they were no more...

Imagine... what it would be like to have my family all together in one place at Thanksgiving... not to be... Katelyn lives in Brooklyn and will be in Iceland this year... the Indy group will be here and there... Nathan plans to hunt in WV... Yuliya, the boys and I will be here in paradise... wearing short pants and short sleeves... however, it will still be a time of giving thanks and being glad for our blessings. Imagine...

When Thanksgiving comes this year, 2023, I can remember and imagine what it was like in years past. I can remember getting up early to drive to WV... to Mother’s and then to the Burke’s. Crowded, happy, hectic... imagine that... now long gone... I would give anything to sit in Mother’s kitchen and the Burke’s... and watch our mothers put the meal up... oh... wouldn’t that be great...

I was telling my youngest grandchild the other day that how we live our dash is important. He asked, “What is a dash, Nana?” I explained that is the time we live on this earth. A big house, a fancy car... all the money... not important... how we live our dash is. He responded, “Nana, you live your dash making everyone else happy. You take care of all of us.” The thoughts of a little one. Imagine... what will he remember about this Nana? Just like his brother... they will remember the fun and sweet times with their elderly Nana. Awww... that dash...

Imagine if Mother could see her five great-grands... she would flip as the boys say... she would be thrilled to have them in her little kitchen. The boys would not believe the food (and could not eat it with their allergies...). She would love them so...

I m a g i n e ... Thanksgiving is a time of giving thanks... of thanking the Lord for our blessings... for remembering the days long gone... I loved going to our parents; I loved having Thanksgiving at our home... as I aged, it became more difficult... I am thankful for those who helped through the years... Thanksgiving is a time for imagining... for remembering... for realizing that although those loved ones are gone... they are in our hearts forever... the food... the fellowship... but most of all the love... My Mother lived her dash caring for others. That was her forte... that was what she was great at... among other attributes... the best Mother ever.

We will celebrate Thanksgiving, each in our own way... it does not have to be a huge meal on the table... it should be more about visiting with each other... not hours in the kitchen... take a walk... read a book... color with the little ones... tell stories of days gone by... just remember because the way we were is the way we are... and as I write this, I remember Reba’s song about the minutes in Heaven... I can imagine Mother talking about Thanksgiving... oh my, I wish I could hear her... Happy Thanksgiving... enjoy enjoy enjoy...

promoted a Census of the Town for a request for home delivery of mail. A banquet was held to honor the Hurricane High School Foot ball Team and the Coaches. Athletic Dinners continued until recently when the athletics increased to several hundred boys and girls.

The Lions Club promoted increased teacher salaries to attract better instructors for Putnam County youth. This Club has consistently worked for street and access road improvements for Hurricane.

Club members sponsored the drive to raise money to fence the original Hurricane High School football field and install lights for night football and baseball. Raincoats and hats were purchased for the public school street crossing guards and Safety Patrol members.

Hurricane Lions sponsored the original Babe Ruth youth baseball team in Hurricane and purchased the necessary equipment. The LIONS team has been sponsored by this club.

Clearing brush and weeds from the Hurricane Pioneer Cemetery at the west end of Second Street was another early Lion project.

For several years this club has sponsored local effort for the UNITED WAY OF THE KANAWHA VALLEY and solicited businesses for contributions to this humanitarian organization.

Hurricane Lions began to sponsor an Annual Scholastic Dinner for the top boy and top girl students in each grade, nine through twelve at Hurricane High School. This “Honors” Dinner has continued annually with enthusiastic participations by students and faculty.

Teen age youth dances with a live band were sponsored for several years with enthusiastic participation. The establishment of Government Teen Centers and school sponsorship removed the need for such club sponsorship.

This Club promoted the establishment of Putnam County Library as a governmental activity and the beginning of the Hurricane Branch Library.

The Club contributes to the cost of Christmas decorations on Main Street each yuletide. These are erected each year by the Volunteer Fire Department and the City employees.

Street signs for the City were purchased by the Lions with erection by the City employees and personnel. Lions bought identification front license plates for Volunteer Fireman to facilitate easier access to the fire station area by Volunteers in response to emergency call for the members.

Hurricane Lions have sponsored the Teays Valley and the Winfield Lions Club.

Hurricane Lions purchased the football field scoreboard at the new Hurricane High School and erected it. Lions also purchased the basketball scoreboard at the new Hurricane High School gym.

Hurricane Lions Club

has consistently promoted eye examinations for school children and secured glasses for those unable to pay for them as well as other deserving adults and senior citizens. Several sets of glasses are secured by the Lions for deserving persons each year.

Humanitarian and Community Betterment activities would fill many pages if listed fully.

Hurricane Lions are participating in wishing Hurricane Happy 100th Birthday.

Pharmacy. Ellie Comes to Town also recounts the history of Eleanor, which was established in the 1930’s as a New Deal homestead town which offered land and jobs to new residents. The town was named for First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, who visited the area five times during the construction of the project.

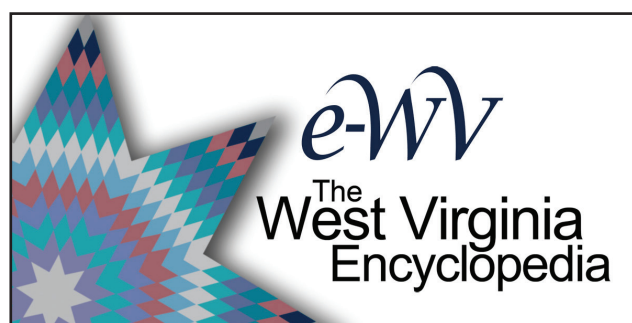

Author Sharlene Wiseman, who is a retired kindergarten aide, has always wanted to write a children’s book. She has a deep love of journaling and an interest in writing. When her grandson, Terrance Wiseman, was assigned by one of his teachers at George Washington Middle to write an essay on Ellie the turkey, Sharlene was inspired to write her own story. She was very impressed by the architectural drawings of Ellen Mills Pauley, and wanted her to be the one to illustrate the book. “Ellie Comes to Town,” which was released in October, has sold over 600 copies so far, with copies being mailed to six different states.

To promote her book, Sharlene has visited various schools throughout the county, where she reads the story of Ellie the turkey to the children. She has also hosted several meet and greet events, as well as made appearances at local craft fairs. She would like to thank the community for its support.

To purchase copies of “Ellie Comes to Town,” write to Sharlene Wiseman at sharlenewiseman60@gmail.com and make arrangements for payment and delivery. The book is also sold at Taylor Books in Charleston and Tamarack in Beckley.

Ring in the Holidays with Regionally Inspired Recipes

(Family Features) When Thanksgiving hosts and their guests ponder must-have desserts, one of the most common favorites is an oh-so-delicious pie. More specifically, with nearly endless possibilities and its familiar festive flavor, pecan pie is one of America's most beloved holiday treats. From nods to the Northeast's love of maple to celebrating sweet tastes of the West Coast with a citrus twist, the American Pecan Promotion Board is celebrating regionally inspired recipes. For example, putting a festive spin on the holiday favorite can be as easy as this sweet and savory Bourbon Bacon Pecan Pie that's a mouthwatering take on tradition. When it comes to pecans, great taste is just the beginning. They're the ultimate supernut due to their flavor versatility and nutritional benefits. The most beautiful way to start and end the day is with a grateful heart.

In memory of family and friends, who are no longer with us this Thanksgiving. You are always on our mind, forever in our hearts.

Leaving your home in the morning and returning safely at night is something to thank God for.

You can't be thankful "for" without being thankful "to."

I am thankful for my husband, George Armstead! Not just at Thanksgiving but every day!

Everything about Thanksgiving seems harder when someone you love is missing.

God's giving deserves our thanksgiving.

There's always something to be thankful for especially on Thanksgiving. Even if it's just not being a turkey.

While you're at grandma and grandpas, mom or dads, set your phone down and spend time with them. In a few years you'll wish you could.

Gratitude leads us to focus on God, rather than our fears.

Why did the cranberries turn red? Because they saw the turkey dressing.

Let our lives be full on both - thanks and giving.

Your greatness is not what you have; it's what you give.

The heart that gives thanks is a happy one.

Gratitude is a powerful catalyst for happiness.

No duty is more urgent than giving thanks.

I awoke this morning with devout thanksgiving for my friends, the old and the new. - Ralph Waldo Emerson

What is the best dance to do on Thanksgiving? The turkey trot.

Not everyone goes home for Thanksgiving. Some just don't want to go home for a visit.

Autumn carries more gold in his pocket than all the other seasons.

Thanksgiving is about getting your entire dysfunctional family under the same roof and hoping the police don't get called.

Bring your mind back to how blessed you really are. There's always something to be grateful for.

Sometimes we don't realize the blessings we have until we no longer have them. Appreciate all the blessings in your life. Take none for granted.

I am thankful for Ron and Betsy Allen for carrying on The Hurricane Breeze after the loss of Irene Ambler and Cookie.

God's giving deserves our thanksgiving.

Today, take a few minutes to sit quietly, and be thankful for all that you have.

No matter how hard life can get, go to bed grateful for all you have.

Jimmy asked his turkey friend, "Did you hear your cousin Tom was invited to a dinner? Does he not know it's November?"

Look around you. Appreciate what you have. Nothing will be the same in a year.

I am thankful for my son, Brad Armstead - Happy Thanksgiving!

Two things we need to do this year. Put the Thanks back in Thanksgiving and Christ back in Christmas.

May your Thanksgiving day be filled with love and happiness.

Thankfulness is the quickest path to joy.

I am grateful for what I am, and have.

Wear a gratitude like a cloak, and it will feed every corner of your life.

If you want to turn your life around, try thankfulness. It will change your life mightily.

Gratitude helps us to see what is there instead of what isn't.

Be thankful for everything that happens in your life; it's all an experience.

Thanksgiving day is a good day to recommit our energies to giving thanks and just giving.

Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings.

It's not joy that makes us grateful; it is gratitude that makes us joyful.

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.

Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don't have you will never, ever have enough.

Each day we live is a gift, so thank God in the morning for another day of life, and thank God in the evening for getting you through the day.

You, my Hurricane Breeze Fillers readers, are someone I'm really thankful for!

Having somewhere to go is home. Having someone to love is family. Having both is a blessing.

One of the best gifts you can give someone is the gift of thanking them for being a part of your life.

Be grateful for every second of every day that you get to spend with people you love. Life is so very precious.

Happy Thanksgiving to my grandkids - Kelci Armstead and Braeden Armstead!

Life is short. Don't take one day for granted, everything can change in a moment. Be grateful for all you have and all that you are. Remember who are the most important to you and always cherish them. Life is a gift and we are blessed.

Over 46 million turkeys are eaten each Thanksgiving.

Take a few minutes to sit quietly, and be thankful for all that you have.

Every time we try to eat healthy along comes Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, summer, and ruins it for us.

I want to wish my classmates of HHS 1967 a Happy Thanksgiving!

For all the good gifts, that your kindness imparts, remind us dear Lord, to give thanks with our hearts.

The most beautiful way to start the day, and end the day is with a grateful heart.

Not everyone goes home for Thanksgiving. Don't forget those who can't go home.

Kindness and politeness are not overrated at all. They're underused.

It's not so much what's on the Thanksgiving table that matters, as what's on the chairs.

Give thanks for those you love and hold so dear.

Never ignore a person who cares for you. Because someday you realize you lost a diamond, while you were busy collecting stones.

There will always be someone who can't see your worth. Don't let it be you.

Bible Verse

“Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!” —Psalm 100:4

A Message from the Mayor...

It's that time of year where we need to take some time to count our blessings and remember to be grateful. With that in mind, I want to express how thankful I am to be the Mayor of Hurricane - and for the people I'm able to interact with because of this role. It's my opinion that we live in the best place in the world and you, the people, are who make it that way! As we near the end of another year, I am reminded how fast things can change in a day, a week, a month or a year. Many have experienced great joy in 2023 and some have experienced great sorrow. We just lost an incredible business owner this month as Matt Leary who owned Farley's passed away suddenly and very unexpectedly. No matter what situation we face, I love the way people join together to care for others in times of need. A good example of this is the way people step up every year when it comes time to sponsor kids in our Christmas Blessings program. This year has been no exception. All of the kids who applied with this program were sponsored, and we're even able to give each child a box of nonperishable food to help get through the season. It makes me proud to know there are truly good people in this world – and thankful that so many of them live right here in our city!

Shop Small in Hurricane

It's hard to believe, but the Christmas shopping season is already in full swing! As you're going over your lists, I want to strongly encourage all of you to "shop small" this season as much as possible. This means spending your dollars at locally-owned shops and restaurants. We have so many awesome places to buy gifts, clothes and food in Hurricane - and when you buy from a local business owner, you are helping that person realize their very own American dream!

To further promote this idea, I recently issued a proclamation denoting that this Saturday -- November 25th - is Small Business Saturday in the City of Hurricane! The Saturday following Thanksgiving has been promoted for several years by the Small Business Administration as a time to shop small following the traditional Black Friday. It is my hope, of course, that you will shop at local businesses all year long, but this is a day that we really do an extra push to encourage you to show our local business owners an abundance of support and appreciation.

While you are out shopping, be sure to bring the kids down to our "Letters for Santa" mailbox which will be set up at the Gazebo on Main Street from November 27th until December 10th – and don't lose track of that deadline. It makes us sad to hear about anxious kids not getting to mail their letter because the magical mailbox has gone back to the North Pole, but we also need to make sure our elves have time to get all the letters to Santa in time for him to write return letters! We're also hosting our Fourth Annual Main Street Snowman Contest this season thanks to some great local businesses and organizations. We need you to vote for your favorite snowman at the ballot box at the Gazebo. Each business/organization that participates in this contest gives an entry fee and names their favorite non-profit organization. Then, our winning snowman's favorite non-profit will receive all the proceeds from the entry fees! That truly is a win-win for the Christmas season! While we are beginning to see the snowmen pop up on Main Street soon, the voting will officially kick off next week. You will see the ballot box at the Gazebo and the snowmen will be numbered when it's time to vote!

Christmas in Hurricane

Mark your calendar! The City of Hurricane's annual Christmas Parade will be on Saturday, December 9th beginning at noon this year. It will begin at Hurricane Bridge Park and continue to First Baptist Church on Main Street. The theme of the parade this year is "A Whoville Christmas and we already have a lot of entries, so I know it'll be our biggest Christmas parade yet! If you want to participate, but you haven't signed up yet, it's easy to do – just go to hurricanewv.com and click on "Events". The Hurricane Civic Chorus will be singing at the Gazebo at 11:30 so be sure to arrive early enough to get a great spot along the parade route and listen to some wonderful Christmas music. We're also sponsoring "Fun in Whoville" at Social Event Space (beside Allen Funeral Home) from 9:30 – 11:30 am. There will be fun photo opportunities and Whoville face painting to get everyone in the spirit! Be sure to head over to the Gazebo immediately following the parade for a photo with Santa.

On Saturday, December 16th we will be hosting free horse and carriage rides on Main Street from 4:00 – 7:00 pm. This could be an awesome "date night" or "family fun" opportunity! You can go to downtown Hurricane, grab a bite to eat at one of our awesome restaurants, take a leisurely horse and carriage ride and enjoy some Christmas cheer!

Speaking of Christmas cheer, we are once again hosting a Christmas House Decorating Contest! Now in its sixth year, the contest gives anyone who lives in city limits a chance at some bragging rights and a trophy. All you have to do is decorate the exterior of your house and fill out our entry form on our website, submit a photo (and video if you choose) and you could win! There are three categories: Traditional, Clark Griswold and Crazy Inflatables. You can find all the details including due dates and the entry form on our website. If you have questions, you can call City Hall at 304-562-5896 or email events@hurricanewv.com. This contest is designed not only to make the City look beautiful but also help everyone experience the joy of Christmas. I hope you will take the time to load up your family one evening in the middle of December, grab some hot chocolate and drive around to look at all the lights. A list of participating addresses will be posted on our website and Facebook page the week of December 11th.
